State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Cumulus Media Inc. (the “Company”) is filing this Notification of Late Filing on Form 12b-25 with respect to its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2018 (the “Form 10-Q”).

As previously disclosed, on November 29, 2017, CM Wind Down Topco Inc. (f/k/a Cumulus Media Inc.) (“Old Cumulus”), and certain of its direct and indirect subsidiaries (collectively with Old Cumulus, the “Debtors”), filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the U.S. Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Bankruptcy Court”). The Debtors’ Chapter 11 cases (the “Chapter 11 Cases”) were jointly administered under the caption In re: Cumulus Media Inc., et al., Case No. 17-13381. On May 10, 2018, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order Confirming the Debtors’ First Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization [Docket No. 769] (the “Confirmation Order”), which confirmed the First Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization of Cumulus Media Inc. and its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 446] (the “Plan”), as modified by the Confirmation Order. On June 4, 2018 (the “Effective Date”), Old Cumulus satisfied the conditions to effectiveness of the Plan set forth in the Confirmation Order and in the Plan, the Plan became effective in accordance with its terms and Old Cumulus and the other Debtors emerged from Chapter 11 as the Company.

During the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases and following the date of the Company’s emergence from bankruptcy pursuant to the Plan, in addition to their regular financial reporting duties, the Company’s management team and other finance and accounting personnel have devoted significant time and attention to matters relating to and on the preparation of certain materials required in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases and the Plan, including the preparation of financial statements based on “fresh start” accounting rules. Because of the complexities of the application of fresh-start accounting to the Company’s financial statements, including the presentation of predecessor and successor periods, the Company is unable to complete the preparation of its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures to be included in the Form 10-Q to have them properly certified by its principal executive and principal financial officers in order to timely file the Form 10-Q. Consequently, the Company will not be able to timely file the Form 10-Q, without unreasonable effort or expense. The Company expects to file the Form 10-Q on or before August 20, 2018, consistent with the five-day time period prescribed in Rule 12b-25 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

PART IV - OTHER INFORMATION

(1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification.

Richard S. Denning (404) 949-0700
(Name) (Area Code) (Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If the answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Upon emergence from Chapter 11 on the Effective Date, the Company adopted fresh-start accounting in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification 852 - Reorganizations. As a result of the application of fresh start accounting and the effects of the implementation of the Plan, a new entity for financial reporting purposes was created and, as such, the consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP on and after June 4, 2018 will not be comparable to the consolidated financial statements prior to that date.

As described above, the Company's management team and other finance and accounting personnel have been devoting significant time and attention to the preparation of the financial statements based on fresh start accounting rules.

However, as of the date hereof, and given the complexities of the application of fresh-start accounting to the Company's financial statements, the Company is unable to finalize such financial statements and related disclosures in order to timely file the Form 10-Q. Notwithstanding this, since the Plan did not result in the divestiture of any of the Company's radio stations or network advertising assets, the Company expects that certain operating results, including the Company's revenues, and key operating performance measures will not be materially impacted by the reorganization.

The Company expects that certain other metrics, namely interest expense, reorganization items, net, income tax expense (benefit), depreciation and amortization will differ materially from those amounts recorded in the quarter ended June 30, 2017 primarily as a result of the application of fresh start accounting, although the Company is not yet able to finalize those amounts and related disclosures and to have them properly certified by its principal executive and financial officers.

The foregoing information is based on the Company's preliminary estimates of its results of operations for the period ended June 30, 2018 and anticipated changes from the prior year period. The Company's estimates are subject to change, and actual results may differ significantly from these estimates. As described above, the Company expects to finalize all such amounts and file the Form 10-Q on or before August 20, 2018, consistent with the five-day time period prescribed in Rule 12b-25 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
