Item 1. Business

Overview

Urban Television Network Corporation ("Urban Television", "The Company") operates a U.S. based, broadcast television network (as opposed to cable networks discussed in the competition section) focused primarily on serving the African-American and Hispanic populations and other ethnic populations in the urban markets. The Company has branded the broadcast television network, for marketing purposes, as UATV.

Urban Television provides free over-the-air programming to television viewing audiences in the communities served through our local affiliate television stations. The programming is delivered 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Currently, we have approximately 74 affiliates located in over 60 markets and with a household coverage of approximately 24 million households. Our affiliates are comprised of broadcast stations with approximately 35% of them being on cable in their local markets.

The affiliates have the right to air all or a portion of the daily program schedule provided by the Company. Generally, we request that an affiliate broadcast a minimum of 12 hours of our programming within a 24 hour period. Approximately 20% of our affiliates broadcast 12 hours or more per day of our Urban Television programming, with the remaining affiliates airing at least 6 hours or less. Generally the network advertising rates are calculated only for that portion of time that the affiliate broadcasts our programming.

We have the broadcast rights to a variety of sports and entertainment programming. Urban Television broadcasts a variety of other shows, including, sports, movies, news, entertainment, variety, and family programming. We obtain our programming from a variety of sources.

We are targeting the African-American and Hispanic markets because we believe that they contain numerous marketing opportunities and are currently under-served. According to Census Bureau statistics, approximately 35.5 million African-American and 35+ million Hispanic citizens living in the United States, or approximately 27% of the total U.S. population. These two populations have a combined $1 Trillion dollar urban spending power and would rival the 11th richest nation in the world. The income of this group has increased by 170% over the last 17 years and exceeds the growth rate of 112% for other ethnic groups over that same period. According to the Selig Center for Economic Growth at the University of Georgia, African-American and Hispanic buying power - the personal income available after taxes for spending on goods and services - stands at over $1.3 trillion and will increase to over $1.6 trillion in 2007.

The vision of the Company focuses on operating a dynamic, quality broadcast television and cable network oriented towards the urban market, which is predominately African-American and multi-ethnic. In turn, a successful broadcast television and cable network will have the ability to serve as the engine of growth for an exciting media company that capitalizes on its position of owning/operating broadcast media properties, possessing excellent talent relations and controlling its capabilities to finance, produce, and distribute entertainment-driven products. The Company's goal is to be a ground-breaking media company that is publicly traded, has a majority of African-American/Minority ownership and control, and presents a positive image of African-American and urban America's varied multi-ethnic culture.

Additionally, the Company has as the result of becoming majority owned by minority shareholders obtained status as a "Minority Business Enterprise" under the standards established by the National Minority Supplier Development Council. The Company believes that as a certified minority business it may achieve significant advantages when it comes to major advertisers allocating their advertising budgets.

Urban Television Network

We operate two television stations that are currently broadcasting Urban Television programming. We have a goal of operating stations through local marketing agreements, or LMA's, pursuant to which we would control all programming, be entitled to all revenues and be liable for all expenses pending acquisition of the stations. We broadcast our programming to a combination of full-power and low-power stations, the latter of which are generally located close to or are directed at urban areas.

Programming

The Company's mission is "to chronicle the beauty, depth and breadth of African-American, Hispanic and other ethnic groups' cultures and histories from yesterday to Today and into the future." There are approximately 36 million African-American citizens living in the United States, or 12.8% of the total population. They have an estimated spending power of $600+ billion.

UATV Network's programming will be suitable for African-American and Hispanic families, as well as other ethnic demographics and will not include adult-only programming. UATV Network's goal is to give the African-American and Hispanic urban communities a network that will demonstrate more of their traditional cultures and heritages. As a new network, UATV does not currently have sufficient capital to allow it to develop more than a fraction of its programming for the network and thus will rely on outside sources of programming for the foreseeable future. As cash flow allows, UATV Network will look to develop a larger percentage of its programming. To insure the quality of our programming, we have decided that we will limit the airing of "infomercials," or program-like commercials on the UATV Network.

UATV Network will seek to develop a library of interest for its African-American and Hispanic markets that include documentaries; biographies; comedies; kids programming; music; dramas; film shorts; animation; international lifestyle; and news. UATV Network current programming can be seen on Exhibit 2 and at www.uatvn.com by clicking the "Programming" link.

The Company will seek to develop a library of interest for its African-American and Hispanic markets that includes documentaries, biographies, comedies, kids programming, music, dramas, film shorts, animation, international lifestyle and news. The Company's goal is to target the "trendsetter" marketing demographic (young, urban, African-American teens) that major companies such as Nike, Coke, Pepsi, Proctor and Gamble, General Electric, Dell, Microsoft, Apple, General Motors, Ford, Chrysler, Nissan, Exxon-Mobil, Texaco, Prudential Securities, Merrill Lynch, American Airlines, Delta Airlines, and music companies pursue as the major focal point for network, during pivotal prime-time viewing hours. The plan is to "adapt and improve on" key original and other ethnic programming that other networks successfully offer, (e.g., A&E's Biography, a multi-ethnic Soul Train, the Discovery Channel's documentaries, MTV's and Vh-1's music based programming around stars, groups, genres of music, "behind the scenes" looks, etc.) and various other shows that will resonate with the network's audience. The network will only have a small amount of original programming from its inception but plans to increase its original programming going forward to set it apart from other minority focused networks. The network's programming can be seen at www.uatvn.com by clicking the "Programming" link.

Edgar Filing: URBAN TELEVISION NETWORK CORP - Form 10KSB

Urban Television believes that there is adequate programming available from program syndicators, independent companies and other minority networks with which it will be bundling (sharing) programming. The network is broadcasting 24 hours daily, seven days per week with a diversified programming schedule that it is continually revising for new programming coming to the network.

A typical 24 hour schedule during the week of network programming is as follows:

Programming Costs

Urban Television obtains virtually all of the existing programming from outside sources in exchange for allowing the provider to fill a portion of the advertising slots. For example, a thirty-minute program routinely contains six to seven minutes of advertisements or spots that are available to Urban Television. Urban Television generally allows the provider to fill up to 50% of these slots in exchange for use of the programming.

Programming Distribution

There are a number of mediums for distribution of the Urban Television network programming to viewing audiences. Generally, the three largest are traditional broadcast television stations, cable television systems and direct satellite broadcasters such as DirectTV and Dish Network. Presently, the Urban Television network has approximately 74 broadcast television station affiliates (which can be seen at www.uatvn.com and clicking the "Affiliates" link) of which a number are also on cable in their local markets.

The Company's goal is to negotiate with the operators of cable television systems and satellite broadcasters for these operators to carry the network for nominal or no charges, especially with the network having a minority focused programming grid. The Company believes that many of these operators may be willing to offer attractive terms because of their desire to carry additional programming addressed to the African-American and other minority viewers. Because none of these arrangements have yet been negotiated, there can be no assurance that these goals will come to fruition.

The Broadcast Facilities and Satellite Signal.

In November 2002, the Company entered into agreements with Loral Skynet (now Intelsat, Inc.) for 6 MHz of bandwidth on the Telstar 5 (now Intelsat 5) for satellite space and with Verestar, Inc. to uplink the Urban Television Network signal to the satellite. The cost to the Company for both agreements is a total of $26,043 per month for three years.

Licensing Rights.

Our basic form of licensing rights agreement with program suppliers contains terms pursuant to which the Company obtains broadcasting rights to certain identified programming and in exchange, we allow the licensor advertising time during the broadcast of such programs. Generally speaking, in a thirty (30) minute program with seven (7) minutes of commercial time, the time is allocated as follows:

- o two and one-half (2.5) minutes to the licensor;
- o two (2) minutes to our affiliate station; and
- o two and one-half (2.5) minutes to Urban Television Network.

The licensor can then sell this advertising time to outside parties, thereby earning income on the licensing of their program. Our licensing agreements are generally for a term of 26 to 52 weeks and are cancelable by either party upon thirty (30) days written notice. We also have the right to refuse any program, without prior notice, if the content, subject matter, or production quality does not meet our standards. The Company's policy is to recognize the revenue associated with these sources of revenue at the time that it inserts the short-form advertising spots or airs the long-form program at the network or local level.

Affiliates

Currently, we have approximately 74 affiliates located in over 60 markets and with a household coverage of approximately 24 million households. Our affiliates are comprised of broadcast stations with approximately 35% of them being on cable in their local markets.

Generally, we request that an affiliate broadcast a minimum of 12 hours of our programming within a 24 hour period. Approximately 20% of our affiliates broadcast 12 hours or more per day of our Urban Television programming, with the remaining affiliates airing at least 6 hours or less. Generally the network advertising rates are calculated only for that portion of time that the affiliate broadcasts our programming.

We grant the Urban Television affiliates a limited license pursuant to an affiliate license agreement. This limited license permits our affiliates to receive Urban Television programming via satellite transmissions and to exhibit and rebroadcast our programming. Additionally, we request affiliates' to submit monthly broadcast logs in order to monitor compliance with these requirements. Our affiliates agree that they will not preempt, cover or in any way disrupt national advertisements contained in any program or portion thereof that they broadcast with the exception of two (2) two-minute spots per hour for local commercial insertions, as well as two (2) ten-second station breaks per hour. Either the network or our affiliate may cancel the agreement at any time with thirty (30) days written notice.

