Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

In connection with the Company s normal monitoring of its assets, the Company has determined to reclassify approximately $1.0 billion of securities currently held in its Available for Sale (AFS) portfolio, to its Held to Maturity (HTM) portfolio. This reclassification is expected to occur on November 1, 2011, and will change the allocation from 64% AFS and 36% HTM, to approximately 50% AFS and 50% HTM. The types of securities subject to reclassification are Government National Mortgage Association (GNMA) securities. The impact of this reclassification, if any, on the Company s financial condition and results of operations will depend on interest rate environments and other factors which are not estimable at this time.
