
Part II - Rules 12b-25(b) and (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

(a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;

(b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, 11-K, Form N-SAR, or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and

(c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

Part III - Narrative

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The registrant has determined that the accounting for the class D shares of Enterra Acquisitions (US), Inc. (convertible to Enterra Trust Units on June 1, 2006) received in the sale of a subsidiary company (Rocky Mountain Gas, Inc., "RMG") on June 1, 2005, should be made in accordance with SFAS 133 (pertaining to embedded derivative instruments). In addition, the registrant has determined that the accounting for the February 2005 $4.72 million of convertible debt financing should be accounted for using a beneficial conversion feature. As a result of these determinations by the registrant, the financial statements in the Forms 10-Q for the periods ended March 31, June 30 and September 30, 2005 will be restated and the Forms 10-Q will be amended. Because of the time required of the registrant's financial staff to record these changes, the registrant was unable to complete the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005 and obtain the audit firm's report thereon, in time to file the Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 by the close of business on March 31, 2006. We expect the financial statements, and the audit firm review thereof, to be completed in the week of April 3, 2006. The Form 10-K will be filed by the close of business on Friday, April 7, 2006.

Due to the significance of the financial statements on the disclosures in the Form 10-K, the registrant does not believe that any portion of the Form 10-K should be filed without the financial statements.

Yes No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Due primarily to the gain on sale of Rocky Mountain Gas, Inc. as a discontinued business segment in 2005, the registrant recorded $0.48 net gain per basic share, compared to net loss of $0.52 per basic share for the prior year.
