Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 2, 2009, Protective Life Corporation (the Company) entered into a First Amendment (the Amendment) to the Second Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement) among the Company, Protective Life Insurance Company (PLICO and, together with the Company, the Borrowers), the lenders party thereto and Regions Bank, as Administrative Agent. The Amendment excludes from the Credit Agreement s definition of Indebtedness the sale and issuance by the Company of up to $800 million of senior notes during the fourth quarter of 2009, the proceeds of which will be used to purchase surplus notes or other obligations of the Company s subsidiaries (Capital Market Notes) in connection with the funding of statutory reserves and any subsequent reserve financing transaction for which the Borrowers will receive approval from the Required Lenders (as defined in the Credit Agreement) to exclude from the definition of Indebtedness. The Amendment removes the exclusion from the definition of Indebtedness for obligations issued in connection with the funding of statutory reserves that the Rating Agencies (as defined in the Credit Agreement) recognize as operating rather than financial leverage in their calculation of the Borrowers financial ratios. The Amendment also provides that interest and principal on Capital Market Notes purchased with the proceeds of the Company s senior notes which have been excluded from the definition of Indebtedness shall be excluded from the definition of Unconsolidated Cash Inflow Available for Interest Expense.

The foregoing description of the Amendment is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amendment which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
