PROXY STATEMENT

Why did I receive these proxy materials?

We are providing these proxy materials in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Career Education Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("CEC," the "Company," "we," "us" or "our"), of proxies to be voted at our 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and at any adjournment or postponements thereof.

You are invited to attend our 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders on May 18, 2006, beginning at 3:00 p.m., Central Daylight Time. The Annual Meeting will be held at the Chicago Marriott Northwest, 4800 Columbine Boulevard, Hoffman Estates, Illinois.

This Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders, Proxy Statement and accompanying form of proxy are being mailed to stockholders starting on or about April 17, 2006.

Who is entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting?

Holders of CEC common stock as of the close of business on March 21, 2006 (the "Record Date") are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting or any adjournments thereof. As of the Record Date, CEC had outstanding 98,139,223 shares of Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Common Stock"). Each of the outstanding shares of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on all matters to come before the Annual Meeting.

Who can attend the Annual Meeting?

All stockholders as of the Record Date, or their duly appointed proxies, may attend the Annual Meeting. Stockholders will be admitted to the Meeting beginning at 2:30 p.m., Central Daylight Time. Seating will be limited.

What do I need to present for admission to the Annual Meeting?

You will need to present proof of your ownership of Common Stock, such as a bank or brokerage account statement, and a form of personal identification to be admitted to the Annual Meeting.

No cameras, recording equipment, electronic devices, large bags, briefcases or packages will be permitted in the Annual Meeting.

What is the difference between holding shares as a stockholder of record and as a beneficial owner?

If your shares are registered directly in your name with CEC's transfer agent, Computershare Investor Services LLC, you are considered, with respect to those shares, a "stockholder of record." The Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders, Proxy Statement and accompanying form of proxy have been sent directly to you by CEC.

If your shares are held in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other holder of record, you are considered the "beneficial owner" of shares held in street name. The Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders, Proxy Statement and accompanying form of proxy have been forwarded to you by your broker, bank or other holder of record who is considered, with respect to those shares, the stockholder of record. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker, bank or other holder of record on how to vote your shares by using the voting instruction card included in the mailing or by following their instructions for voting by telephone or on the Internet.

What constitutes a quorum?

The required quorum for transaction of business at the Annual Meeting will be a majority of the shares issued and outstanding as of the Record Date. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by the election inspector appointed for the meeting and will determine whether or not a quorum is present.

What are the Board of Director's recommendations with respect to each proposal?

The Board of Directors recommends that you:

vote FOR all of the Board of Director's nominees for election as directors;

vote FOR the proposal to declassify CEC's Board of Directors; vote FOR the proposal to permit stockholders holding at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66²/₃%) of the voting power of shares entitled to vote at an election of directors to call a special meeting of stockholders; and vote FOR the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent auditors of CEC's financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2006.

What should I do with a proxy card I may receive from certain of the Company's stockholders?

On February 16, 2006, the Company received a notice from R. Steven Bostic announcing his intention to nominate three candidates for election as directors at the Annual Meeting and to deliver a proxy statement and/or a form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of shares of Common Stock required to elect his nominees and/or otherwise solicit proxies from the Company's stockholders in support of such nomination. On February 21, 2006, Mr. Bostic issued a press release announcing his intention to nominate himself, James E. Copeland, Jr. and R. William Ide III for election as directors at the Annual Meeting. CEC's Board of Directors expects that Mr. Bostic will deliver a proxy statement and form of proxy to the Company's stockholders.

The Board of Directors recommends that you sign, date and return the WHITE PROXY CARD or voting instruction card.

What vote is required to approve each proposal?

Election of Directors. A plurality of the shares of Common Stock voted in person or by proxy is required to elect three directors at the Annual Meeting. Effective February 2, 2006, the Company's Board of Directors approved and adopted the Second Amended and Restated By-laws of the Company, amending and restating the Company's Amended and Restated By-laws to change the required vote for the election of directors from a plurality to a majority of votes cast in uncontested elections, while retaining plurality voting when the number of nominees exceeds the number of directors to be elected. On February 16, 2006, the Company received a notice from R. Steven Bostic announcing his intention to nominate three candidates for election as directors at the Annual Meeting and to deliver a proxy statement and/or a form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of shares of Common Stock required to elect his nominees and/or otherwise solicit proxies from the Company's stockholders in support of such nomination. As specified in "Proposal 1 Election of Directors" below, only three directors are to be elected at the Annual Meeting. The nomination of three directors by Mr. Bostic increases the number of nominees for election as Class II directors to six (three nominees nominated by the Company's Board of Directors and three nominees nominated by Mr. Bostic). Therefore, a plurality of the shares of Common Stock voted in person or by proxy is required to elect three directors at the Annual Meeting. If, however, Mr. Bostic withdraws his nominees in advance of the Annual Meeting, the required vote for the election of directors at the Annual Meeting will be a majority of votes cast. Each stockholder will be entitled to vote the number of shares of Common Stock held as of the Record Date by such stockholder for the number of directors to be elected. Stockholders will not be allowed to cumulate their votes in the election of directors.

Edgar Filing: CAREER EDUCATION CORP - Form DEFC14A

Declassification of the Board of Directors. The affirmative vote of the holders of at least eighty percent (80%) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock represented in person or by proxy is required to approve and adopt the proposal to amend CEC's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation to declassify CEC's Board of Directors.

Permit Stockholders to Call a Special Meeting. The affirmative vote of the holders of at least eighty percent (80%) of the outstanding shares of Common Stock represented in person or by proxy is required to approve and adopt the proposal to amend CEC's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation to permit stockholders holding at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66²/₃%) of the voting power of shares entitled to vote at an election of directors to call a special meeting of stockholders.

Ratification of Auditors. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Common Stock represented in person or by proxy is required to ratify the appointment by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent auditors of CEC's financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2006.

How do I vote?

You may vote using any of the following methods:

By Mail

Complete, sign and date the WHITE PROXY CARD and return it in the prepaid envelope. Each executed and returned WHITE PROXY CARD or voting instruction card will be voted in accordance with the directions indicated thereon, or if no direction is indicated, such proxy will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors contained in this Proxy Statement.

If you are a stockholder of record, and the prepaid envelope is missing, please mail your completed proxy card to Career Education Corporation c/o Georgeson Shareholder Communications Inc., 17 State Street, 10th Floor, New York, NY 10004.

In person at the Annual Meeting

If you attend the Annual Meeting, you may deliver your completed WHITE PROXY CARD in person, or you may vote in person. If you hold your shares in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other holder of record, you will not be able to vote in person at the Annual Meeting unless you have previously requested and obtained a "legal proxy" from your bank, broker or other nominee and present it at the Annual Meeting.

Your vote is important. You can save us the expense of a second mailing by voting promptly.