In exchange for providing the affiliate with programming and commercial time, we retain the remainder of the advertising time, which we sell to advertising firms and independent advertisers, or use it to barter with third-parties to acquire additional programs.

Marketing

The Company plans to use (although it has none hired at this time) marketing professionals, known as account executives, to target advertisers and advertising agencies that are interested in the Urban market demographics. They will consist of network and national spot account executives and local spot account executives for markets where the Company by agreement has control of the stations operations. Account executives targeting network advertisers will serve a dual role as national spot sellers. These sales personnel will have the flexibility of offering a network wide sales package or a market specific sales package. Generally, the majority of network and national spot advertising sales is generated from the same advertising agencies. This efficiency will allow us to generate greater profits while controlling our own sales efforts. Account executives responsible for local spot sales will be located in each of the operated station markets. They will target advertising agencies, businesses and service providers in their individual markets.

These marketing efforts will be enhanced through the use of research developed by an in-house research department (which is yet to be established) utilizing both qualitative and quantitative information. This research will allow the sales departments to better negotiate and price our commercial inventory. The research department will further help our sales efforts by identifying and targeting advertisers in this utilized market.

As the Company grows, its goal is to have national and network sales offices in the major markets such as Los Angeles, New York, Miami, Chicago, Dallas, Atlanta and Houston.

Competition

The network television broadcasting business is highly competitive. As a result of the wide range of programming available in both the broadcast and cable formats; the Network will compete with a large number of competitors in the television, cable and direct television markets. The Network will compete for available airtime, channel capacity, advertiser revenues, revenue from license fees, number of viewing households, and programming material. Competition for sales of broadcast advertising time is based primarily on the anticipated and delivered size and demographic characteristics of audiences as determined by various rating services that price the time of day when the advertising is to be broadcast. Other factors include competition from other broadcast networks; cable television systems; DBS services; and other media and general economic conditions. Competition for audiences is based primarily on the selection of programming, the acceptance of which is dependent on the reaction of the viewing public that is often difficult to predict. The Company believes that its strongest competitive advantages are: (1) the quality of and vision of its African American and Hispanic oriented programming; (2) its competitive advertising rates; (3) the African-American and Hispanic nature of the network's broadcasts and programming; (4) cross promotional and advertising opportunities with other media; (5) its technology plan that gives its affiliates the tools to manage their stations; and (6) its success in becoming a publicly traded majority minority owned Minority Business Enterprise that enables it to access diversity spending by major advertisers; (7) access large capital at cost-effective rates to grow its core business and synergistic entertainment opportunities in film, television, music, the internet and intellectual property.

In its operations, Urban Television expects to experience substantial competition from other entities with greater financial resources. Current networks targeting the African-American/Hispanic urban market are cable networks with little or no broadcast station distribution. There is no assurance that the Company will be able to compete successfully.

Some of the competition in our market niche are:

Black Entertainment Television (BET): BET, formed and headed by Bob Johnson, and now owned by Viacom, has been in business for 20 years and currently reaches approximately 55+ million homes. BET's annual revenues have hover at around $160 million. BET's programming basically consists of no-cost music videos, low-cost standup comic shows, infomercials and some talk shows. Programming has always been a sore spot for BET with its relationships with the Multiple Systems Operators (MSOs) and the African-American Community. The sore spot comes from the fact that the African-American Community does not believe that BET's programming depicts the true culture and lifestyle of this ethnic group. Bob Johnson's, and now Viacom's, retort has been over the years, "We are a business first and a black network second." This is clear to many and provides Urban TV with a great opportunity to provide a different programming philosophy that will depict the culture and lifestyle of the African-American Community, allowing it to take pride in and support the Urban TV programming. BET will try to obtain more channel space on cable networks to thwart the competition, including the Company's Urban Television network. BET.com, a great website and venture with major media entities as partners, has been launched.

TV One: a new cable channel was launched in January 2004. Its investors include Radio One, the nation's seventh largest radio broadcasting company; Comcast Corporation, a leading cable television company in the country; Constellation Ventures; Syndicated Communications; Pacesetters Capital Group; and Opportunity Capital Partners. On its launch date, TV One was available to 2.2 million subscribers in Comcast markets. "We have worked very hard to make TV One a television home that will serve African American adults' entertainment interest and show the rest of society the depth, variety and vitality of our lifestyle and culture," said TV One President and CEO Jonathan Rodgers.

Major Broadcasting Corporation: MBC launched in 1999 as a cable network but has not acquired the distribution it expected. Our estimate is that MBC has cable subscriber service of less than ten million. Headed by celebrities: Evander Holyfield, Marlon Jackson, Cecil Fielder, attorney Willie Gary and businessman, Alvin James, MBC has chosen to go after the African-American, Christian family audience. The "esprit de corps" and corporate culture are two of MBC's assets.

Overall, UATV expects strong competition from all of the above competitors. BET will likely attempt to launch additional BET channels for Family, Movies and Jazz. BET, as part of Viacom, has significant financial resources. TV One with its partnership with Comcast will have a strong competitive edge in securing cable channel space. MBC, being a cable channel, is not an immediate threat, but poses a threat if each successive MSO that airs MBC will not then carry UATV Network. In addition, there are and always have been other entities, attempting to launch networks focusing on the African American and Hispanic populations.

Urban Television's response to the competition includes (1) Being a certified minority company that will allow it to qualify for diversity dollars set aside by the Fortune 500 companies (2) Developing a Partnership with corporate America program (3) developing a network grid format with family oriented programs that the urban minority community will endorse and support (4) producing, owning and programming quality shows to make the UATV Network more appealing to the broadcast television stations, the direct to home broadcast systems, the MSOs and the African American and Hispanic television consumer; (5) developing a technology component designed around an Internet application that will distinguish the Network and its affiliates.

For Urban Television to continue to grow, particular emphasis has to be placed on (1) securing affiliations from broadcast television stations, cable MSOs and direct to home systems in the major African American demographic markets, (2) implementation of an effective sales force and (3) securing innovative programming to attract advertisers, sponsors and viewers and (4) becoming a certified Minority Business Enterprise which will allow it to qualify for diversity dollars set aside by the major corporations.

Competitive Strategy

Urban Television's goal is to become the best managed, highest quality, multimedia company that focuses on the African-American and other minority ethnic markets. Led, initially, by its broadcast television station network and later as it adds cable and direct-to-home systems, Urban Television plans to build a network that will make it one of the predominate television programming networks focusing on the depth, breadth, history and beauty of African-American people and their culture. Urban Television will pursue a strategy of differentiation within the broadcast television, cable and direct to home industry.

Urban Television's competitive strategy consists of the following key points:

1. Hire and retain a strong management team. Develop a Board of Directors and Advisory Board who will help lead and advise Urban Television, in addition to bringing in valuable resources and relationships.
2. Produce (or partner with producers) and broadcast as many high- concept, quality original programs and series as it can economically and prudently afford to do each year. Such original productions will enable Urban Television to build brand loyalty, attract advertisers and sponsors and build a library of media copyrights to exploit worldwide
3. In regards to cost and risk management, Urban Television will seek to minimize overhead; obtain no-cost, low-cost and barter programming, and establish strong financial relationships with strategic partners;
4. Pursue parallel strategies of distribution for the network with MSOs for analog and digital cable carriage, satellite systems, and broadcast television stations;

5. Pursue affiliate and distribution deals with independent

Edgar Filing: URBAN TELEVISION NETWORK CORP - Form 10KSB

- television stations and MSOs where there is a heavy African-American and/or multi-ethnic population;
6. Obtain and maintain the status of being a certified Minority Business Enterprise to attract major corporate and governmental advertisers/sponsors;
 7. Establish a strong sales presence in New York, Los Angeles, Dallas-Fort Worth, Chicago, San Antonio, Detroit, Orlando, Houston, Philadelphia, Memphis, Washington D.C., Nashville, New Orleans, Atlanta to obtain the maximum penetration of the African-American market that will translate into higher advertising rates;
 8. Establish a lobbying presence in Washington, DC to push for Urban Television's interest with the FCC, congress, governmental agencies and to certify Urban Television as a minority vendor;
 9. Establish a working committee for Business Development to serve as an incubator for ventures utilizing Urban Television's management skills and unsold commercial inventory;
 10. Feature prominent stars and writer-producers for Urban Television's programming;
 11. Develop and launch a cost-effective, profitable, strategic internet business(s);
 12. Use corporate sponsors; especially other media entities, to co-finance and co-promote Urban Television programming;
 13. Develop "franchise" intellectual properties in-house to develop revenue streams in all media;
 14. Develop a merchandising/licensing arm to create revenue streams for Urban Television's intellectual properties;
 15. Develop a music division at the appropriate time to take advantage of opportunities, when they arise in the future to brand Urban Television products;
 16. Establish a technology relationship with Cresson Technology, Inc. to help Urban Television maximize its technology opportunities in all areas of media distribution;
 17. Program the most profitable shows for the day-part, especially in regards to the late night and early morning time slots;
 18. When appropriate, develop, produce and sell television programming to other networks and/or syndicators via the Company's in-house production unit as capital sources allow;
 19. Develop and nurture strong community relations through the use of fund raisers, scholarships, tie-ins to national and local groups, contests for viewers, awards shows, programming, use of the web sites, education and information, etc.

