Any statement contained in a document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference herein shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of this prospectus to the extent that a statement contained herein or in any other subsequently filed document which also is incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference herein modifies or supersedes such statement. vote on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders. There are no cumulative voting rights. The holders of outstanding shares of common stock are entitled to receive dividends out of assets legally available therefore at such times and in such amounts as the Company's board of directors may from time to time determine. Holders of common stock will share equally on a per share basis in any dividend declared by the board of directors. The Company has not paid any dividends on its common stock and does not anticipate paying any cash dividends on such stock in the foreseeable future. In the event of a merger or consolidation, all holders of common stock will be entitled to receive the same per share consideration.

ITEM 5. INTERESTS OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL

The validity of the securities being registered will be passed upon by Diane D. Dalmy, Esq., General Counsel to the Company, 8965 W. Cornell Place, Lakewood, Colorado 80227.

None of the experts named in the Registration Statement as having prepared or certified a report or counsel for the Company named in the Registration Statement as having given an opinion upon the validity of the securities being registered or upon other legal matters in connection with the registration of offering of such securities have or will receive in connection with the offering a substantial interest, direct or indirect, in the Company or its subsidiary, if any, nor was connected with the Company or its subsidiary, if any, as a promoter, managing underwriter, voting trustee, director, officer or employee.

ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Section 78.7502 of the Nevada Revised Statutes contains provisions for indemnification of the officers and directors of the Company. Nevada law provides for indemnification (which may eliminate any personal liability of a director to the Company or its shareholders for monetary damages for gross negligence or lack of care in carrying out the director's fiduciary duties) if a director or officer acts in good faith in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company. A director or officer may be indemnified as to any matter in which he successfully defends himself.

The officers and directors of the Company are accountable to the shareholders of the Company as fiduciaries, which means such officers and directors are required to exercise good faith and integrity in handling the Company's affairs.

A shareholder may be able to institute legal action on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated shareholders to recover damages where the Company has failed or refused to observe the law. Shareholders may, subject to applicable rules of civil procedure, be able to bring a class action or derivative suit to enforce their rights, including rights under certain federal and state securities laws and regulations. Shareholders who have suffered losses in connection with the purchase or sale of their interest in the Company due to a breach of a fiduciary duty by an officer or director of the Company in connection with such sale or purchase including, but not limited to, the misapplication by any such officer or director of the proceeds from the sale of any securities, may be able to recover such losses from the Company.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense or any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

The Company has no agreements with any of its directors or executive officers providing for indemnification of any such persons with respect to liability arising out of their capacity or status as officers and directors.

At present, there is no pending litigation or proceeding involving a director or executive officers of the Company as to which indemnification is being sought.

ITEM 7. EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION CLAIMED.

In the event certain Stock Options issued under the Stock Option Plan are not registered pursuant to this Registration Statement, the shares of Common Stock to be issued pursuant to an exercise of such Stock Option shall be issued in reliance upon the exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, contained in Section 4(2) thereof, covering transactions not involving any public offering or not involving any "offer" or "sale".

In such event, each optionee, as a condition of exercise, shall represent, warrant and agree in a form of written certificate approved by the Company that (i) all shares of Common Stock are being acquired solely for his own account and not on behalf of any other person or entity; (ii) no shares of Common Stock will be sold or otherwise distributed in violation of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or any other applicable federal or state securities laws; (iii) if he is subject to reporting requirements under Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, he will (a) furnish the Company with a copy of each Form 4 filed by him and (b) timely file all reports required under the federal securities laws; and (iv) he will report all sales of shares of Common Stock to the Company in writing.

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to deliver or cause to be delivered with the prospectus to each employee to whom the prospectus is sent or given a copy of the registrant's annual report to stockholders for its last fiscal year, unless such employee otherwise has received a copy of such report, in which case the registrant shall state in the prospectus that it will promptly furnish, without charge, a copy of such report on written request of the employee.

Edgar Filing: URANIUM ENERGY CORP - Form S-8

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to transmit or cause to be transmitted to all employees participating in the plan who do not otherwise receive such material as stockholders of the registrant, at the time and in the manner such material is sent to its stockholders, copies of all reports, proxy statements and other communications distributed to its stockholders generally.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes (i) to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement, if applicable, to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; (ii) that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; and (iii) to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense or any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