Please contact Georgeson Shareholder Communications Inc. toll-free at (888) 206-5970 should you have any questions regarding voting or to request another copy of this Proxy Statement or the WHITE PROXY CARD.

Who are the persons selected by CEC's Board of Directors to serve as proxies?

John M. Larson and Patrick K. Pesch, the persons named as proxies on the WHITE PROXY CARD or voting instruction card accompanying this Proxy Statement, were selected by the Board of Directors to serve in such capacity. Mr. Larson is the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and Mr. Pesch is the Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer, Assistant Secretary and Director of the Company.

Who will count the vote?

At the Annual Meeting, the results of stockholder voting will be tabulated by IVS Associates, Inc., the independent inspector of elections appointed by CEC for the meeting.

Will abstentions and broker non-votes affect the voting results?

The election inspector will treat abstentions and broker non-votes as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but as unvoted for purposes of determining the approval of any matter submitted to the stockholders for a vote.

Broker non-votes are proxies received by CEC from brokers or nominees when the broker or nominee has neither received instructions from the beneficial owner or other persons entitled to vote nor has discretionary power to vote on a particular matter. Pursuant to the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, brokers do not have discretionary authority to vote shares held in "street name" on non-routine matters, including a contested election of directors, without your instructions. Accordingly, stockholders are advised to forward their voting instructions promptly so as to afford brokers sufficient time to process such instructions.

Can I change my vote or revoke my proxy after I return my proxy card?

Yes. Even after you have submitted your proxy, you may change your vote at any time before the proxy is exercised by filing with CEC's Corporate Secretary either a notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. If you vote in person at the Annual Meeting, your proxy will be revoked. However, attendance at the Annual Meeting will not by itself revoke a previously granted proxy. For shares held in "street name," you may revoke your previously-granted proxy by submitting new voting instructions to your bank, broker or other nominee or contacting the person responsible for your account and instructing that person to execute on your behalf the WHITE PROXY CARD as soon as possible.

Could other matters be decided at the Annual Meeting?

Yes. At the date of this Proxy Statement, we did not know of any matters to be raised at the Annual Meeting other than those referred to in this Proxy Statement. If any other items or matters properly come before the Annual Meeting, the proxies received will be voted on those items or matters in accordance with the discretion of the proxy holders.

Is there a list of stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting?

Yes. A list of stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, showing the address of, and number of shares registered in the name of, each stockholder, will be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the Annual Meeting, during ordinary business hours, commencing May 8, 2006, and continuing through the date of the Annual Meeting, at the principal offices of CEC, 2895 Greenspoint Parkway, Suite 600, Hoffman Estates, Illinois 60195.

What is "householding" and how does it affect me?

In accordance with notices sent to beneficial stockholders sharing a single address, we are sending only one Annual Report to Stockholders, Form 10-K and Proxy Statement to that address unless we received contrary instructions from any beneficial stockholder at that address. This "householding" practice reduces our printing and postage costs. However, if a beneficial stockholder at such an address wishes to receive a separate Annual Report to Stockholders, Form 10-K or Proxy Statement this year or in the future, he or she may contact us at (847) 585-3899 or may write to us at Investor Relations, Career Education Corporation, 2895 Greenspoint Parkway, Suite 600, Hoffman Estates, IL 60195.

Can I access the Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders, Proxy Statement, Form 10-K and Annual Report to Stockholders on the Internet?

CEC's Form 10-K and Annual Report to Stockholders for the year ended December 31, 2005, containing financial and other information pertaining to CEC, are being furnished to stockholders with this Proxy Statement. The Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders, Proxy Statement, Form 10-K and Annual Report to Stockholders, are available on the Company's website at www.careered.com under the caption "Investor Relations."

PROPOSAL 1
ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

CEC's Board of Directors consists of nine directors. Article V of CEC's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, provides that the Board of Directors shall be classified with respect to the terms for which its members shall hold office by dividing the members into three classes. If the proposal to approve and adopt the Restated Certificate of Incorporation is approved by stockholders at the Annual Meeting, resulting in the declassification of CEC's Board of Directors as more fully described beginning on page 28 of this Proxy Statement, all nominees will serve for one year terms expiring at CEC's 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. If the Restated Certificate of Incorporation is not approved by stockholders, three Class II directors will be elected, each for a term of three years expiring at CEC's 2009 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Each of the nominees is presently serving as a director of CEC. The Board of Directors recommends that the stockholders vote in favor of the election of the nominees named in this Proxy Statement to serve as directors of CEC. See "Nominees" below.

Directors are expected to attend the Annual Meeting, absent unusual circumstances. Each member of the Board of Directors who served as a director at the time of the 2005 Annual Meeting, with the exception of Mr. Laub, attended the 2005 Annual Meeting. Mr. Laub did not attend at least 75% of the aggregate number of Board of Directors meetings and Committee meetings and the 2005 Annual Meeting for health reasons. Mr. Laub resigned from the Board of Directors for health reasons effective February 13, 2006.

Committees of the Board of Directors The Board of Directors has established an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nominating and Governance Committee, each comprised entirely of directors who are "independent" as that concept is defined in the corporate governance listing requirements applicable to companies whose securities are listed on The NASDAQ National Market (referred to herein as the "NASDAQ listing standards"). The members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Ogata (Chairman), Chookaszian and Lally. The members of the Compensation Committee are Messrs. Dowdell (Chairman) and Lally. Mr. Laub served on the Compensation Committee until his resignation from the Board of Directors effective February 13, 2006. The members of the Nominating and Governance Committee are Messrs. Lally (Chairman), Chookaszian and Ogata. Mr. Laub served on the Nominating and Governance Committee until his resignation from the Board of Directors effective February 13, 2006.

The Audit Committee generally has direct responsibility for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of any independent auditors. The Audit Committee also has responsibility for the selection of the independent auditors, the review of the plan and scope of the annual audit, the review of CEC's audit and control functions, the review and pre-approval of audit and permissible non-audit services, periodic reports to the full Board of Directors regarding all of the foregoing and carrying out the other responsibilities set forth in its charter. The Audit Committee is comprised solely of Directors who meet all the independence standards for audit committee members, as set forth in the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, and the NASDAQ listing standards. The Board of Directors has determined that each of Mr. Chookaszian and Mr. Ogata is an "audit committee financial expert," as that term is defined in the SEC rules adopted pursuant to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. During the year ended December 31, 2005, the Audit Committee held fifteen (15) meetings. See "Report of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors."