Our affiliate stations also face competition from direct broadcast satellite services which transmit programming directly to homes equipped with special receiving antennas and from video signals delivered over telephone lines.

Edgar Filing: URBAN TELEVISION NETWORK CORP - Form 10KSB

Satellites may be used not only to distribute non-broadcast programming and distant broadcasting signals but also to deliver certain local broadcast programming which otherwise may not be available to a station's audience.

The broadcasting industry is continuously faced with technological change and Innovation and the possible rise in popularity of competing entertainment and communications media. The rules and the policies of the FCC also encourage increased competition among different electronic communications media. As a result, we may experience increased competition from other free or pay systems that deliver entertainment programming directly to consumers and this could possibly have a material adverse effect on our operations and results. For example, commercial television broadcasting may face future competition from interactive video and data services that provide two-way interaction with commercial video programming, along with information and data services that may be delivered by commercial television stations, cable television, direct broadcast satellites, multi-point distribution systems, multi-channel multi-point distribution systems, Class A low-power television stations, digital television and radio technologies, or other video delivery systems.

In addition, actions by the FCC, Congress and the courts all presage significant future involvement in the provision of video services by telephone companies. The Telecommunications Act of 1996 lifts the prohibition on the provision of cable television services by telephone companies in their own telephone areas subject to regulatory safeguards and permits telephone companies to own cable systems under certain circumstances. It is not possible to predict the effect on our television stations of any future relaxation or elimination of the existing limitations on the ownership of cable systems by telephone companies. The elimination or further relaxation of the restriction, however, could increase competition that our affiliate stations face from other distributors of video programming.

Factors that are material to a television station's competitive position include signal coverage, local program acceptance, network affiliation, audience characteristics, assigned frequency and strength of local competition. Although there is competition for our target market, we believe that we possess certain competitive advantages over our competitors, including:

Our Ability to Broadcast in Digital. Unlike many television networks, we Broadcast our programming in a digital format from a fully-digital earth station. We chose this format in anticipation of an FCC regulation requiring all television stations to broadcast in digital by 2006. The operation of a digital control room requires much less input and effort than a traditional analog station. Although, not all of our affiliate stations have the ability to broadcast in digital, sending out a digital signal helps reduce our operating costs because the cost of a digital signal is less than leasing an analog signal on the satellite transponder.

Our Management Team Reflects our Target Audience. From CEO, Lonnie Wright to President, Edward Maddox, to Executive Vice President of Network Operations, Jacob R. Miles III, our team is expected to be comprised of many African-Americans. We believe that the best way to understand the needs and wants of our target market is to include people that share a similar cultural background to our target audience. The nature of our management team is also reflective of our dedication to the creation of an African American television network.

In the course of its business our network uses various trademarks including its logo in its advertising and promotions. We believe the strength of our trademarks are important to our business and intend to continue to protect and promote our marks as appropriate. Currently, we have applied for trademark protection on Urban Television and certain other brand identification. There can be no assurance that we will receive each of these trademarks. Other than these pending trademarks, we do not hold or depend upon any material patent, government license, franchise or concession.

Federal Communications Commission Regulation

FCC Licenses

In general, the television broadcast industry in the U.S. is highly regulated by Federal Laws and regulations issued and administered by various Federal agencies, including the FCC. The FCC regulates television broadcast stations pursuant to the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the "Communications Act"). The Communications Act permits the operation of television broadcast stations only in accordance with a license issued by the FCC upon a finding that grant of the license would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity. The FCC grants television station license for specific periods of time and upon application, may renew the licenses for additional terms. Under the Communications Act, television broadcast licenses may be granted for a maximum permitted term of eight years. Generally the FCC renews broadcast licenses upon finding that (i) the television station has served the public interest, convenience and necessity, (ii) there have been no serious violations by the licensee of the Communications Act or FCC rules and regulations, and (iii) there have been no other violations by the licensee of the Communications Act or FCC rules and regulations which, taken together, indicate a pattern of abuse. After considering these factors, the FCC may grant the license renewal application with or without conditions, including renewal for a term shorter than the maximum other permitted, or hold an evidentiary hearing. In addition to the above powers, the Communications Act empowers the FCC, among other things:

- o to decide whether to approve a change of ownership or control of station licenses;
- o to regulate the equipment used by stations; and
- o to adopt and implement regulations to carry out the provisions of the Communications Act.

Failure to observe FCC or other governmental rules and policies can result in the imposition of various sanctions, including monetary forfeitures, the grant of short, or less than maximum, license renewal terms or, for particularly egregious violations, the denial of a license renewal application, the revocation of a license or denial of FCC consent to acquire additional broadcast properties.

We have a lease agreement with KOUT Channel 19, which is a low power UHF television station in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. The lease term is for 60 months starting on October 1, 2003. The monthly lease payment due by the Company is $3,000 through month three, $4,500 for months 4 through 6, $6,000 for months 7 through 24 and will vary between $6,500 and $7,800 for months 25 through 60 depending on whether the station is upgraded to a higher power station. The Company also has an option to purchase the station during the five year lease period for $3,250,000, however at this time the Company does not have the financial ability to exercise this option and may not acquire the ability within the option period. The Company will file an application to get FCC approval of the license transfer at the time that the Company elects to exercise its option on KOUT Channel 19.

Under the Communications Act, a broadcast license may not be granted to or held by any corporation that has more than one-fifth of its capital stock owned or voted by non-U.S. citizens or entities or their representatives, by foreign governments or their representatives, or by non-U.S. corporations. The Communications Act further provides that no FCC broadcast license may be granted to any corporation directly or indirectly controlled by any other corporation of which more than one-fourth of its capital stock is owned or record or voted by non-U.S. citizens if the FCC finds the public interest will be served by the refusal of such.

In June 2003, the FCC concluded the 2002 biennial review of its broadcast ownership Regulations required by the 1996 Telecom Act by amending its rules governing ownership of television and radio stations and by replacing its newspaper/broadcast cross-ownership ban the radio/television cross-ownership restrictions with a new set of cross-media ownership limits. The new rules would (i) permit an entity to have an attributable ownership interest in an unlimited number of television stations nationally so long as the audience reach of such stations does not exceed, in the aggregate and after the application of the UHF Discount, 45% of the U.S. television households; (ii) permit common ownership of up to three television stations in DMAs with 18 or more television stations, and two television stations in DMAs with between five and 17 television stations, provided, in both cases, that a single entity cannot have an attributable interest in two television stations ranked among the top four (in terms of audience share) in any DMA (the "Local Restriction"); (iii) permit (A) in markets with nine or more television stations, common ownership of daily newspapers and up to the maximum number of television and radio stations permitted by the Local Restriction and the local radio ownership rule, and in (B) in markets with between four and eight television stations, common ownership of a daily newspaper and up to 50% of the television and radio stations permitted by the Local Restriction and the local radio ownership rule, or a daily newspaper and up to the maximum number of radio stations permitted by the local radio ownership rule.

Common ownership of multiple television stations in a market could adversely affect the Company's future affiliate possibilities, if the larger networks control most of the television stations in given markets.

Transfers or Assignment of License

The Communications Act prohibits the assignment of a broadcast license or transfer of control of a broadcast licensee without the prior approval of the FCC. In determining whether to permit the assignment or transfer of control of, or the grant or renewal of, a broadcast license, the FCC considers a number of factors pertaining to the licensee, including:

- o compliance with various rules limiting common ownership of media properties;
- o the character of the licensee and those persons holding attributable interests therein; and
- o compliance with the Communications Act's limitations on alien ownership.

Character generally refers to the likelihood that the licensee or applicant will comply with applicable law and regulation. Attributable interests generally refers to the level of ownership or other involvement in station operations that would result in the FCC attributing ownership of that station or other media outlets to the person or entity in determining compliance with FCC ownership limitations.

To obtain the FCC's prior consent to assign a broadcast license or transfer control of a broadcast licensee, an application must be filed with the FCC. If the application involves a substantial change in ownership or control, the application must be placed on public notice for a period of no less than 30 days during which petitions to deny the application or other objections may be filed by interested parties, including certain members of the public. If the FCC grants the application, interested parties have no less than 30 days from the date of public notice of the grant to seek reconsideration or review of that grant by the full commission or, as the case may be, a court of competent jurisdiction. The full FCC has an additional 10 days to set aside on its own motion any action taken by the FCC's staff acting under delegated authority. When passing on an assignment or transfer application, the FCC is prohibited from considering whether the public interest might be served by an assignment or transfer to any party other than the assignee or transferee specified in the application.

Programming and Operation

The FCC continues to enforce strictly its regulations concerning "indecent" programming, political advertising, environmental concerns, technical operating matters and antenna tower maintenance. Although not required by FCC regulation, the Company has committed to provide program ratings information for its broadcast network programming. FCC regulations governing network affiliation agreements mandate that television broadcast station licensees retain the right to reject or refuse network programming in certain circumstances or to substitute programming that the licensee believes to be of greater local or national importance.

