THE ANNUAL MEETING AND PROXY SOLICITATION

When and Where the Annual Meeting will be Held

This proxy statement is being furnished to our stockholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies by our management, at the direction of our Board of Directors, for use at the annual meeting of Quotesmith.com stockholders to be held on May 18, 2006 at 9:00 a.m., Chicago time, at our offices, located at 8205 S. Cass Avenue, Suite 102, Darien, Illinois 60561, and any adjournments thereof. This proxy statement and the enclosed Notice of Annual Meeting and form of proxy are first being sent to stockholders on or about April 11, 2006.

What will be Voted on

At the annual meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote on:

- a proposal to elect two persons to our Board of Directors to serve until the 2009 Annual Meeting of Stockholders;
- a proposal to ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2006;
- a proposal to change our name to Insure.com, Inc.; and
- any other business as may properly come before the annual meeting or any adjournment thereof.

For the reasons set forth in more detail elsewhere in this proxy statement, our Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the approval of each of the proposals set forth above.

Who may Vote at the Annual Meeting

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on April 3, 2006 as the record date for the annual meeting. Stockholders of record as of the record date are entitled to notice of and to vote at the annual meeting. If you own shares of Quotesmith.com common stock that are registered in someone else's name (for example, a nominee), you need to direct that person to vote those shares or obtain an authorization from them and vote the shares yourself at the meeting. A list of stockholders entitled to vote at the annual meeting will be available for inspection by stockholders for any purpose germane to the annual meeting at our offices for the ten days immediately preceding the annual meeting date. At the close of business on the record date, 7,317,443 shares of common stock were outstanding held by approximately 1,200 stockholders of record. Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of Quotesmith.com common stock held as of the record date on all matters to be considered at the annual meeting.

How to Vote

You may vote in person or by proxy. The proxy card accompanying this proxy statement is solicited on behalf of our Board of Directors for use at the annual meeting. You are urged to complete, sign and date the accompanying form of proxy and return it as soon as possible in the envelope provided for that purpose. Returning a proxy card does not prevent you from attending the annual meeting or from changing your vote. If the enclosed proxy is properly executed and returned in time for voting with a choice specified thereon, and not properly revoked, the shares represented thereby will be voted as indicated on such proxy. Executed but unmarked proxies will be voted by the person(s) named thereon (i) for the election of the nominees named herein as a director (or a substitute therefor if the nominee is unable or refuses to serve), (ii) for the ratification of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for 2006, (iii) for the ratification of the proposal to change our name to Insure.com, Inc., and (iv) in the discretion of such person(s) upon such matters not presently known or determined that properly may come before the annual meeting. If you wish to designate a person or persons to act as your proxy at the annual meeting, other than the proxies designated by the Board of Directors, you may strike out the names appearing on the enclosed form of proxy, insert the name of any other such person or persons, sign the proxy and transmit it directly to such other designated person or persons for use at the annual meeting.

Our Board of Directors knows of no other matters that may be brought before the meeting. However, if any other matters are properly presented for action, it is the intention of the named proxies to vote on them according to their best judgment.

How to Change your Vote

You may revoke a proxy at any time before the meeting is convened by filing with the secretary of Quotesmith.com an instrument of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. You may also revoke a proxy by attending the annual meeting and voting in person, although attendance at the annual meeting will not, in and of itself, constitute a revocation of proxy.

Quorum and Vote Required

Stockholders do not have the right to cumulate their votes in the election of directors. A majority of the shares entitled to vote at and present, in person or by proxy, at the annual meeting will constitute a quorum. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a plurality of such shares will be sufficient to elect a director. The affirmative vote of a majority of such shares will be sufficient to ratify the appointment of the independent registered public accounting firm and to ratify the proposal to change our name to Insure.com, Inc.

Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

Abstentions and broker non-votes will be treated as present at the annual meeting for purposes of reaching a quorum. Abstentions shall have no effect on the election of a director but shall be treated as a vote against the ratification of the independent registered public accounting firm and the ratification of the proposal to change our name to Insure.com, Inc.