The Compensation Committee generally has responsibility for recommending to the Board of Directors guidelines and standards relating to the determination of executive compensation, reviewing CEC's executive compensation policies and reporting to the Board of Directors regarding the foregoing. The Compensation Committee also has responsibility for administering CEC's stock option plans, determining the number of options to be granted to CEC's employees and consultants pursuant to the plans, determining the number of options to be granted to our executive officers pursuant to such plans and reporting to the Board of Directors regarding the foregoing. During the year ended December 31, 2005, the Compensation Committee held three (3) meetings. See "Report of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors."

The Nominating and Governance Committee generally has responsibility for identifying candidates who are eligible under the qualification standards set forth in the CEC's Corporate Governance Guidelines to serve as members of the Board of Directors. It also makes recommendations to the Board of Directors concerning the structure and membership of other Board committees. The Nominating and Governance Committee is also charged with considering matters of corporate governance generally and reviewing and recommending to the Board, periodically, CEC's corporate governance principles. During the year ended December 31, 2005, the Nominating and Governance Committee held six (6) meetings.

Corporate Governance Guidelines In October 2004, the Board of Directors adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its responsibility to exercise its business judgment to act in what it believes to be the best interest of CEC's stockholders. The Board of Directors revised the Corporate Governance Guidelines in August 2005, to clarify that (1) the Nominating and Governance Committee does not have any specific minimum qualifications that must be met by a Nominating and Governance Committee or stockholder-recommended candidate for the Board of Directors, and (2) it is CEC's policy that directors seek approval from the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Chairperson of the Nominating and Governance Committee in advance of accepting an invitation to serve on the board of another public company. The Corporate Governance Guidelines, as revised, are posted on the Company's website, www.careered.com, under the caption "Investor Relations."

Lead Director The Outside Directors have designated Robert E. Dowdell as the Lead Director. In his capacity as Lead Director, Mr. Dowdell presides at all executive sessions of the Outside Directors. Executive sessions are held at least two times per year.

Code of Ethics and Code of Business Conduct and Ethics In October 2003, the Board of Directors adopted a Code of Ethics that is specifically applicable to its executive officers and senior financial officers, including its principal executive officer, its principal financial officer, its principal accounting officer and controller. The Code of Ethics is posted on the Company's website, www.careered.com, under the caption "Investor Relations." CEC has also adopted a revised Code of Business Conduct and Ethics in order to promote honest and ethical conduct and compliance with the laws and governmental rules and regulations to which the Company is subject. The revised Code of Business Conduct and Ethics is applicable to all of CEC's employees, officers and directors, and is posted on the Company's website, www.careered.com, under the caption "Investor Relations."

Nominating Procedures As described above, the Company has a standing Nominating and Governance Committee and its charter is posted on the Company's website, www.careered.com, under the caption "Investor Relations."

The Nominating and Governance Committee considers many factors when considering candidates for the Board and strives for the Board to be comprised of directors with a variety of experience and backgrounds, who have high-level managerial experience in a complex organization, and who represent the balanced interest of stockholders as a whole rather than those of special interest groups. Other important factors in Board composition include strength of character, mature judgment, specialized expertise, relevant technical skills, diversity, level of education, broad-based business acumen, experience and understanding of strategy and policy-setting and the extent to which the candidate would fill a present need on the Board. Depending upon the current needs of the Board, certain factors may be weighed more or less heavily by the Nominating and Governance Committee. The Nominating and Governance Committee's most-recently identified candidates have, in the cases of Mr. Lesnik and Ms. Thornton, possessed significant experience with state or federal education regulatory agencies, respectively, as well as, in the case of Mr. Gross, a strong background in information technology.

In considering candidates for the Board, the Nominating and Governance Committee considers the entirety of each candidate's credentials and does not have any specific minimum qualifications that must be met by a Nominating and Governance Committee or stockholder-recommended nominee. However, the Nominating and Governance Committee does believe that all members of the Board should have the highest character and integrity, a reputation for working constructively with others, sufficient time to devote to Board matters, and no conflict of interest that would interfere with performance as a director. In the case of current Directors being considered for renomination, the Nominating and Governance Committee will also take into account the director's history of attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors or its committees, the Director's tenure as a member of the Board of Directors, and the Director's preparation for and participation in such meetings.

The Nominating and Governance Committee considers candidates for the Board from any reasonable source, including stockholder recommendations. In May 2005, the Company announced its plans to expand the size of the Board to nine directors. Three additional directors were appointed to the Board in December 2005 and January 2006. The Company did not receive any director nominations from shareholders during this May 2005 through January 2006 time period. In addition, the Nominating and Governance Committee did not receive any stockholder-recommended candidates pursuant to, and within the timeframes set forth in, Section 2.4 of the Company's By-laws for its consideration as nominees for election as directors at the 2006 Annual Meeting. Instead, the Company received a notice from R. Steven Bostic in February 2006 announcing his intention to nominate three candidates for election as directors at the Annual Meeting and to deliver a proxy statement and/or a form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of shares of Common Stock required to elect his nominees and/or otherwise solicit proxies from the Company's stockholders in support of such nomination. Mr. Bostic did not, however, recommend his three candidates to the Nominating and Governance Committee for its consideration. The Nominating and Governance Committee does not evaluate candidates differently based on who has made the proposal. The Nominating and Governance Committee has the authority under its charter to hire and pay a fee to consultants or search firms to assist in the process of identifying and evaluating candidates. Candidates are recommended to the Board of Directors after consultation with the Chairman of the Board.

In May 2005, the Board of Directors engaged Russell Reynolds Associates to identify and assist in evaluating potential candidates to fill the two independent director positions created as a result of the Board's decision in May 2005, to bring the Board's size to the nine-member maximum established in CEC's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation. Both of the directors who joined the Board of Directors in December 2005, Mr. Gross and Ms. Thornton, and the director who joined the Board of Directors in February 2006, Mr. Lesnik, were identified by Russell Reynolds Associates.

Stockholders who wish to suggest qualified candidates should write to the Office of the Secretary, Career Education Corporation, 2895 Greenspoint Parkway, Suite 600, Hoffman Estates, Illinois 60195, specifying the name of the candidates and stating in detail the qualifications of such persons for consideration by the Nominating and Governance Committee. A written statement from the candidate consenting to be named as a candidate and, if nominated and elected, to serve as a director should accompany any such recommendation. Stockholders who wish to nominate a director for election at an annual meeting of the stockholders of the Company must comply with the Company's By-laws regarding stockholder proposals and nominations. See "Proposals of Stockholders" contained herein.

Communications with the Board of Directors Stockholders or other interested parties may communicate with the Board of Directors by sending a letter to CEC Board of Directors, c/o The Office of the Secretary, Career Education Corporation, 2895 Greenspoint Parkway, Suite 600, Hoffman Estates, Illinois 60195. The Office of the Secretary will receive the correspondence and forward it to the Director or Directors to whom the communication is addressed. From time to time, the Board of Directors may change the process by means of which stockholders may communicate with the Board or its members. Please refer to CEC's website, www.careered.com, for any changes in this process.