The Communications Act requires broadcasters to serve the public interest, convenience and necessity. The FCC has gradually restricted or eliminated many of the more formalized procedures it had developed to promote the broadcast of programming responsive to the needs of the station's community of license. Licensees continue to be required, however, to present programming that is responsive to community problems, needs and interests and to maintain certain records demonstrating such responsiveness. Complaints from listeners concerning a station's programming will be considered by the FCC when it evaluates the licensee's renewal application, but these complaints may be filed and considered at any time.

Stations must also pay regulatory and application fees and follow various FCC rules that regulate, among other things:

- o political advertising;
- o children's programming;
- o commercial advertising on children's programming;
- o the broadcast of obscene or indecent programming;
- o sponsorship identification; and
- o technical operations and equal employment opportunity requirements.

Failure to observe these or other rules and policies can result in the imposition of various sanctions, including monetary forfeitures, the grant of short or less than the maximum renewal terms, or for particularly egregious violations, the denial of a license renewal application or the revocation of a license.

Must-Carry / Retransmission Consent

As part of the Cable Television Consumer Protection and Competition Act of 1992, television broadcasters are required to make triennial elections to exercise either "must-carry" or "retransmission consent" rights with respect to their carriage by cable systems in each broadcaster's local market. By electing must-carry rights, a broadcaster demands carriage on a specified channel on cable systems within its television market or DMA. Alternatively, if a broadcaster chooses to exercise retransmission consent rights, it can negotiate the terms under which the cable system will carry its broadcast signal.

The United States Supreme Court upheld the validity of the must-carry rules in a 1997 decision. These must-carry rights are not absolute and their exercise is dependent on a variety of factors, including: (i) the number of active channels on the cable system; (ii) the location and size of the cable system; and (iii) the amount of programming on a broadcast station that duplicates the programming of another broadcast station carried by the cable system. Therefore, under certain circumstances, a cable system may decline to carry a given station.

Under the FCC's rules, television stations were required to make their election between must-carry and retransmission consent status by October 1, 1999, for the period from January 1, 2000 through December 31, 2002. Television stations that failed to make an election by the specified deadline were deemed to have elected must-carry status for the relevant three-year period.

The FCC is currently conducting a rulemaking proceeding to determine the scope of the cable systems' carriage obligations with respect to digital broadcast signals during and following the transition from analog to digital broadcasting.

Review of Must Carry Rules

FCC regulations implementing the Cable Television Consumer Protection and Competition Act of 1992 require each full-power television broadcaster to elect, at three year intervals beginning October 1, 1993, to either:

- o require carriage of its signal by cable systems in the station's market, which is referred to as must carry rules; or
- o negotiate the terms on which such broadcast station would permit transmission of its signal by the cable systems within its market, which is referred to as retransmission consent.

The United States Supreme Court upheld the must-carry rules in a 1997 decision. These must carry rights are not absolute, and their exercise is dependent on a variety of factors such as:

- o the number of active channels on the cable system;
- o the location and size of the cable system; and
- o the amount of programming on a broadcast station that duplicates the programming of another broadcast station carried by the cable system.

Edgar Filing: URBAN TELEVISION NETWORK CORP - Form 10KSB

Therefore, under certain circumstances, a cable system may choose to decline to carry a given station. We are currently exploring the possibilities with cable providers to obtain carriage for our low-power affiliate broadcast stations, which will give the Company a higher percentage of potential viewing audience and allow the Company to increase its advertising rates for advertising spots sold to advertisers. We can offer no assurances, however, that we will obtain such cable carriage.

Local Marketing Agreements

We may, from time to time, enter into local marketing agreements, or LMAs, generally in connection with pending station acquisitions. By using LMAs, we can provide programming and other services to a station that we intend to acquire before we receive all applicable FCC and other governmental approvals that are necessary to consummate that assignment.

FCC rules and policies generally permit LMAs if the station licensee retains ultimate responsibility for and control of the applicable station, including finances, personnel, programming and compliance with the FCC's rules and policies. We cannot be sure that we will be able to air all of our scheduled programming on a station with which we have LMAs or that we will receive the anticipated revenue from the sale of advertising for such programming.

For purposes of its national and local multiple ownership rules, the FCC attributes LMAs that involve more than 15% of the brokered station's weekly program time. Thus, if an entity owns one television station in a market and has a qualifying LMA with another station in the same market, this arrangement must comply with all of the FCC's ownership rules including the television duopoly rule.

Digital Television Services

In February 1998, The FCC has adopted rules for implementing digital television service in the United States. Implementation of digital television will improve the technical quality of television signals and provide broadcasters the flexibility to offer new services, including high-definition television and data broadcasting. The FCC has established service rules and adopted a table of allotments for digital television. The table of digital allotments provides each existing television station licensee or permittee with a second broadcast channel to be used during the transition to digital television, conditioned upon the surrender of one of the channels at the end of the digital television transition period.

The spectrum to provide a variety of ancillary or supplemental services including, for example, data transfer, subscription video, interactive materials, and audio signals, subject to the digital television implementing rules permit broadcasters to use their assigned digital requirement that they continue to provide at least one free, over-the-air television service. The FCC established May 1, 2002 as the deadline for initiation of digital television service for all television stations and 2006 as the date that television broadcasters must return their analog license to the FCC unless specified conditions exist, that in effect limit the public's access to digital television in a particular market. These dates are subject to biennial reviews that will evaluate the progress of the DTV transition, including consumer acceptance. The FCC also has adopted rules that require broadcasters to pay a fee of 5% of gross revenues received from ancillary or supplementary uses of the digital spectrum for which they receive subscription fees or compensation other than advertising revenues derived from free over-the-air broadcasting services.

Edgar Filing: URBAN TELEVISION NETWORK CORP - Form 10KSB

Equipment and other costs associated with the digital television transition, including the necessity of temporary dual-mode operations, will impose some near-term financial costs on television stations in their conversion to digital television transmission. The potential also exists for new sources of revenue to be derived from digital television. We cannot predict the overall effect the transition to digital television might have on our business.

Satellite Home Viewer Improvement Act

The Satellite Home Viewer Improvement Act ("SHVIA") enables satellite carriers to provide more television programming to subscribers. Specifically, SHVIA: (1) provides a statutory copyright license to enable satellite carriers to retransmit a local television broadcast station into the station's local market (i.e., provide "local-into-local" service); (2) permits the continued importation of distant network signals (i.e., network signals that originate outside of a satellite subscriber's local television market or DMA) for certain existing subscribers; (3) provides broadcast stations with retransmission consent rights; and (4) mandates carriage of broadcast signals on a "local-into-local" basis after a phase-in period. "Local markets" are defined to include both a station's DMA and its county of license.

SHVIA requires that, with several exceptions, satellite carriers may not retransmit the signal of a television broadcast station without the express authority of the originating station. Such express authorization is not needed, however, when satellite carriers retransmit a station's signal into its local market (i.e., provide local-into-local transmissions) prior to May 28, 2000. This retransmission can occur without the station's consent. Beginning May 29, 2000, however, a satellite carrier must obtain a station's consent before retransmitting its signal within the local market. Additional exceptions to the retransmission consent requirement exist for noncommercial stations, certain super stations and broadcast stations that have asserted their must-carry rights.

In addition, SHVIA permits satellite carriers to provide distant or nationally broadcast programming to subscribers in "unserved" households (i.e., households are unserved by a particular network if they do not receive a signal of at least Grade B intensity from a station affiliated with that network) until December 31, 2004. However, satellite television providers can retransmit the distant signals of no more than two stations per day for each television network.

SHVIA also provides for mandatory carriage of all television broadcast stations by satellite carriers, effective January 1, 2002, under certain circumstances. Effective January 1, 2002, a satellite carrier that retransmits one local television broadcast station into its local market under a retransmission consent agreement, must carry upon request all television broadcast stations in that same market. Satellite carriers are not required, however, to carry the signal of a station that substantially duplicates the programming of another station in the market, and are not required to carry more than one affiliate of the same network in a given market unless the television stations are located in different states.

In addition, SHVIA requires the FCC to commence a rulemaking proceeding that extends the network non-duplication, syndicated exclusivity and sports blackout rules to the satellite retransmission of nationally distributed super stations. The FCC already has initiated several rulemaking proceedings, as required by SHVIA, to implement certain aspects of this Act.

Edgar Filing: URBAN TELEVISION NETWORK CORP - Form 10KSB

Therefore, under certain circumstances, a SHVIA system may choose to decline to carry a given network or broadcast station. We are currently exploring the possibilities with SHVIA providers to obtain carriage for the Urban Television Network, which would give the Company another source of viewers in addition to the current broadcast station affiliates. This increase in potential viewers would give the Company the potential to increase its advertising rates for advertising spots. We can offer no assurances, however, that we will obtain such SHVIA system carriage.