Solicitation of Proxies and Expenses of Solicitation

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by Quotesmith.com. In addition to solicitation by mail, our directors, officers and employees may solicit proxies in person or by telephone. Brokers, nominees, fiduciaries and other custodians will be requested to forward soliciting materials to the beneficial owners of shares of Quotesmith.com common stock and will be reimbursed by us for their reasonable expenses in forwarding such materials.

Bland, Shannon and Thoms are designated as Class III directors with their terms of office expiring in 2008.

The Board has nominated Messrs. Gretsche and Rueben for re-election to the Board at the annual meeting, and they have indicated their willingness to serve if elected. In the event that a nominee should become unwilling or unable to serve as a director, all duly executed proxies shall be voted for the election of such other person as may be designated by the Board of Directors. Unless authority to vote for a nominee is withheld, all votes represented by a properly executed proxy will be cast in favor of the nominees.

Board Committees and Meetings

Our Board of Directors met four times during 2005, pursuant to scheduled quarterly Board meetings. In accordance with the NASD marketplace rules, we have determined that Messrs. Gretsch, Shannon, Hopkins and Rueben and Admiral Denton are independent within the meaning of the NASD marketplace rules. In accordance with the NASD marketplace rules, the independent directors meet separately, without the non-independent directors present, following each regularly scheduled quarterly Board meeting. We do not have a policy regarding board members' attendance at the annual meeting. However, each director attended our 2005 annual meeting, other than Messrs. Denton, Hopkins and Rueben.

Our Board of Directors has an executive committee, an audit committee, a nominating committee and a compensation committee. Each member of our Board of Directors satisfies the independence requirements established by the NASD marketplace rules, other than Messrs. Bland and Thoms. The nominating committee will consider for recommendation to the Board nominations made by stockholders that comply with the procedures described below under the caption "2007 Stockholder Proposals."

Our nominating committee consists of Messrs. Gretsch, Shannon and Rueben, each of whom is independent within the meaning of the NASD marketplace rules. The nominating committee is governed by a written charter approved by the Board of Directors. A copy of the charter was attached as Exhibit A to the proxy statement for our 2005 Annual Meeting. Once our nominating committee has identified a possible nominee (whether through a recommendation from a shareholder or otherwise), the members of the nominating committee make an initial determination as to whether to conduct a full evaluation of the candidate. This initial determination is based on the information provided to the nominating committee when the candidate is recommended, the committee's own knowledge of the prospective candidate and information, if any, obtained by the committee's inquiries. The preliminary determination is based primarily on the need for additional Board members to fill vacancies, expand the size of the Board of Directors or obtain representation in market areas without Board representation and the likelihood that the candidate can satisfy the evaluation factors described below. If the nominating committee determines that additional consideration is warranted, it may gather additional information about the candidate's background and experience. The nominating committee then evaluates the prospective nominee against the following standards and qualifications:

- Achievement, experience and independence;
- Wisdom, integrity and judgment;
- Understanding of the business environment; and
- Willingness to devote adequate time to Board duties.

The nominating committee also considers such other relevant factors as they deem appropriate, including the current composition of the Board, the need for audit committee or other expertise and the evaluations of other candidates. In connection with this evaluation, the nominating committee determines whether to interview the candidate. If the nominating committee decides that an interview is warranted, one or more of the members, and others as appropriate, interviews the candidate in person or by telephone. After completing this evaluation and interview, the nominating committee makes a recommendation to the full Board of Directors as to the persons who should be nominated by the Board, and the Board determines the nominees after considering the recommendation and report of the nominating committee. The nominating committee met once in 2005.

Our executive committee consists of Messrs. Bland, Thoms and Rueben. The executive committee is authorized to exercise, between meetings of our Board of Directors, all of the powers and authority of our Board of Directors in the direction and management of Quotesmith.com, except to the extent prohibited by applicable law or our certificate of incorporation, or another committee shall have been given authority over the matter. The executive committee did not meet during 2005.