The Board of Directors elects officers annually and such officers serve at the discretion of the Board of Directors, subject, in the case of Mr. Larson, to the terms of his employment agreement. Mr. Larson is the only officer with an employment agreement with CEC. See "Executive Compensation Employment Agreements." There are no family relationships among any of the directors or officers of CEC.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), requires CEC's officers (as defined under Section 16), directors and persons who beneficially own greater than 10% of a registered class of CEC's equity securities to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"). Based solely on a review of the forms it has received and on written representations from certain reporting persons that no such forms were required for them, CEC believes that, during 2005 all Section 16 filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners were complied with by such persons, except for one inadvertent late report filed by Mr. Pesch on February 14, 2006, to report the October 12, 2005, transfer of 4,000 shares from Robert C. Pesch Declaration of Trust dated February 20, 1992, as amended, for which Mr. Pesch serves as Successor Co-Trustee and Co-Executor, to Robert Pesch Marital Trust dated October 23, 1998, for which Mr. Pesch serves as Co-Trustee.

These options were granted under the Career Education Corporation 1998 Employee Incentive Compensation Plan and each of these options is a non-qualified stock option and vests in four equal annual installments on each of the first four anniversaries of the grant date.

Potential realizable value is presented net of the option exercise price, but before any federal or state income taxes associated with exercise, and is calculated assuming that the fair market value on the date of the grant appreciates at the indicated annual rates, compounded annually, for the term of the option. The 5% and 10% assumed rates of appreciation are mandated by the rules of the Commission and do not represent our estimate or projection of future increases in the price of our Common Stock. Actual gains are dependent on the future performance of our Common Stock and the option holder's continued employment throughout the vesting periods. The amounts reflected in the table may not necessarily be achieved.

Aggregated Option Exercises in 2005 and Year-End 2005 Option Values The following table provides information regarding each of the Named Officer's option exercises during 2005 and unexercised options at December 31, 2005.

The value per option is calculated by subtracting the exercise price per option from the closing price of the Common Stock on The NASDAQ National Market on December 30, 2005, of $33.72.

On December 15, 2005, CEC accelerated the vesting of all outstanding, unvested stock options with a per share exercise price greater than $32.63 (the market closing price of our common stock as of December 31, 2005) that were previously awarded to its employees, including its executive officers, and directors during 2003 and 2004 under our equity compensation plans, such that all such options became immediately exercisable.

Employment Agreements CEC and CEC Employee Group, LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CEC, entered into an employment agreement dated August 1, 2000 with John M. Larson. The term of the agreement, pursuant to its terms, has been automatically extended by one year beginning on January 1, 2002 and on each succeeding January 1st thereafter. The term will continue to be extended by one year on January 1st of each year unless CEC or Mr. Larson provides written notice of termination. The current term of the agreement is through December 31, 2007. The agreement provides for an initial annual base salary of $450,000 plus bonus compensation based upon annual quantitative and qualitative performance targets as established by the Board of Directors. The agreement provides for the payment of two years' salary and average bonus and a continuation of benefits for two years following Mr. Larson's termination of employment with us, other than termination by us for Cause or termination by Mr. Larson without Good Reason. The agreement also provides for the payment of three years' salary and average bonus and a continuation of benefits for three years following Mr. Larson's termination of employment with us in anticipation of a change of control or after a change of control. In the event that any payment by CEC to Mr. Larson is subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), then Mr. Larson shall be entitled to receive an additional payment in an amount such that after payment by Mr. Larson of all applicable taxes, Mr. Larson retains an amount equal to the amount he would have retained had no excise tax been imposed. The agreement also prohibits Mr. Larson from disclosing confidential information and from engaging in activities competitive with CEC for a period which includes the term of his employment with CEC or service as one of CEC's directors and continues for two years thereafter. However, if Mr. Larson's employment with CEC is terminated by CEC in anticipation of a change of control or after a change of control and CEC pays three years' salary and average bonus, the non-competition period extends to three years after the termination of employment.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Compensation Committee") is comprised solely of "independent" directors, as that term is defined in the NASDAQ listing standards, as well as under Rule 16b-3 of the Exchange Act and Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Compensation Committee establishes CEC's compensation strategy and policies and determines the nature and amount of all compensation for CEC's executive officers. The objectives of the Board of Directors in determining the levels and components of executive and key employee compensation are to (i) attract, motivate and retain talented and dedicated executive officers and other key employees, (ii) provide executive officers and other key employees with both cash and equity incentives to further the interests of CEC and its stockholders and (iii) compensate executive officers and other key employees at levels comparable to those of other comparable companies. The Compensation Committee retained Mercer Human Resource Consulting to review its compensation program in 2003 to ensure that it (i) aligns compensation with responsibility, (ii) provides for a competitive sharing of future increases in stockholder value with key executives and employees and (iii) is consistent with CEC's strategic and financial goals. Generally, the compensation of all executive officers and other key employees is composed of a base salary plus targeted bonuses based upon achievement of specified goals. In addition, stock options are granted to provide the opportunity for compensation based upon the performance of the Common Stock over time.

In determining the base salaries of the executive officers in 2005, the Board of Directors considered the performance of each executive, the nature of the executive's responsibilities, the salary levels of executives at comparable publicly-held companies (based in part on a review of compensation data provided by Mercer Human Resource Consulting as well as proxy data of other similar companies), and CEC's general compensation practices. Based on these criteria, effective March 1, 2006, the base salary of Mr. Larson was increased from $990,000 to $1,035,000, the base salary of Mr. Fireng was increased from $355,000 to $400,000, the base salary of Mr. Pesch was increased from $425,000 to $440,000, the base salary of Mr. Steele was increased from $365,000 to $385,000, and the base salary of Mr. Gruver was increased from $410,000 to $420,000. The base salaries of the executive officers are effective until changed at the discretion of the Compensation Committee.

Discretionary bonuses for executive officers are directly tied to achievement of specified goals of CEC and are a function of the criteria which the Compensation Committee believes appropriately takes into account the specified areas of responsibility of the particular officer. Targets for discretionary bonuses are determined based on a percentage of the employee's base salary. Various executive officers and key employees were awarded cash bonuses in 2005 for their contributions. For 2005 performance, the Compensation Committee paid bonuses of $990,000 to Mr. Larson, $562,592 to Mr. Fireng, $318,795 to Mr. Pesch, $239,000 to Mr. Steele, and $178,462 to Mr. Gruver.