Children's Television Act

The FCC's rules limit the amount of commercial matter that may be broadcast during programming designed for children 12 years of age and younger to 12 minutes per hour on weekdays and 10.5 minutes per hour on weekends. Violations of the children's commercial limitations may result in monetary fines or non-renewal of a station's broadcast license. FCC rules further require television stations to serve the educational and informational needs of children 16 years old and younger through the stations' own programming as well as through other means. The FCC has guidelines for processing television station renewals under which stations are found to have complied with the children's programming requirements if they broadcast three hours per week of "core" children's educational programming, which among other things, must have as a significant purpose serving the educational and informational needs of children 16 years of age and younger. A television station that the FCC finds not to have complied with the "core" programming processing guideline could face sanctions, including monetary fines and the possible non-renewal of its broadcasting license, if it has not demonstrated compliance with the children's programming requirements in other ways. The FCC has indicated its intent to strictly enforce its children's television rules. Television broadcasters must file periodic reports with the FCC to document their compliance with foregoing obligations.

The Company takes these rules into considerations when preparing its program schedule, to give its affiliates the ability to similarly comply with the rules when broadcasting Urban Television programming over their local television station.

Proposed Regulations and Legislation

In 1995, the FCC issued notices of proposed rulemaking proposing to modify or eliminate most of its remaining rules governing the broadcast network-affiliate relationship. The network-affiliate rules were originally intended to limit networks' ability to control programming aired by affiliates or to set station advertising rates and to reduce barriers to entry by networks. The dual network rule, which generally prevents a single entity from owning more than one broadcast television network, is among the rules under consideration in these proceedings. Although the Telecommunications Act substantially relaxed the dual network rule by providing that an entity may own more than one television network, none of the four major national television networks may merge with each other or acquire certain other networks in existence on February 8, 1996. We cannot predict how or when the FCC proceeding will be resolved or how those proceedings or the relaxation of the dual network rule may affect our business.

Low-Power Television

Low-power television stations are regarded by the FCC as having secondary status to full-power television stations and are subject to being displaced by changes in full-power stations resulting from digital television allotments. On November 29, 1999, Congress enacted the Community Broadcasters Protection Act, which created a new "Class A" low-power television station. Class A low-power television stations are entitled to protection from future displacement by full-power television stations under certain circumstances. The FCC has adopted rules governing the extent of interference protection that must be afforded to Class A stations and the eligibility criteria for these stations.

In addition, the U.S. Congress and the FCC have under consideration, and in the future may consider and adopt new laws, regulation and policies regarding a wide variety of matters that could affect, directly or indirectly, the operation, ownership and profitability of our affiliate broadcast stations. Any such changes could result in the loss of audience share and advertising revenues for broadcast stations, and affect our ability to acquire broadcast stations or finance such acquisitions. Also potential FCC changes could possibly eliminate certain broadcast stations, which would reduce the total affiliate base and household coverage of Urban Television. In addition to the issues noted above, such changes may include:

- o spectrum use fees;
- o political advertising rates;
- o potential restrictions on the advertising of certain products (beer, wine and hard liquor);
- o further revisions in the FCC's cross-interest, multiple ownership and attribution policies;
- o foreign ownership of broadcast licenses;
- o technical and frequency allocation matters; and
- o DTV tower siting issues.

The FCC also has initiated a notice of inquiry to examine whether additional public interest obligations should be imposed on DTV licensees. We cannot predict the resolution of these issues or other issues discussed above, although their outcome could, over a period of time, affect, either adversely or favorably, the broadcasting industry generally or us specifically.

Restrictions on Broadcast Advertising

Advertising of cigarette and certain other tobacco products on broadcast stations has been banned for many years. Various states also restrict the advertising of alcoholic beverages and certain members of Congress are currently contemplating legislation to place restrictions on the advertisement of such alcoholic beverage products. FCC rules also restrict the amount and type of advertising which can appear in programming broadcast primarily for an audience of children twelve years old and younger.

The Communications Act and FCC rules also place restrictions on the broadcasting of advertisements by legally qualified candidates for elective office. Among other things,

- o stations must provide "reasonable access" for the purchase of time by legally qualified candidates for federal office,
- o stations must provide "equal opportunities" for the purchase of equivalent amounts of comparable broadcast time by opposing candidates for the same elective office, and
- o during the 45 days preceding a primary or primary run-off election and during the 60 days preceding a general or special election, legally qualified candidates for elective office may be charged no more than the station's "lowest unit charge" for the same class of advertisement, length of advertisement, and daypart.

The foregoing summary of FCC and other governmental regulations is not intended to be comprehensive. For further information concerning the nature and extent of federal regulation of broadcast stations, you should refer to the Communications Act, the Telecommunications Act, other Congressional acts, FCC rules and the public notices and rulings of the FCC.

Background

Urban Television Network Corporation (the "Company") formerly known as Waste Conversion Systems, Inc. was incorporated under the laws of the state of Nevada on October 21, 1986. The principal office of the corporation is 2707 South Cooper Street, Suite 119, Arlington, Texas 76015.

In January 2002, the Company underwent a change of control with the directors of the Company appointing the directors and officers of Urban Television Network Corporation, a Texas corporation, (Urban-Texas) as the new directors and officers of the Company, and at the same time resigning their board positions.

On May 1, 2002, the Company entered into an agreement with Urban-Texas to acquire the rights to the Urban-Texas affiliate network signal space which included the assignment of the Urban-Texas broadcast television station affiliates for 16,000,000 shares of common stock, which became 800,000 shares after the 1 for 20 reverse split in November 2002.

On February 7, 2003, the Company entered into a Stock Exchange Agreement with the majority shareholders of Urban-Texas to acquire approximately 90% of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Urban-Texas (13,248,000 of 14,759,000 shares) in exchange for the Company's issuance of 13,248,000 shares of its authorized but unissued common stock, $.0001 par value (the "Exchange Shares"), to the majority shareholders of Urban-Texas. In June 2003, the remaining 10% of Urban-Texas was acquired by the Company.

Urban-Texas is considered the accounting acquirer, and the accompanying financial statements include the operations of Urban-Texas from the earliest period presented. The May 1, 2002 and February 7, 2003 transactions with the Company are presented as a recapitalization of Urban-Texas.

The consideration exchanged in Stock Exchange Agreement was negotiated between the Company and Urban-Texas in a transaction with management. The management of the Company and Urban-Texas, were the same individuals. The transaction does not represent an arms-length transaction.

The Company is engaged in the business of supplying programming to independent Broadcast television stations and cable systems. Formerly the Company's business had been the marketing of thermal burner systems that utilize industrial and agricultural waste products as fuel to produce steam, which generates electricity, air-conditioning or heat.

The Company acquired a television network affiliate base from Hispanic

Edgar Filing: URBAN TELEVISION NETWORK CORP - Form 10KSB

Television Network, Inc. (HTVN). This television network provides television programming serving ethnic minority programming interests of the African-American population across the United States. The network presently includes approximately 74 broadcast television station affiliates in various parts of the country.

We are targeting the minority markets, primarily the African American and Hispanic Markets, because we believe that they present vast marketing opportunities and that are currently under-served by our competition. The African American market, composes approximately 13% of the U.S. population with a spending power in excess of $600 billion. The Hispanic population is also approximately 13% of the U.S. total with a spending power also in the $600+ billion range. With few competitors in broadcast television that are exclusively devoted to programming to the minority markets, we feel that there are attractive opportunities to provide a quality broadcasting service to the African American and Hispanic (especially bi-lingual and English speaking Hispanic programming) populations that together make up in excess of 25% of the U.S. population.

On July 10, 2004, the Company received a certificate from Nevada Minority Business Council, an affiliate of the National Minority Supplier Development Council, indicating that the Company qualifies as a Minority Owned and Managed Company, which has met the certification criteria established by the National Minority Supplier Development Council. The certification will be up for renewal on February 1, 2005.

Our financial results depend on a number of factors, including the strength of the national economy and the local economies served by our affiliate stations, total advertising dollars dedicated to the markets served by our affiliate stations, advertising dollars dedicated to the African American and Hispanic consumers in the markets served by our affiliate stations, our affiliate stations' audience ratings, our ability to provide interesting minority focused programming, local market competition from other television stations and other media, and government regulations and policies, such as the multiple ownership rules, the ability of Class A affiliate stations to be considered must carry for cable systems to increase their distribution and the deadlines for television stations converting to digital signals.

Management is implementing a revenue generation plan that includes local advertising sales, for company operated stations, securing network advertising at the best available rate, uplinking other parties signals to the satellite, plus implementing a Technology plan to assist its affiliates with sale of their local advertising time. Management intends to increase rates as affiliate stations are added to the network. The implementation of this comprehensive plan is expected to have a positive affect upon sales revenues. In addition, the Company has added a focus to secure carriage agreements with cable and digital distribution companies.

Revenues

Our primary source of revenue is the sale of advertising and programming time on our network and local stations. Our revenues are affected primarily by the advertising rates that we are able to charge for national advertising commercials on the Urban TV network and that the television stations we manage on a local basis are able to charge as well as the overall demand for African-American and Hispanic television advertising time. Advertising rates in general are determined primarily by:

Edgar Filing: URBAN TELEVISION NETWORK CORP - Form 10KSB

- o the markets covered by broadcast television affiliates,
- o the number of competing African-American television stations in the same market as our affiliate stations,
- o the television audience share in the demographic groups targeted by advertisers, and
- o the supply and demand for African-American advertising time.

