Effective October 12, 2012, Joshua H. Levine, age 54, was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Mr. Levine was also appointed as a director of the Company by the Company's Board of Directors effective October 12, 2012 to fill the vacancy created by Dr. Thomson's resignation. From November 2011 to the time he joined the Company in October 2012, Mr. Levine attended to personal matters. Mr. Levine served from June 2011 to October 2011 as the President and Chief Executive Officer and as a member of the Board of Directors of Immucor Corporation, a diagnostics manufacturer of automated instrumentation and reagents used in transfusion medical procedures. From August 2010 through May 2011, Mr. Levine attended to personal matters. Prior thereto, Mr. Levine served in several executive capacities during his 14-year tenure with Mentor Corporation, a medical device/surgical implant manufacturer that was acquired by Johnson & Johnson in early 2009. At Mentor Corporation, Mr. Levine served as Worldwide President from January 2009 to July 2010 and as President and Chief Executive Officer and a member of the Board of Directors from June 2004 to January 2009. Mr. Levine holds a B.A. from the University of Arizona. Mr. Levine's qualifications to serve on our Board of Directors include, among other skills and qualifications, his strategic business development skills, commercial leadership experience, and executive vision. In addition, Mr. Levine brings expertise in the healthcare industry from years of experience as a chief executive officer with other medical device manufacturing companies.

Effective October 12, 2012, the Company entered into an Employment Agreement (the Employment Agreement) with Mr. Levine in connection with Mr. Levine's appointment as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The Employment Agreement provides for an annual base salary of $625,000 as well as for reimbursement of reasonable business expenses and temporary housing expenses for up to 90 days, and for other customary benefits. Mr. Levine is also eligible for an annual performance bonus pursuant to the Company's Performance Bonus Plan, with the target amount of such bonus set at 120% of Mr. Levine's annual base salary. The Employment Agreement provides for the Company to grant to Mr. Levine a stock option to purchase 200,000 shares of the Company's common stock at a per share exercise price equal to the fair market value of a share of the Company's stock on the grant date. Such options shall vest at a rate of 25% on the first anniversary of the grant date and thereafter at a rate of 1/48th of the options monthly until the options are fully vested on the fourth anniversary of the grant date. The Employment Agreement also provides for the grant to Mr. Levine of (i) 200,000 RSUs which are to vest in four equal annual installments and (ii) a total of 300,000 Company stock performance-based market stock units, of which 100,000 market stock units are to be granted in November 2012 and 200,000 market stock units are to be granted in February 2013. The Employment Agreement contains non-disclosure and non-solicitation provisions.

Mr. Levine is entitled under the Employment Agreement to severance benefits in the event of termination of his employment by the Company without cause, including a lump sum payment equal to the amount of base salary he would be due in the 12 months following a termination without cause, a prorated portion of his target bonus for the fiscal year in which his employment terminates, reimbursement of insurance premiums, payment for outplacement services and other customary benefits. In the event of Mr. Levine's termination of employment because of death or incapacity, the Employment Agreement provides for the acceleration of the vesting for stock options and RSUs previously granted to Mr. Levine that would have vested within 12 months of such termination. In the event of a change in control of the Company (as defined in the Employment Agreement) in which the successor company fails to offer Mr. Levine the position of President and Chief Executive Officer or fails to assume the Company's obligation under the Employment Agreement, Mr. Levine shall be entitled to enhanced severance benefits, including two times the severance payment otherwise provided for in the Employment Agreement, 200% of the target bonus for the fiscal year in which the change in control occurs, and the acceleration of all outstanding unvested stock options, as well as other customary benefits.

In connection with Mr. Levine's appointment, the Company and Mr. Levine entered into the Company's standard form of indemnification agreement for its directors and executive officers in the form previously filed as Exhibit 10.7 to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-Q, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on May 10, 2011, the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference.