Periodically, the Compensation Committee also grants stock options to executive officers and other key employees in order to provide a long-term incentive, which is directly tied to the performance of CEC's Common Stock. These options provide an incentive to maximize stockholder value because they reward option holders only if stockholders also benefit. The exercise price of these stock options is the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. In general, the options vest in equal annual installments over a four year period beginning one year after the date of grant. Vesting periods are used to retain key employees and to emphasize the long-term aspect of contribution and performance. In making stock option grants to executives and other key employees, the Compensation Committee considers a number of factors, including the performance of such persons, achievement of specific delineated goals, the responsibilities and the relative position of such persons within CEC, review of compensation of executives and key employees in comparable companies and review of the number of stock options each such person currently possesses. In 2005, the Compensation Committee granted 150,000 stock options to Mr. Larson, 75,000 stock options to Mr. Fireng, 75,000 stock options to Mr. Pesch, 50,000 stock options to Mr. Steele and 30,000 stock options to Mr. Gruver.

Compliance with Section 162(m)

The Compensation Committee currently intends for all compensation paid to the Named Officers to be tax deductible to CEC pursuant to Section 162(m) of the Code ("Section 162(m)"). Section 162(m) provides that compensation paid to the Named Officers in excess of $1,000,000 cannot be deducted by CEC for Federal income tax purposes unless, in general, such compensation is performance based, is established by a committee of independent directors, is objective and the plan or agreement providing for such performance based compensation has been approved in advance by stockholders. In the future, the Compensation Committee may determine to adopt a compensation program that does not satisfy the conditions of Section 162(m) if in its judgment, after considering the additional costs of not satisfying Section 162(m), such program is appropriate.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors maintains an Audit Committee comprised of three non-employee members of the Board of Directors. After reviewing the qualifications of the current members of the committee, and any relationships they may have with CEC that might affect their independence from CEC, the Board of Directors has determined that (1) all current members of the Audit Committee are "independent" as that concept is defined in Section 10A of the Exchange Act, (2) all current members of the Audit Committee are "independent" as that concept is defined in the NASDAQ listing standards, (3) all current members of the Audit Committee are financially literate, and (4) Mr. Chookaszian and Mr. Ogata both qualify as audit committee financial experts under the applicable rules promulgated pursuant to the Exchange Act.

The members of the Audit Committee are not professional accountants or auditors, and their functions are not intended to duplicate or to certify the activities of management or the independent auditors, nor can the Audit Committee certify that the independent auditors are "independent" under applicable rules. The Audit Committee serves in a board-level oversight role in which it provides advice, counsel and direction to management and the auditors based on the information it receives, on discussions with management and the auditors, and on the members of the Audit Committee's experience in business, financial and accounting matters. The Audit Committee has the authority to engage its own outside advisors, apart from counsel or advisors hired by management, as it determines appropriate, including experts in particular areas of accounting. Management is responsible for the reporting processes and preparation and presentation of financial statements and the implementation and maintenance of internal controls. CEC's independent auditors are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of CEC's audited financial statements to generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

In January 2005, the Board of Directors approved an amendment to the written charter of the Audit Committee, which is posted on the Company's website, www.careered.com, under the caption "Investor Relations." The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors with fulfilling its oversight responsibility regarding the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing, and financial reporting practices of the Company. In discharging its oversight responsibilities regarding the audit process, the Audit Committee:

- (1) reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management;
- (2) discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the material required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61; and
- (3) reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from Ernst & Young LLP required by the Independence Standards Board's No. 1, and discussed with Ernst & Young LLP any relationships that may impact their objectivity and independence.

Based upon the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, as filed with the Commission.

Principal Accounting Fees and Services

Ernst & Young LLP acts as the principal auditor for CEC and also provides certain audit-related, tax and other services. CEC has entered into an engagement agreement with Ernst & Young LLP which sets forth the terms by which Ernst & Young LLP will perform audit services for CEC. That agreement is subject to alternative dispute resolution procedures and an exclusion of punitive damages.

The Audit Committee pre-approves all services provided by Ernst & Young LLP to CEC. In some cases, this pre-approval is accomplished through policies and procedures adopted by the Audit Committee that provide a detailed description of the services that may be performed, as well as limits on the fees for the services. In pre-approving services, the Audit Committee considers whether such services are consistent with the SEC's rules on auditor independence. The fees for the services provided by Ernst & Young LLP to CEC in the years ended December 31, 2005 and December 31, 2004, respectively, were as follows:

Audit Fees were $1,702,182 and $1,958,000 for the years ended December 31, 2005, and December 31, 2004, respectively. Audit Fees consisted of audit work performed in the preparation of financial statements, quarterly financial statement reviews, statutory audits, consultation regarding financial accounting and/or reporting standards and filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These fees included audit services related to Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

Audit-Related Fees were $338,200 and $362,000 for the years ended December 31, 2005, and December 31, 2004, respectively. Audit-Related Fees consisted of services that are traditionally performed by the independent auditor, including employee benefit plan audits and due diligence related to mergers, acquisitions and other matters.

Tax Fees were $204,171 and $422,000 for the years ended December 31, 2005, and December 31, 2004, respectively. Tax Fees consisted of all services performed by the independent auditor's tax personnel, except those related to the audit of financial statements, and include tax compliance, tax consulting, tax planning and non-recurring projects.

There were no fees billed by Ernst & Young LLP for Other Fees during the years ended December 31, 2005, and December 31, 2004.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees

There were no fees billed by Ernst & Young LLP for professional services rendered in connection with financial information systems design and implementation services during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005, and December 31, 2004.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following graph shows a comparison of cumulative total returns for CEC, the Standard & Poor's 500 Index and an index of peer companies selected by CEC during the period commencing on January 1, 2001, and ending on December 31, 2005. The comparison assumes $100 was invested on January 1, 2001, in the Common Stock, the Standard & Poor's 500 Index and the index of peer companies selected by CEC and assumes the reinvestment of all dividends, if any. The companies in the peer index, all of which are education companies, are weighted according to their market capitalization as of the end of each period for which a return is indicated. Included in the peer index are: Apollo Group Inc., Corinthian Colleges, Inc., DeVry Inc., Education Management Corporation, ITT Educational Services, Inc., and Strayer Education, Inc. The performance graph begins with CEC's $9.78 per share closing price on December 29, 2000 (as adjusted to reflect the 2-for-1 stock splits effected in the form of stock dividends paid on October 1, 2001, and on August 22, 2003).

PROPOSAL 2
PROPOSAL TO DECLASSIFY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

GENERAL

The Nominating and Governance Committee of CEC's Board of Directors and the Board of Directors have examined a full range of corporate governance measures and consulted with corporate governance experts and stockholders holding a majority of our shares. In connection with this review, the Board has reviewed CEC's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Charter") and determined to recommend to the stockholders that they approve a proposal to amend the Charter to declassify the Board of Directors.