Seasonal fluctuations are also common to the broadcast industry and are due primarily to fluctuations in advertising expenditures by national and local advertisers. The first calendar quarter typically produces the lowest broadcast revenues for the year because of the normal post-holiday decreases in advertising.

Currently most of our network advertising has been sold to direct response and per inquiry advertisers. Going forward, we plan to deploy a network advertising team consisting of account executives that will solicit advertising directly from national advertisers as well as soliciting advertising from national advertising agencies. Locally managed stations will also have account executives that will solicit local and national advertising directly from advertisers and from advertising agencies in the local markets.

We market our advertising time on the Urban Television network to:

- o Advertising agencies and independent advertisers. We market commercial time to advertising agencies and independent advertisers. The monetary value of this time is based upon the estimated size of the viewing audience; the larger the audience, the more we are able to charge for the advertising time.

To measure the size of a viewing audience, networks and stations generally subscribe to nationally recognized rating services, such as Nielsen. We do not currently have the resources to subscribe to the Nielsen service and this hinders our ability to attract the larger advertising clients. Currently, a number of Urban Television's affiliate stations are located in the smaller market areas of the country, which is also not as desirable to the larger advertising clients. Our goal is to enter into affiliate agreements with television stations located in the top demographic market areas (ideally stations that are already on a cable system), which would give us the ability to justify the cost of Nielsen ratings that would in turn justify charging higher rates for our advertising time.

- o Affiliate Stations. In exchange for providing programming and advertising time to our affiliate stations, we retain advertising time and gain access to the affiliate stations' markets. In a traditional broadcasting contract, an affiliate station would retain all available advertising time, which it would then sell to outside advertisers, and the network would receive a fee from the affiliate station. However, we believe that with a network such as ours that currently is composed primarily of small independent low power stations that cannot afford a significant affiliation fee, we will have the ability to generate larger revenues over time by taking half of the affiliates advertising time, aggregating a number of the affiliate stations and accumulating a large household coverage base. This household coverage base of over the air broadcast television stations (which a portion will be on local cable in their local markets) can then be used to market the retained commercial time to outside advertisers. Advertising time is generally a component of the programming contract with affiliate stations. As a result, our advertising spots are inserted into the programs that go to the affiliates and we do have to separately market the advertising time to our affiliate stations.

- o Program Owners: In exchange for licensing rights to select programming, the program owner retains half of the available advertising time in each program and we as the network get the other half of the available advertising time in each program. The program owner is then able to sell the advertising time he retains to outside parties. We obtain programming by contracting with program owners at the annual National Association of Television Program Executives convention and by contracting with program owners who during the year are looking for distributions sources. In the future, to acquire certain exclusive, original or first-run usage and licenses for programming, we may be required to incur upfront programming expenses.

Expenses

Our most significant expenses are satellite and uplink transmission costs, master control costs, technology expenses, employee compensation, advertising and promotional expenses, and production and programming expenses. In cases, where we may in the future incur upfront programming expenses to procure exclusive programming usages and licenses, upfront payments will, in most cases, be amortized over the applicable contract term. Until cash flow permits, we do not expect to acquire exclusive programming usages and licenses that require upfront costs. We will maintain tight controls over our operating expenses by contracting master control and centralizing network programming, finance, human resources and management information system functions. Depreciation of fixed assets and amortization of costs associated with the acquisition of additional stations are also significant elements in determining our total expense level.

As a result of attracting key officers and personnel to Urban Television, we may offer stock grants or options as an alternate form of compensation. In the event that the strike price of the stock option is less than the fair market value of the stock on the date of grant, any difference will be amortized as compensation expense over the vesting period of the stock options.

Our monthly operating expense level may vary from month to month due primarily to the timing of significant advertising and promotion expenses. We will incur significant advertising and promotion expenses associated with the growth of Urban Television and with the establishment of our presence in new markets associated with any new station lease or acquisition agreements. Increased advertising revenue associated with these advertising and promotional expenses will typically lag behind the incurrence of these expenses.

Advertising and Program Time Sales

The majority of all revenues generated come from the sale of national advertising spots and program time slots and from advertising spots and program time slots on managed local television stations.

Edgar Filing: URBAN TELEVISION NETWORK CORP - Form 10KSB

Network Advertising. All operated stations as well as affiliates have a percentage of available commercial time dedicated for "network" sales. The commercials sold on the network are broadcast simultaneously and aired in the affiliate markets that are at that time airing the network's programming.

National Spot Advertising. National advertisers have the opportunity to buy "spot" advertising in specific markets. For example, an advertising agency in New York would could use spot advertising to purchase commercials in Dallas or Oklahoma City.

Currently the Company generates its Network and National spot advertising sales. The Company's plan is to have the yet to be established sales personnel located in all major markets that have a large concentration of advertising agencies targeting the African-American market. The sales of our local spot advertising would them be generated by these local sales staff personnel placed at each of our television stations.

Local Spot Advertising. Advertising agencies and businesses located in specific markets will buy commercial air-time in their respective market. This commercial time will be sold in the market by a local sales force or as a specific buy from a national client. Local spot advertising also includes event marketing. In conjunction with a spot buy, the station incorporates events that may be held on the premise of a business or advertiser for the purpose of driving traffic to that place of business.

Program Time Sales. Also known as long-form programs are sold on the network and on locally managed stations to companies wanting to purchase the television time and air their own programs.

Results of Operations

Urban Television Network Corporation - Historical Results of Operations Year ended September 30, 2004 compared to the year ended September 30, 2003.

Revenues. Revenues are primarily derived from sales of advertising and programming time. Revenues for fiscal 2004 were $222,794 compared to $242,998 for fiscal 2003, an decrease of $20,204. The decrease in revenues is primarily attributable to the not yet having implemented its revenue generation plan that includes local advertising sales, for company operated stations, securing network advertising at the best available rate, uplinking other parties signals to the satellite, plus implementing a technology plan to assist its affiliates with sale of their local advertising time. The Company has increased its affiliate base over the last twelve months from 72 to 74 affiliates and 22 million to 24 million household coverage of its affiliate base.

Cost of Operations. Costs of operations were $1,361,567 for the 2004 fiscal year and $994,168 for the 2003 fiscal year. The major components of cost of operations for the years ended September 30, 2004 and 2003 were as follows:

	2004	2003
Satellite and uplink services	$ 329,104	$ 312,730
Master control and production	445,179	352,681

Total Cost of Operations	$1,361,567	$ 994,168

Edgar Filing: URBAN TELEVISION NETWORK CORP - Form 10KSB

In November of 2002, the Company terminated an arrangement with a company in Florida that provided satellite space, uplinking of the video signal to the satellite, master control operations, trafficking and taking of live feeds. At that time the Company secured its own satellite space on Telstar 5 (now Intelsat 5) from Loral Skynet (now Intelsat, Inc.) and uplinking services from Verestar, Inc. in Dallas, Texas and is working with a group of the Company's shareholders who are providing digital compression equipment, tape editing and master control tape playback 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. The Company expects this new arrangement to save it approximately $10,000 per month and give it more flexibility in taking live feeds and changing programming and advertising insertions.

The technology expenses increased by $36,371 for in 2004 as compared to 2003. The Increase was attributable primarily to the continued growth of the Company.

General and Administrative. General and administrative expenses for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2004 were $6,298,565 compared to $1,212,926 for the 2003 fiscal year.

Following is a comparative of the general administrative expense categories for the periods ended September 30, 2004 and 2003.

The increase in stock based compensation is due primarily to the Company's adding additional management and directors as the result of the acquisition of a majority interest in the Company's common stock by Wright Entertainment, LLC.

The increase in consulting fees is due the Company incurring limited consulting expenses during the nine months ended June 30, 2003. In 2004 the company has brought in additional financial and strategic consultants to assist the Company

The increase in travel and conventions is related to the Company's travel related cost associated with the minority Las Vegas, Nevada group that purchased majority control of the Company and also to increased attendance at national television and cable conventions.

The increase in legal expense in 2004 is attributed primarily to legal expenses related to the Company's becoming majority owned by a minority group, the prosecution of a law suit involving a former employee and stockholder in which the Company was granted a permanent injunction and judgment in the amount of $1,575,850 and the settlement of a lawsuit in which the Company was named as a defendant as the result of the Company airing a program that Pacific Family had represented as having the copyright and rights to air. The settlement amount for the Company was $50,000 to be paid at the rate of $5,000 per month beginning September 1, 2004.

The increase in public relations is due to an increase in expenses for public functions, announcements and support for minority groups.

The increase in transfer agent expenses is related primarily to the cost incurred in the bridge loan investors converting their bridge loans to common stock of the company.

The increase in rent expense is due the Company incurring additional space for sales offices and studio production facilities.

Internet cost increased during the period September 30, 2004 due to the Company installing its own high speed Internet line at the Arlington offices.

The increase in the supplies for digital operations is due to the Company's conversion from a tape to digital server based master control program retention and insertion operation. This will give the Company the ability to deliver a consistent television signal to its affiliates and save on tape and labor costs in the future.

The increase in marketing, printing and promotions increased in 2004 due the Company developing marketing brochures and sponsoring events to promote the network.