Our audit committee consists of Messrs. Gretsche, Shannon, Rueben and Hopkins. Information regarding the functions performed by the committee is set forth in this proxy statement under the caption Report of the Audit Committee. The audit committee is governed by a written charter approved by the Board of Directors. A copy of the charter was attached as Annex A-13 to the proxy statement for our 2004 annual meeting. The audit committee has reviewed and reassessed the adequacy of the formal written charter on an annual basis since its adoption. Mr. Hopkins serves as the audit committee's financial expert. The audit committee met four times during 2005. Each member of the audit committee satisfies the independence requirements established by the NASD marketplace rules.

Our compensation committee consists of Messrs. Gretsche, Shannon, Hopkins and Rueben, each of whom is independent within the meaning of the NASD marketplace rules. The compensation committee makes recommendations to the Board of Directors concerning salaries and incentive compensation for our executive officers and administers our employee benefit plans. The compensation committee met twice during 2005.

During 2005, all members of the Board of Directors attended at least 75% of the Board of Directors' meetings and their respective committee meetings.

Director Compensation

Directors who are also employees of Quotesmith.com receive no compensation for serving on our Board of Directors. Non-employee directors receive an annual stipend of $16,000 and $500 per committee meeting attended. In addition, we reimburse non-employee directors for all reasonable travel and other expenses incurred in connection with attending Board and committee meetings. Non-employee directors are also eligible to receive stock option grants under the Quotesmith.com, Inc. 1997 Stock Option Plan. 7,500 options were granted to each non-employee director in 2004. Each option is exercisable for one share of our common stock, at an exercise price of $5.05 per share (the fair market value of a share of our common stock on October 21, 2004, the date of grant, based on the last sale price of our common stock on the previous day on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market), and the options vest at a rate of 2,500 options per year over three years. No options were granted to non-employee directors in 2005.

Stockholder Communications

Historically, Quotesmith.com has not adopted a formal process for stockholder communications with the Board of Directors. Nevertheless, every effort has been made to ensure that the views of stockholders are heard by the Board of Directors or individual directors, as applicable, and that appropriate responses are provided to stockholders in a timely manner. Stockholders are free to contact any director or executive officer directly by writing in care of Quotesmith.com or by sending an email to board@insure.com. Stockholders can contact the audit committee directly by sending an email to audit@insure.com. In the past, stockholders have contacted the executive officers if they have concerns. Two of our largest shareholders are members of the Board of Directors, and one other large shareholder has the right to nominate a director to pursuant to the investor rights agreement described above.

Quotesmith.com believes its responsiveness to stockholder communications to the Board of Directors has been excellent.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Since the date of our initial public offering in August 1999, Richard F. Gretsch, Bruce J. Rueben and Timothy F. Shannon have served on the compensation committee of the Board of Directors. Mr. Hopkins has served on the compensation committee since his election to the Board of Directors in 2004. None of these individuals have been or are employees of Quotesmith.com. In addition, the agreements for Messrs. Bland and Thoms provide for separation benefits if one of these executives is terminated without cause or if the executive terminates his employment for good reason, including a change of control of Quotesmith.com. COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The compensation committee of the Board of Directors determined the compensation of our Chief Executive Officer and our other executives in 2005. To ensure that our executive compensation program is administered in an objective manner, the compensation committee is composed entirely of directors who are neither executive officers nor employees of the Company. In addition to determining the salary and bonus compensation for all of our executive officers, the compensation committee determines the nature, timing and amount of awards and grants under Quotesmith.com's stock option plans and makes recommendations as to the administration of other compensation plans and programs as they relate to executive officers.

This report is intended to describe the philosophy that underlies the cash and equity-based components of our intended executive pay program in 2005. It also describes the details of each element of the program, as well as the rationale for compensation paid to our Chief Executive Officer and executive officers in general in 2005.

Compensation of Executive Officers Generally

The compensation philosophy of the Company is to (i) provide a competitive total compensation package that enables the Company to attract and retain key executive and employee talent needed to accomplish the Company's goals and (ii) directly link compensation to improvements in Company financial and operational performance.

The Company's compensation program for all executive officers emphasizes variable compensation, primarily through performance-based grants of equity-based incentives in the form of stock options. Salaries of all executive officers are generally targeted at median market levels.

