ITEM 3.01 NOTICE OF DELISTING OR FAILURE TO SATISFY A CONTINUED LISTING RULE OR STANDARD; TRANSFER OF LISTING.

On November 17, 2008, Storm Cat Energy Corporation (the Company) received a notice from the NYSE Alternext US LLC (the NYSE Alternext US) that, pursuant to Section 1009 of the NYSE Alternext US Company Guide (the Company Guide), the NYSE Alternext US intends to file a delisting application with the Securities and Exchange Commission to strike the Company's common shares from listing and registration on the NYSE Alternext US in accordance with Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules promulgated thereunder.

The notice indicated that the Company was not in compliance with the following provisions of the Company Guide: (1) Section 1003 (a)(iv) of the Company Guide as a result of the subsidiaries of the Company filing voluntary petitions for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code on November 10, 2008 (the Chapter 11 Filing); (2) Section 1003(a)(i) of the Company Guide given stockholders' equity of less than $2,000,000 and losses from continuing operations and/or net losses in two out of three of its three most recent fiscal years; (3) Section 1003(a)(ii) of the Company Guide given stockholders' equity of less than $4,000,000 and losses from continuing operations and/or net losses in three out of its four most recent fiscal years; (4) Section 1003(a)(iii) of the Company Guide given stockholders' equity of less than $6,000,000 and/or losses from continuing operations and net losses in its five most recent fiscal years; and (5) Section 1003(c)(3) of the Company Guide whenever advice has been received, deemed by the NYSE Alternext US to be authoritative, that the security is without value.

Furthermore, the NYSE Alternext US recommended that the Company, pursuant to Section 1003(f)(v) of the Company Guide, execute a reverse stock split because its common stock has been selling for a substantial period of time at a low price per share (i.e., the Company's common shares had traded between $0.05 and $0.28 per share during the last 30 trading days). Hence, the NYSE Alternext US noted that the common share price is an additional deficiency and the Company's continued listing should be predicated on it effecting a reverse share split of its common shares in a reasonable period of time.

Pursuant to Sections 1203 and 1009(d) of the Company Guide, the Company has a limited right to appeal the NYSE Alternext US's decision until November 24, 2008. Presently, the Company has determined that it will not take any specific actions or responses to the NYSE Alternext US delisting notice.

ITEM 8.01 OTHER ITEMS.

On November 18, 2008, the Company received a notice from the Toronto Stock Exchange (the TSX) stating that the TSX had decided to suspend trading of the Company's common shares immediately and to delist the Company's common shares as of the close of business on December 18, 2008. The delisting was imposed because of the Company's failure to meet the continued listing requirements of the TSX as detailed in Part VII of the TSX Company Manual. Specifically, the Company violated the following sections of the TSX Company Manual: Sections 708, which addresses insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings; Sections 709 and 710(a)(i), which relate to financial condition and/or operating results; and Section 711, which concerns situations where the public distribution, price, or trading activity of a company's securities has been so reduced as to not warrant continued listing.

An appeal of the TSX's decision must occur before December 18, 2008, which requires that the Company advise the TSX within five business days of its intent to appeal the decision, and submit written arguments within 10 days of the TSX's notice. Presently, the Company has determined that it will not take any specific actions or responses to the TSX delisting notice.