Interest expense for the fiscal year 2004 was $6,754 compared to $27,744 for Fiscal year 2003. The decrease from 2003 to 2004 is due to the Company paying down its debt and approximately $2000,000 of debt being assigned to Wright Entertainment LLC to apply towards its stock subscription agreement with the Company in October of 2003.

Operating Results. We had a net operating loss of $7,525,621 for fiscal year ended September 30, 2004 compared to a net operating loss of $2,039,109 for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003. The increased loss of $5,486,512 for 2004 was primarily attributed to the $5,085,639 increase in administrative expenses of which $3,949,928 was attributable to an increase in stock based compensation, $313,726 to an increase in legal expenses and $226,884 to an increase in consulting expenses plus a $136,066 increase in station operating expenses.

Earnings Per Share of Common Stock. Income (loss) per common share is calculated in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 128, "Earnings per Share." Basic Income (loss) per share is computed by dividing the net income (loss) by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding.

Edgar Filing: URBAN TELEVISION NETWORK CORP - Form 10KSB

Diluted net income (loss) per share is computed similar to basic net income (loss) per share, except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have outstanding if the potential common shares had been issued and if the additional common shares were dilutive. Stock options and warrants are anti-dilutive, and accordingly, are not included in the calculation of income (loss) per share. The basic and diluted net loss per share of common stock was $0.15 and $0.15 for the years ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We have financed our operations through a combination of loans from stockholders, proceeds from convertible promissory notes and revenues generated from operations. The Company has incurred cumulative losses of $15,590,434 from the inception of the Company through September 30, 2004.

Current liabilities at September 30, 2004 were $964,859 which exceeded current assets of $23,850 by $941,009. The Company's cash position at September 30, 2004 was $8,995, a decrease of $226,413 from the position at September 30, 2003. As discussed below, the Company's ability to continue its growth will require additional funds from various sources. If adequate funds are not available on acceptable terms, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially adversely affected. In a worse case scenario, we would have to scale back or cease operations, and we might not be able to remain a viable entity. Amounts due to stockholders increased from $330,715 at September 30, 2003 to $403,407 at September 30, 2004 as the result of an additional net of $72,692 being contributed by stockholders during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2004. Accrued compensation is the result of management deferring a portion of their annual compensation until the Company has funds available. Deferred income is the result of the Company receiving full payment for a year contract to air programming, which amount is being amortized on a monthly basis as the programming is aired.

Our continued growth, will require additional funds that may come from a variety of sources, including shareholder loans, equity or debt issuances, bank borrowings and capital lease financings. We currently intend to use any funds raised through these sources to fund various aspects of our continued growth, including funding our working capital needs, acquisition of new stations, performing digital upgrades of acquired stations, funding key programming acquisitions, performing station capital upgrades, securing cable connections, funding master control/ network equipment upgrades, making strategic investments.

The Company's licensing agreements with program suppliers are generally for a term of 13 to 52 weeks and are cancelable by either party upon thirty (30) days written notice. These license agreements provide the Company with a source of revenue by the Company's right to insert commercial spots during the programs. The Company's policy is to recognize the revenue associated with these sources of revenue at the time that it inserts the short-form advertising spots or airs the long-form program at the network or local level. As the Company continues to grow, it has been entering into new license agreements to replace existing licenses for programs that do not fit into the Company's business model for a minority focused television network. The cancelable feature of these license agreements could effect the Company's source of revenue generation should a program be cancelled by a licensor and the Company not be able to replace it within the 30 day notice of cancellation period.

We had net losses $7,525,621 in 2004 and $2,039,109 in 2003. We expect these losses to continue as we incur operating expenses in the growth of the Company's television network and its affiliate base and convert them to an African American format. We currently anticipate that our revenues as well as cash from financings and equity sales will be sufficient to satisfy operating expenses by the end of fiscal 2005. We may need to raise additional funds, however. If adequate funds are not available on acceptable terms, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially adversely affected.

Impact of inflation

Management does not believe that general inflation has had or will have a material effect on operations.

Critical Accounting Policies

The discussion and analysis of the financial condition and results of operations are based on the financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Note 1 of the Notes describes the significant accounting policies essential to the financial statements. The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ materially from those estimates.

We believe the following to be critical accounting policies and estimates. That is, they are both important to the portrayal of the Company's financial condition and results, and they require significant management judgment and estimates about matters that are inherently uncertain. As a result of inherent uncertainty, there is a likelihood that materially different amounts would be reported under different conditions or using different assumptions. Although we believe that our judgments and estimates are reasonable, appropriate and correct, actual future results may differ materially from our estimates.

Revenue Recognition

The Company's sources of revenues include the sale of short-term national and local spot advertising and long-form program time slots. The Company's policy is to recognize the revenue associated with these sources of revenue at the time that it inserts the short-form advertising spots or airs the long-form program at the network or local level.

Non Goodwill Intangible Assets

Intangible assets other than goodwill consist of network assets acquired by purchase. They are being amortized over their expected lives of 5 years and are reviewed for potential impairment whenever events or circumstances indicate that carrying amounts may not be recoverable. No impairment loss was recognized during the reporting periods. On January 1, 2002, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Intangible Assets. This provides that a recognized intangible shall be amortized over its useful life to the reporting entity unless that life is determined to be indefinite. The amount of an intangible asset to be amortized shall be the amount initially assigned to that asset less any residual value.

Stock Based Compensation

The Company accounts for equity instruments issued to employees for services based on the fair value of the equity instruments issued and accounts for equity instruments issued to other than employees based on the fair value of the consideration received or the fair value of the equity instruments, whichever is more reliably measurable. The determined value is recognized as an expense in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations.

Contingencies

In the normal course of business, the Company is subject to certain claims and legal proceedings. The Company records an accrued liability for these matters when an adverse outcome is probable and the amount of the potential liability is reasonably estimable. The Company does not believe that the resolution of these matters will have a material effect upon its financial condition, results of operations, or cash flows for an interim or annual period.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

Recently issued accounting pronouncements and their effect on us are discussed in the notes to the financial statements in our September 30, 2004 audited financial statements.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Board of Directors
Urban Television Network Corporation
Arlington, Texas

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Urban Television

Edgar Filing: URBAN TELEVISION NETWORK CORP - Form 10KSB

Network Corporation (a Nevada corporation) and subsidiaries as of September 30, 2004 and 2003, and the related consolidated statements of operations, capital deficit and cash flows for the years ended September 30, 2004 and 2003. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Urban Television Network Corporation as of September 30, 2004 and 2003, and the results of its operations and changes in its cash flows for the years ended September 30, 2004 and 2003 in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 12 to the financial statements, the Company has suffered recurring losses from operations that raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 12. The financial statements may not include all adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Urban Television Network Corporation
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2004 and 2003

1. Significant Accounting Policies

Description of Business

Urban Television Network Corporation (the "Company") formerly known as Waste Conversion Systems, Inc. was incorporated under the laws of the state of Nevada on October 21, 1986. The principal office of the corporation is 2707 South Cooper Street, Suite 119, Arlington, Texas 76015.

In January 2002, the Company underwent a change of control in connection With Urban Television Network Corporation, a Texas corporation, (Urban-Texas) Agreeing to deposit $100,000 into an attorneys escrow account in return for receiving a balance sheet with no assets and no liabilities. The directors of the Company appointed Urban-Texas officers as new officers of the Company, and at the same time resigned their board positions and appointed the directors of Urban-Texas as the Company's new board of directors. Urban-Texas agreed to deposit 300,000 shares of the Company's common stock into the attorney's escrow account after the completion of the Stock Exchange Agreement described below, dated February 7, 2003.

On May 1, 2002, the Company entered into an agreement with Urban-Texas to acquire the rights to the Urban-Texas affiliate network signal space which included the assignment of the Urban-Texas broadcast television station affiliates for 16,000,000 shares of common stock, which became 800,000 after a 1 for 20 reverse stock split.

On February 7, 2003, the Company entered into a Stock Exchange Agreement with the majority shareholders of Urban-Texas. Among other things, the Agreement provided for the Company's purchase of approximately 90% of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Urban-Texas (13,248,000 of 14,759,000 shares) in exchange for the Company's issuance of 13,248,000 shares of its authorized but unissued common stock, $.0001 par value (the "Exchange Shares"), to the majority shareholders of Urban-Texas. In June 2003, the remaining 10% of Urban-Texas was acquired by Company.

Urban-Texas is considered the accounting acquirer, and the accompanying financial statements include the operations of Urban-Texas from the earliest period presented. The Company operated from May 1, 2002 to February 7, 2003 as a 71% subsidiary of Urban-Texas, a predecessor entity to the existing business. The May 1, 2002 and February 7, 2003 transactions with the Company are presented as a recapitalization of Urban-Texas.

The Company is authorized to issue 200,000,000 shares of $.0001 par value stock and 500,000 shares of $1.00 par value preferred stock.

The Company is engaged in the business of supplying programming to broadcast television stations and cable systems. Formerly the Company's business had been the marketing of thermal burner systems that utilize industrial and agricultural waste products as fuel to produce steam, which generates electricity, air-conditioning or heat.

Accounting Method

The Company records income and expenses on the accrual method.

