DUPONT STATEMENT REGARDING TRIAN FILING

We look forward to continuing our discussion with shareholders centered on the facts – our strong record of superior returns in contrast with Trian’s high risk plan to further break up DuPont. With strong governance and the right strategic plan in place, we are creating a higher growth, higher value DuPont. Over the last one-, three-, and five-year periods, DuPont has delivered total shareholder return of 17%, 78%, and 160% respectively, all in excess of its proxy peers and the S&P 500. Additionally, under the current leadership team, which has been in place since year end 2008, DuPont has delivered a cumulative capital return of $13 billion to shareholders and 266% total shareholder return, relative to the S&P 500 of 159% and proxy peers of 133%.

We remain laser focused on executing our plan, which has already delivered and continues to drive superior value to shareholders.

Forward-Looking Statements: This document contains forward-looking statements which may be identified by their use of words like plans, expects, will, believes, intends, estimates, anticipates or other words of similar meaning. Forward-looking statements that address expectations or projections about the future, including statements about the company’s strategy for growth, product development, regulatory approval, market position, anticipated benefits of recent acquisitions, timing of anticipated benefits from restructuring actions, outcome of contingencies, such as litigation and environmental matters, expenditures and financial results, are forward looking statements. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are based on certain assumptions and expectations of future events which may not be realized. Forward-looking statements also involve risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond the company’s control. Some of the important factors that could cause the company’s actual results to differ materially from those projected in any such forward-looking statements are: fluctuations in energy and raw material prices; failure to develop and market new products and optimally manage product life cycles; significant litigation and environmental matters; failure to appropriately manage process safety and product stewardship issues; changes in laws and regulations or political conditions; global economic and capital markets conditions, such as inflation, interest and currency exchange rates; business or supply disruptions; security threats, such as acts of sabotage, terrorism or war, weather events and natural disasters; ability to protect and enforce the company’s intellectual property rights; successful integration of acquired businesses and separation of underperforming or non-strategic assets or businesses and successful completion of the proposed spinoff of the Performance Chemicals segment including ability to fully realize the expected benefits of the proposed spinoff. The company undertakes no duty to update any forward-looking statements as a result of future developments or new information.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION AND WHERE TO FIND IT

DuPont intends to file a proxy statement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) with respect to the 2015 Annual Meeting.