A non-binding stockholder proposal recommending that the Board of Directors change the classified board structure was presented to a vote of stockholders at the Company's 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and 65.5% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock voted in favor of the proposal. On several occasions, including in connection with the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the Board of Directors considered the benefits of a classified board structure and the issues raised by stockholders seeking changes to the Company's corporate governance practices. On each such occasion, the Board concluded that it was in the best interests of CEC and its stockholders to maintain a classified board.

Recently, the Board reconsidered the various advantages and disadvantages of the classified board structure. Proponents of classified boards suggest, among other things, that classified boards reduce the vulnerability of companies to certain potentially abusive takeover tactics and encourage potential acquirers to negotiate with the Board. Such proponents also believe classified boards also enhance the independence of non-employee directors and assure continuity and stability of companies' management and policies since a majority of the directors at any given time have prior experience as directors of the Company. Opponents of classified boards believe that the annual election of directors is the primary means for stockholders to influence corporate governance and enables stockholders to hold all directors accountable on an annual basis rather than over a three-year period.

After reviewing the classified board structure, the Board of Directors has decided to recommend that the stockholders vote FOR its proposal to amend the Charter to declassify the Board of Directors. In making the decision, the Board of Directors considered the stockholders' views, prior stockholder support for the proposal to permit the annual election of directors and recent trends in corporate governance.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO CHARTER TO DECLASSIFY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article V of the Charter currently divides the Board of Directors into three classes. Directors are elected for three-year terms that are staggered among the three classes. If this proposal is approved by stockholders, the Charter will be amended to provide that those directors previously elected for three-year terms of office by CEC's stockholders will complete their three-year terms and would be eligible for re-election to one-year terms at each annual meeting of stockholders thereafter. Beginning with the 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the declassification of the Board of Directors would be complete, and all directors would be subject to annual election to one-year terms.

CEC's Board of Directors has also approved conforming amendments to its By-laws contingent upon approval by the stockholders of the proposed amendment to the Charter to declassify CEC's Board of Directors. Article III, Section 3.3 of the By-laws currently provides that the Company's directors may only be removed for cause. If the proposal to declassify CEC's Board of Directors is approved, Article III, Section 3.3 of the By-laws will be amended to provide that any director or the entire Board of Directors, excepting certain Continuing Classified Directors (as defined in Article V of the proposed Restated Certificate of Incorporation), may be removed from office at any time by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote at an election of directors. The Third Amended and Restated By-laws amending Article III, Section 3.3 of the By-laws, will become effective simultaneously with the effective date of the filing of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation providing for a declassified Board of Directors with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.

The proposed Restated Certificate of Incorporation, including the proposed amendment to Article V of the Charter to declassify CEC's Board of Directors is attached to this Proxy Statement as Exhibit A, and the above discussion is qualified in its entirety by reference to such exhibit.

The Board of Directors recommends that the stockholders vote FOR the proposal to amend the Charter to declassify CEC's Board of Directors.

PROPOSAL 3
PROPOSAL TO PERMIT STOCKHOLDERS TO CALL
SPECIAL MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

GENERAL

The Nominating and Governance Committee of CEC's Board of Directors and the Board of Directors have examined a full range of corporate governance measures and consulted with corporate governance experts and stockholders holding a majority of our shares. In connection with this review, the Board has reviewed the Charter and determined to recommend to the stockholders that they approve a proposal to amend the Charter to permit the holders of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) of the voting power of shares of Common Stock to call special meetings of stockholders.

A non-binding stockholder proposal recommending that the Board of Directors allow CEC's stockholders to call special meetings of stockholders was presented to a vote of stockholders at the Company's 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and 64.2% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock voted in favor of the proposal. On several occasions, including in connection with the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the Board of Directors considered the provisions in the Charter and By-laws concerning the calling of special meetings of stockholders and the issues raised by stockholders seeking changes to the Company's corporate governance practices. On each such occasion, the Board concluded that it was in the best interests of CEC and its stockholders to only allow the Board of Directors to call special meetings of stockholders.

Recently, the Board of Directors reconsidered the various advantages and disadvantages of the provisions in the Charter and By-laws specifying that special meetings of stockholders may only be called by a resolution approved by a majority of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors believes that the ability of a minority of the stockholders to call an unlimited number of special meetings would, among other things, be very disruptive to the conduct of CEC's business and impose significant administrative and financial burdens on the Company, but that these concerns are mitigated if a super-majority of stockholders are permitted to call such meetings to address appropriate corporate matters.

After reviewing the provisions in the Charter concerning the calling of special meetings of stockholders, the Board of Directors has decided to recommend that the stockholders vote FOR its proposal to amend the Charter to permit the holders of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) of the voting power of shares of Common Stock to call special meetings of stockholders. In making the decision, the Board of Directors considered the stockholders' views, prior stockholder support for the proposal to permit stockholders to call special meetings of stockholders and recent trends in corporate governance.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO CHARTER TO PERMIT STOCKHOLDERS TO CALL SPECIAL MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Article VI of the Charter currently provides that special meetings of stockholders may only be called pursuant to a resolution approved by a majority of the Board of Directors. If this proposal is approved by stockholders, Article VI will be amended to allow stockholders holding at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) of the voting power of shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at an election of directors to call a special meeting of stockholders.

CEC's Board of Directors has also approved conforming amendments to the By-laws contingent upon approval by the stockholders of the proposed amendment to the Charter to permit the holders of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) of the voting power of shares of Common Stock to call special meetings of stockholders. Article II, Section 2.6 of the By-laws currently provides that special meetings of stockholders may be called only by the Board of Directors. If this proposal is approved, Article II, Section 2.6 of the By-laws will allow stockholders holding at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) of the voting power of the shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at an election of directors to call a special meeting of stockholders, subject to certain specified conditions. The Third Amended and Restated By-laws amending Article II, Section 2.6 of the By-laws, will become effective simultaneously with the effective date of the filing of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation permitting the holders of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) of the voting power of shares of Common Stock to call special meetings of stockholders with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.

The proposed Restated Certificate of Incorporation, including the proposed amendment to Article VI of the Charter to permit the holders of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) of the voting power of shares of Common Stock to call special meetings of stockholders, is attached to this Proxy Statement as Exhibit A, and the above discussion is qualified in its entirety by reference to such exhibit.

IMPACT OF THE PROPOSAL ON THE FILLING OF VACANCIES BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

All vacancies on the Board of Directors and newly-created directorships will continue to be filled by the Board of Directors. Any director elected to fill a vacancy not resulting from an increase in the number of directors will hold office for the same remaining term as that of his or her predecessor and until his or her successor is elected and qualified.

The Board of Directors recommends that the stockholders vote FOR the proposal to amend the Charter to permit the holders of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) of the voting power of shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at an election of directors to call special meetings of stockholders.