Revenue Recognition

The Company's sources of revenues include the sale of short-form national and local spot advertising and long-form program time slots. The Company's policy is to recognize the revenue associated with these sources of revenue at the time that it inserts the short-form advertising spots or airs the long-form program at the network or local level.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries. All material intercompany accounts and transactions are eliminated. The Company owns 100% of Urban Television Network Corporation, a Texas corporation and 100% of Waste Conversion Systems Of Virginia, Inc.

Non Goodwill Intangible Assets

Intangible assets other than goodwill consist of network assets acquired by purchase. They are being amortized over their expected lives of 5 years and are reviewed for potential impairment whenever events or circumstances indicate that carrying amounts may not be recoverable. No impairment loss was recognized during the reporting periods. On January 1, 2002, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Intangible Assets. This provides that a recognized intangible shall be amortized over its useful life to the reporting entity unless that life is determined to be indefinite. The amount of an intangible asset to be amortized shall be the amount initially assigned to that asset less any residual value.

Income (Loss) Per Share

Income (loss) per common share is calculated in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 128, "Earnings per Share". Basic Income (loss) per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted net income (loss) per share is computed similar to basic net income (loss) per share, except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the potential common shares had been issued and if the additional common shares were dilutive. Stock options and warrants are anti-dilutive, and accordingly, are not included in the calculation of income (loss) per share.

Comprehensive Income

Comprehensive income (loss) and net income (loss) are the same for the Company.

Cash

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers unrestricted cash and all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company at times maintains cash in excess of federally insured limits. The amount in excess of the federally insured limits at September 30, 2004 was $-0-.

Advertising Costs

The Company expenses non-direct advertising costs as incurred. The Company did not incur any direct response advertising costs for the periods ended September 30, 2004 and 2003.

Stock Based Compensation

The Company accounts for equity instruments issued to employees for services based on the fair value of the equity instruments issued and accounts for equity instruments issued to other than employees based on the fair value of the consideration received or the fair value of the equity instruments, whichever is more reliably measurable. The determined value is recognized as an expense in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Recent Accounting Standards

In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 150, "Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity". This Statement establishes standards for classifying and measuring as liabilities Certain financial instruments that embody obligations of the issuer and have characteristics of both liabilities and equity. SFAS No. 150 is effective at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003; including all financial instruments created or modified after May 31, 2003. SFAS No. 150 currently has no impact on the Company.

In November 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 151, "Inventory Costs - an amendment of ARB No. 43, Chapter 4." This Statement clarifies the accounting for abnormal amounts of idle facility expense, freight, handling costs, and wasted materials. This Statement is effective for inventory costs incurred during fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. The initial application of SFAS No. 151 will have no impact on the Company's financial statements.

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 152, "Accounting for Real Estate Time-Sharing Transactions - an amendment of FASB Statements No. 66 and 67." This Statement references the financial accounting and reporting guidance for real estate time-sharing transactions that is provided in AICPA Statement of Position 04-2, "Accounting for Real Estate Time-Sharing Transactions." This Statement also states that the guidance for incidental operations and costs incurred to sell real estate projects does not apply to real estate time-sharing transactions. This Statement is effective for financial statements for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. The initial application of SFAS No. 152 will have no impact on the Company's financial statements.

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 153, "Exchanges of Nonmonetary Assets - an amendment of APB Opinion No. 29." This Statement eliminates the exception for nonmonetary exchanges of similar productive assets and replaces it with a general exception for exchanges of nonmonetary assets that do not have commercial substance. A nonmonetary exchange has commercial substance if the future cash flows of the entity are expected to change significantly as a result of the exchange. This Statement is effective for nonmonetary asset exchanges occurring in fiscal periods beginning after June 15, 2005. The Company does not expect application of SFAS No. 153 to have a material affect on its financial statements.

In December 2004, the FASB issued a revision to SFAS No. 123, "Share-Based Payment." This Statement supercedes APB Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issed to Employees" and its related implementation guidance. It establishes standards for the accounting for transactions in which an entity exchanges its equity instruments for goods or services. It also addresses transactions in which an entity incurs liabilities in exchange for goods or services that are based on the fair value of the entity's equity instruments or that may be settled by the issuance of those equity instruments. This Statement does not change the accounting guidance for share-based payment transactions with parties other than employees provided in Statement No. 123 as originally issued and EITF Issue No. 96-18. This Statement is effective for public entities that file as small business issuers as of the beginning of the first fiscal period that begins after December 15, 2005. The Company has not yet determined the impact of SFAS No. 123 (revised) on its financial statements.

Stock Options

The Company accounts for non-employee stock options under SFAS 123, whereby option costs are recorded at the fair value of the consideration received or the fair value of the equity instrument issued, whichever is more reliable measurement, in accordance with EITF 96-18 "Accounting for Equity" Instruments That Are Issued to Other Than Employees for Acquiring or in Conjunction with Selling Goods or Services.

2. Accounts receivable

Accounts receivable consists of normal trade receivables. The Company assesses the collectibility of its accounts receivable regularly. Based on this assessment, an allowance for doubtful accounts is recorded. At September 30, 2004 and 2003, an allowance for doubtful accounts was not considered necessary.

3. Network Assets - Amortization

Network assets consist of intangibles other than Goodwill. These assets are recorded at cost and consist of amounts paid to acquire the television network affiliate base from Hispanic Television Network, plus technology consulting directly related to setting up the affiliate network. These assets automatically renew every year unless either party terminates the agreement by such notification to the other party. A useful life of five (5) years is estimated for the assets. These agreements are not expected to be terminated by either party prior to its useful life period. Total amortization of these assets has been $107,288 and the amortization for the periods ended September 30, 2004 and 2003 was $39,125 and $39,125, respectively.

The Company accounts for income taxes under the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes". Valuation allowances are established, when necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. Income tax expense is the tax payable for the period and the change during the period in the deferred tax asset and liability.

and all persons acting in concert with them. The defendants were further enjoined from contacting the directors, officers, agents, consultants, servants, and employees of the Company. The Company has made the decision not to record the default judgment as an asset until at such time as it is confident that asset value can be recovered from the defendants.

In August of 2004, the Company settled a lawsuit brought by Three F Productions, Inc. vs. Pacific Family Entertainment LLC, et al. which included the Company as a defendant as the result of the Company airing a program that Pacific Family Entertainment had represented as having the copyright and rights to air. The settlement amount for the Company was $50,000 to be paid at the rate of $5,000 per month beginning September 1, 2004.

12. Going Concern

The Company has suffered recurring losses from operations and has a deficit in both working capital and stockholders' equity. In order for the Company to sustain operations and execute its television broadcast and programming business plan, capital will need to be raised to support operations as the company executes its business plan. These conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company may raise additional capital through operating cash flows, the sale of its equity securities, or debt securities. Subsequent to year end the Company has raised additional capital of approximately $450,000 from bridge loans, that were subsequently converted to common stock.

13. Subsequent Events

On December 13, 2004, we entered into a definitive agreement with World One Media Group, Inc., a Nevada corporation. The definitive agreement called for World One to purchase 70,000,000 restricted common shares for $7,000,000. The subscription agreement signed on December 23, 2004 set the terms of the installment purchase at $100,000 being paid on December 23, 2004 and with a promissory note bearing no interest being executed for the remaining $6,900,000 and being paid at the rate of $150,000 every 45 days beginning on January 31, 2005 until promissory note has been paid in full. All the shares are pledged as collateral for the promissory note and will be physically held by the Company. Additionally, World One will be issued warrants for 80,000,000 shares of common stock that can be exercised for $.01 per share at any time after the Company's stock price has maintained a $10 bid price for 20 consecutive trading days. The total warrants exercisable will be subject the available authorized and unissued shares of the Company at the time of exercise.

As part of the definitive agreement, Wright Entertainment LLC which had previously entered into a stock subscription agreement for 14,000,000 shares agreed to the termination and cancellation of that agreement by the Company and further agreed to the termination and cancellation of 4,000,000 shares that had been issued in Wright Entertainment LLC's name and were to be vested when Wright Entertainment LLC completed the payment for its subscription agreement. The definitive agreement calls for the Company to pay Wright Entertainment LLC, owned by Lonnie G. Wright, $300,000 ($60,000 at the signing and $15,000 per month for sixteen months beginning January 15, 2005) and issue Wright Entertainment LLC 1,000,000 shares of the Company's restricted common stock.

In summary, World One Media Group, Inc.'s acquisition of 70,000,000 Million restricted common shares and the cancellation of 18,000,000 common shares in the name of Wright Entertainment LLC leaves World One Media Group, Inc. owning approximately 57% of the Company's 127,063,384 outstanding shares.

The 127,063,384 shares outstanding referred to in the previous paragraph were arrived at by taking the 67,135,177 shares outstanding at September 30, 2004 and subtracting the 18,000,000 shares of Wright Entertainment LLC that were cancelled, and adding the 70,000,000 shares issued to World One Media Group, Inc., 5,058,207 shares issued for bridge loan conversions, 1,000,000 shares issued to Lonnie G. Wright as set forth in the definitive agreement, 1,770,000 shares issued to management and consultants for services, and 100,000 shares issued in lieu of lease obligations on the Oklahoma station operated by the Company.