The compensation committee will continue to monitor the Company's compensation program in order to maintain the proper balance between cash compensation and equity-based incentives and may consider further revisions in the future.

Components of Compensation

Salary. The compensation committee will review each executive officer's salary annually. Objective and subjective performance goals are set each year for each executive officer, which will vary depending upon the specific position or role of the executive within the Company. The compensation committee's review will take into consideration both the Company's performance with respect to revenue growth and operating margins, together with the duties and performance of each executive. The compensation committee also considers provisions relating to salary set forth in employment agreements with certain of our executive officers.

Bonus. Certain employees of the Company who perform significant management and decision-making functions are eligible to receive a performance bonus. Messrs. Bland and Thoms did not receive a bonus in 2005. Awards to executives may be made by the compensation committee after considering the recommendation of our Chief Executive Officer (except for awards granted to the Chief Executive Officer) and the financial performance of Quotesmith.com as measured by revenue growth and operating margins, or any other factors that the compensation committee deems relevant. Bonuses for fiscal 2005 were awarded based on Quotesmith.com's financial performance, as measured by the factors listed above. The bonus component of the executive compensation package is designed to be less than industry averages.

Stock Options. The compensation committee believes that the granting of stock options is an important method of rewarding and motivating management by aligning management's interests with those of our stockholders on a long-term basis. In addition, the compensation committee recognizes that we conduct our business in an increasingly competitive industry and that, in order for the Company to remain highly competitive and at the same time pursue a high-growth strategy, it must employ the best and most talented executives and managers who possess demonstrated skills and experience. We believe that stock options can play an important role in attracting and retaining such employees. For these reasons, the Company previously adopted the Quotesmith.com, Inc. 1997 Stock Option Plan and the Quotesmith.com, Inc. 2004 Life Quotes Non-qualified Stock Option Plan (which we collectively refer to as the plans) as a stock-based incentive program for our employees, executive officers and directors. The compensation committee believes the plans are an important feature of our executive compensation package. Under the plans, the compensation committee may grant options to executive officers who are expected to contribute materially to Quotesmith.com's future success. In determining the size of stock option grants, the compensation committee will focus primarily on the Company's performance and the perceived role of each executive in accomplishing such performance objectives, as well as the satisfaction of individual performance objectives. The value of the stock options is directly tied to the value of a share of our Common Stock.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Robert Bland currently serves as Chief Executive Officer and President. Mr. Bland was compensated during the 2005 fiscal year using the same general philosophy and criteria used for other executive officers as described above.

Tax Considerations. The compensation committee has determined that it is unlikely that the Company would pay any amounts for 2006 that would result in a loss of the federal income tax deduction under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and, accordingly, has not recommended that any special actions be taken or that any plans or programs be revised at this time.

The foregoing report has been approved by all of the members of the compensation committee.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

THE FOLLOWING REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO BE SOLICITING MATERIAL OR TO BE INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE BY ANY GENERAL STATEMENT INCORPORATING BY REFERENCE THIS PROXY STATEMENT OR ANY PORTION HEREOF INTO ANY FILING UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934, AS AMENDED, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT WE SPECIFICALLY INCORPORATE THIS REPORT THEREIN, AND SHALL NOT OTHERWISE BE DEEMED FILED UNDER SUCH ACTS.

The audit committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the audit committee reviewed the audited financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K with management, including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The audit committee reviewed with the independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the audit committee by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). The audit committee also received written disclosures and the letters from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independent Discussions with Audit Committees), and the audit committee discussed with the independent auditors that firm's independence.

The audit committee discussed with the independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their audit. The audit committee meets with the auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examination, their evaluation of the Company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the audit committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The audit committee and the Board have also recommended, subject to shareholder approval, the selection of the Company's independent auditors.

PROPOSAL 2. RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Subject to ratification by the stockholders, the audit committee and the Board of Directors have selected Ernst & Young LLP to continue as our independent registered public accounting firm to audit the financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2006. Representatives of the firm of Ernst & Young LLP will be present at the annual meeting and will have an opportunity to make a statement if they so desire and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Audit Fees

The aggregate fees for each of the last two fiscal years for professional services rendered by Ernst & Young LLP for the audit of our annual financial statements and review of financial statements included in our Forms 10-Q were $283,000 in 2005 and $211,360 in 2004.

