Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 15, 2017, NVIDIA Corporation (the “Company”) established a commercial paper program pursuant to which the Company may issue short-term, unsecured commercial paper notes under Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Amounts available under the program may be borrowed, repaid and re-borrowed from time to time, with the aggregate face or principal amount of the notes outstanding under the program at any time not to exceed $575 million. The notes will have maturities of up to 397 days from the date of issue and rank at least equally with all of the Company’s other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness. The net proceeds from the issuances of the notes are expected to be used for general corporate purposes. The Company plans to use its revolving credit facility as a liquidity backstop for its borrowings under the program.

One or more dealers for the program will be engaged to either purchase from the Company or arrange for the sale by the Company of the notes pursuant to the respective commercial paper dealer agreement entered into between the Company and each dealer. The dealer agreements contain customary representations, warranties, covenants and indemnification provisions. A copy of the form of dealer agreement used in the program is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference, and the summary of the program herein is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the program as set forth in the dealer agreement.

A national bank will act as agent under the program pursuant to the terms of an issuing and paying agent agreement. From time to time, the dealers and certain of their affiliates have provided, and may in the future provide, banking and other financial advisory services to the Company and its affiliates for which the dealers have received or will receive customary fees and expenses.

The notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws, and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state laws. The information contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K is neither an offer to sell nor a solicitation of an offer to buy any notes.