PROPOSAL 4
RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has appointed Ernst & Young LLP, independent certified public accountants, to serve as independent auditors of CEC for the year ending December 31, 2006. This firm has audited the accounts of CEC since 2002.

Stockholder ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as CEC's independent auditors is not required by CEC's By-Laws or otherwise. However, the Board of Directors has determined to afford stockholders the opportunity to express their opinions on the matter of auditors, and, accordingly, is submitting to the stockholders at the Annual Meeting a proposal to ratify the Board of Directors' appointment of Ernst & Young LLP. If a majority of the shares voted at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, are not voted in favor of the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP, the Audit Committee will consider the facts and circumstances surrounding the vote and may reconsider such appointment. Notwithstanding this selection, and the ratification of this selection by stockholders, the Audit Committee, in its discretion, may direct the appointment of a different independent accounting firm at any time during the year if the Audit Committee determines that such a change would be in the best interests of CEC and its stockholders.

It is expected that representatives of Ernst & Young LLP will be present at the meeting and will be available to respond to questions. They will be given an opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so.

The Board of Directors recommends that the stockholders vote FOR the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent auditors of CEC's financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2006.

MISCELLANEOUS AND OTHER MATTERS

Proposals of Stockholders In accordance with Rule 14a-8 promulgated under the Exchange Act, proposals of stockholders intended to be considered for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and proxy for the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders must be received by the Secretary of CEC not less than 120 days prior to April 17, 2007. In addition, Article II, Section 2.5 of the Company's By-Laws (the "Notice Provision") provides that for business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder, the stockholder must deliver written notice to, or mail such notice so that it is received by, the Secretary of the Company, at the principal executive offices of the Company, not less than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the date of the previous year's annual meeting of stockholders. Proposals of stockholders intended to be considered at CEC's 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders must be received by the Secretary of CEC not less than 90 days prior to May 18, 2007.

Discretionary Proxy Voting Authority/Untimely Stockholder Proposals Rule 14a-4(c) promulgated under the Exchange Act governs the Company's use of its discretionary proxy voting authority with respect to a stockholder proposal that the stockholder has not sought to include in the Company's proxy statement. Under the rule, if a stockholder fails to notify the Company of its proposal before the date established by the Notice Provision, then the management proxies will be allowed to use their discretionary voting authority when the proposal is raised at the meeting. In addition, if the Company receives timely notice of a stockholder proposal in connection with an annual meeting of stockholders that does not include all of the information required by Rule 14a-4(c) promulgated under the Exchange Act, such proposal will be considered timely but deficient, and the Company's proxy statement may confer discretionary authority with respect to such proposal if the Company includes, in its proxy statement, advice on the nature of the matter and how the Company intends to exercise its discretion to vote on such matter.

Additional Information CEC will furnish, without charge, a copy of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its year ended December 31, 2005, as filed with the Commission, upon the written request of any person who is a stockholder as of the Record Date, and will provide copies of the exhibits to such Form 10-K upon payment of a reasonable fee which shall not exceed CEC's reasonable expenses in connection therewith. Requests for such materials should be directed to Career Education Corporation, 2895 Greenspoint Parkway, Suite 600, Hoffman Estates, Illinois 60195, Attention: Investor Relations Department. Such information may also be obtained free of charge by accessing the Company's website at www.careered.com under the caption "Investor Relations."

PARTICIPANTS IN THE SOLICITATION

Opposing Solicitation On February 16, 2006, the Company received a notice from R. Steven Bostic announcing his intention to nominate an alternate slate of three candidates for election as directors at the Annual Meeting and to deliver a proxy statement and/or a form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of shares of Common Stock required to elect his nominees and/or otherwise solicit proxies from the Company's stockholders in support of such nomination. On February 21, 2006, Mr. Bostic issued a press release announcing his intention to nominate himself, James E. Copeland, Jr. and R. William Ide III for election as directors at the Annual Meeting. The Company is providing the following information pursuant to SEC regulations that require certain disclosures if the Company knows of a solicitation in opposition.

Cost of Solicitation The cost of CEC's proxy solicitation will be borne by CEC. CEC has retained Georgeson Shareholder Communications Inc., a professional proxy solicitation firm, at an estimated cost of $250,000, plus reimbursement of expenses, to assist it in soliciting proxies from brokers, nominees, institutions and individuals. Georgeson Shareholder expects that approximately 100 of its employees will assist in the solicitation. CEC may also request banks, brokers, fiduciaries, custodians, nominees and certain other record holders to send proxies, proxy statements and other materials to their principals at CEC's expense. Such banks, brokers, fiduciaries, custodians, nominees and other record holders will be reimbursed by CEC for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of solicitation. Original solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by telephone, facsimile or personal solicitation by the persons identified as participants under the heading "Participants in the Solicitation," or regular employees of CEC. No additional compensation will be paid to directors, officers or other regular employees for such services. Although no precise estimate can be made at the present time, CEC currently estimates that the total expenditures relating to the proxy solicitation incurred by CEC will be approximately $750,000, of which approximately $340,000 has been incurred to date. Costs related to the proxy solicitation incurred by CEC include fees for attorneys, public relations, CEC's proxy solicitation firm, printing costs, advertising, postage and related expenses and fees.

Participants in the Solicitation Under SEC rules, each member of the Company's Board of Directors may be deemed to be a participant in the Company's solicitation of proxies in connection with the Annual Meeting. Set forth below are the name and principal occupation of each member of the Board (three of whom are also nominees), and the name, principal business and address of any corporation or other organization in which that director's occupation or employment is carried on. For additional information concerning each of the directors, see "Proposal 1 Election of Directors," "Nominees," and "Other Directors" in this Proxy Statement.

In no case will a decrease in the number of directors; shorten the term of any incumbent director, even though such decrease may result in an inequality of the classes until the expiration of such term. A director shall hold office until the annual meeting of stockholders in the year in which his or her term expires and until his or her successor shall be elected and qualified subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement or removal from office. ~~Directors may only be removed for cause, except as otherwise provided by law.~~

At the 2008 Annual Meeting and each annual meeting of stockholders thereafter, all directors shall be elected for terms expiring at the next annual meeting of stockholders and until such directors' successors have been elected and qualified subject, however, to prior death, resignation, retirement or removal from office. Except as required by law or the provisions of this Certificate of Incorporation, all vacancies on the Board of Directors and newly-created directorships shall be filled by the Board of Directors. Any director elected to fill a vacancy not resulting from an increase in the number of directors shall ~~have~~ hold office for the same remaining term as that of his or her predecessor and until his or her successor is elected and qualified.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article V, whenever the holders of any one or more classes or series of Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation shall have the right, voting separately ~~by~~ as a class or series, to elect directors at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, the election, term of office, filling of vacancies and other features of such directorships shall be governed by the terms of this Certificate of Incorporation and any resolutions of the Board of Directors applicable thereto, ~~and such directors so elected shall not be divided into classes pursuant to this Article V.~~

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least eighty percent (80%) of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote generally in the election of directors shall be required to amend, alter or repeal, or to adopt any provision inconsistent with, this Article V.