Audit-Related Fees

The aggregate fees billed in each of the last two fiscal years for assurance and related services by Ernst & Young LLP that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of our financial statements and are not reported above under the caption Audit Fees were $0 in 2005 and $108,967 in 2004. The audit-related fees for 2004 involved consulting regarding acquisition related issues and a pre-acquisition audit of Life Quotes for 2002 and 2003.

Tax Fees

For the last two fiscal years, there were no fees billed for professional services rendered by Ernst & Young LLP for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning.

All Other Fees

The aggregate fees billed in each of the last two fiscal years for products and services provided by Ernst & Young LLP, other than the services reported above, were $1,500 in 2005 and $1,500 in 2004. The fees were for use of Ernst & Young Online Service.

Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

The audit committee has adopted a policy that requires advance approval of all audit, audit-related, tax services, and other services performed by the independent registered public accounting firm. The policy provides for pre-approval by the audit committee of specifically defined audit and non-audit services. Unless the specific service has been pre-approved with respect to that year, the audit committee must approve the permitted service before the independent registered public accounting firm is engaged to perform it. The audit committee has delegated to the chair of the audit committee the authority to approve permitted services provided that the chair reports any decisions to the audit committee at its next scheduled meeting. All of the fees described above for 2005 and 2004 were pre-approved by the audit committee using these procedures.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the annual meeting will be required to ratify the selection of Ernst & Young LLP, as our independent registered public accounting firm for 2006. In the event stockholders fail to ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP, the Board of Directors will reconsider its selection. Even if the selection is ratified, the Board of Directors, in its discretion, may direct the appointment of a different independent registered public accounting firm at any time if the Board of Directors determines that such a change would be in our best interests.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP AS THE COMPANY'S INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM FOR 2006.

PROPOSAL 3. AMENDMENT OF THE RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO CHANGE OUR NAME TO INSURE.COM, INC.

Subject to ratification by the stockholders, the Board of Directors has approved an amendment to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation to change our name to Insure.com, Inc.

In December 2001, we acquired certain assets of Insurance News Network, LLC, including the domain name Insure.com. Subsequently, we began using Insure.com as our primary insurance transaction website, redirecting all visitors from the Quotesmith.com website to Insure.com. At the same time, we began to advertise under the Insure.com name and discontinued advertising that used the Quotesmith.com name. At present, Insure.com is our brand name, and consumers have not seen advertising under the Quotesmith.com name in over three years.

We feel that, since our recognized brand name is Insure.com, the corporate name should also be Insure.com, Inc. in order to enhance consumer and investor recognition.

If this proposal is approved, Article First of the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation will be amended to read as follows: The name of the corporation is Insure.com, Inc. Current Company stock certificates will remain valid and no exchange of certificates will be required, unless and until the securities are sold or transferred. Under Delaware law, the amendment to the Restated Certificate of Incorporation would become effective upon stockholder approval and the filing of the amendment with the Secretary of State of Delaware. The amendment to the Restated Certificate of Incorporation will be filed as soon as reasonably practicable after approval of this proposal by the stockholders. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the annual meeting will be required to ratify the proposal to amend the Restated Certificate of Incorporation to change our name to Insure.com, Inc.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF THE AMENDMENT OF THE RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO CHANGE THE NAME OF THE COMPANY TO INSURE.COM, INC.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors is not aware of any matters to be presented at the annual meeting other than those listed in the notice of the meeting. If any other matters do come before the annual meeting, it is intended that the holders of proxies solicited by the Board of Directors will vote on such other matters in their discretion in accordance with their best judgment.

If the date of the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 30 days from the anniversary of the 2006 annual meeting, the deadline for you to submit any such proposal or nomination is a reasonable time before we begin to print and mail our proxy materials for the 2007 annual meeting of stockholders. Your submission must include certain specified information concerning the proposal or nominee, as the case may be, and information as to your ownership of our common stock.