B. Special Meetings. Special meetings of stockholders of the Corporation may be called upon not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days' written notice by the Board of Directors, pursuant to a resolution approved by ~~a majority of~~ the Board of Directors. In addition, special meetings of the stockholders may be called at the written request of holders of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66²/₃%) of the voting power of the issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at an election of directors if such election were held on the date the first such request is delivered to the Corporation; provided, however, that such meeting shall be held only (i) to take action on the item or items of business set forth in such request and (ii) to take action on such other item or items of business proposed by the Board of Directors if such action can be taken by such holders. The right of the stockholders to call a special meeting shall be subject to, and may be limited by, the procedures set forth in the By-laws of the Corporation for calling a special meeting of stockholders.

C. Amendment. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Certificate of Incorporation to the contrary, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least eighty percent (80%) of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote generally in the election of directors shall be required to amend, alter or repeal, or to adopt any provision inconsistent with, this Article VI.

ARTICLE VII

In furtherance and not in limitation of the power conferred by statute, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized to make, alter, amend or repeal the By-laws of the Corporation. The By-laws of the Corporation may be altered, amended, or repealed, or new By-laws may be adopted, by the Board of Directors in accordance with the preceding sentence or by the vote of the holders of at least eighty percent (80%) of the voting power of the shares of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, provided that, if such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new By-laws is effected at a duly called special meeting, notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new By-laws is contained in the notice of such special meeting.

ARTICLE VIII

A director of the Corporation shall not, in the absence of fraud, be disqualified by his office from dealing or contracting with the Corporation either as a vendor, purchaser or otherwise, nor in the absence of fraud shall a director of the Corporation be liable to account to the Corporation for any profit realized by him from or through any transaction or contract of the Corporation by reason of the fact that such director, or any firm of which such director is a member or any corporation of which such director is an officer, director or stockholder, was interested in such transaction or contract if such transaction or contract has been authorized, approved or ratified in a manner provided in the DGCL for authorization, approval or ratification of transactions or contracts between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers or have a financial interest.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings of stockholders may be held within or without the State of Delaware as the By-laws of the Company may provide. The books of the Corporation may be kept outside the State of Delaware at such place or places as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors of the Corporation or in the By-laws of the Corporation. Election of directors need not be by written ballot unless the By-laws of the Corporation so provide.

ARTICLE X

Whenever a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the Corporation and its creditors or any class of them and/or between the Corporation and its stockholders or any class of them, any court of equitable jurisdiction within the State of Delaware may, on the application in a summary way of the Corporation or of any creditor or stockholder thereof or on the application of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Corporation under the provisions of Section 291 of the DGCL or on the application of trustees in dissolution or of any receiver or receivers appointed for the Corporation under the provisions of Section 279 of the DGCL, order a meeting of the creditors or class of creditors and/or the stockholders or class of stock of the Corporation, as the case may be, to be summoned in such manner as said court directs. If a majority in number representing three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) of the value of the creditors or class of creditors and/or the stockholders or class of stockholders of the Corporation, as the case may be, agree to any compromise or arrangement or to any reorganization of the Corporation as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, said compromise or arrangement of said reorganization shall, if sanctioned by the Court to which said application has been made, be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors and/or on all the stockholders or class of stockholders, of the Corporation, as the case may be, and also on the Corporation.

ARTICLE XI

The Board of Directors of the Corporation may adopt a resolution proposing to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute.

ARTICLE XII

A. Indemnification of Officers and Directors: The Corporation shall:

1. indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, any present or former director of the Corporation and any present or former officer, employee or agent of the Corporation selected by the Board of Directors for indemnification, such selection to be evidenced by an indemnification agreement, who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or if such person has previously been designated for indemnification by a resolution of the Board of Directors, is or was an officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which such person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that such person's conduct was unlawful; and

2. indemnify any present or former director of the Corporation and any present or former officer, employee or agent of the Corporation selected by the Board of Directors for indemnification, such selection to be evidenced by an indemnification agreement, who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or if such person has previously been designated for indemnification by a resolution of the Board of Directors, is or was an officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to, the Corporation, unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper; and

3. indemnify any present or former director or officer or any present or former employee or agent of the Corporation selected by the Board of Directors for indemnification, such selection to be evidenced by an indemnification agreement, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith, to the extent that such person has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Article XII.A.1. and 2., or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein; and

4. make any indemnification under Article XII.A.1. and 2. (unless ordered by a court) only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the present or former director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because such director, officer, employee or agent has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Article XII.A.1. and 2. Such determination shall be made, with respect to a person who is an officer or director at the time of such determination, (a) by a majority vote of the directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even if less than a quorum, or (b) by a committee of such directors designated by a majority vote of such directors, even if less than a quorum, or (c) if there are no such directors, or if such directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (d) by the stockholders of the Corporation; and

5. pay expenses incurred by a director or officer in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article XII. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation shall not be obligated to pay expenses incurred by a director or officer with respect to any threatened, pending, or completed claims, suits or actions, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or otherwise ("Proceedings"), initiated or brought voluntarily by such director or officer and not by way of defense (other than Proceedings brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification under the provisions of this Article XII, unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines that each of the material assertions made by such director or officer in such Proceedings were not made in good faith or were frivolous). The Corporation shall not be obligated to indemnify such director or officer for any amount paid in settlement of a Proceeding covered hereby without the prior written consent of the Corporation to such settlement; and

6. not deem the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the other subsections of this Article XII as exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any By-law, agreement or vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in such director's or officer's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office; and

7. have the right, authority and power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the provisions of this Article XII; and

8. deem the provisions of this Article XII to be a contract between the Corporation and each director, or appropriately designated officer, employee or agent who serves in such capacity at any time while this Article XII is in effect, and any repeal or modification of this Article XII shall not affect any rights or obligations then existing with respect to any state of facts then or theretofore existing or any action, suit or proceeding theretofore or thereafter brought or threatened based in whole or in part upon such state of facts. The provisions of this Article XII shall not be deemed to be a contract between the Corporation and any directors, officers, employees or agents of any other corporation (the "Second Corporation") which shall merge into or consolidate with the Corporation when the Corporation shall be the surviving or resulting corporation, and any such directors, officers, employees or agents of the Second Corporation shall be indemnified to the extent required under the DGCL only at the discretion of the board of Directors of the Corporation; and

9. continue the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article XII, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, and the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Article XII shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.
