Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously announced, Penn National Gaming, Inc. (Penn) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of December 17, 2017 (the Merger Agreement), with Pinnacle Entertainment, Inc. (Pinnacle) and Franchise Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Penn (Merger Sub), providing for the merger of Merger Sub with and into Pinnacle (the Merger), with Pinnacle surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Penn.

This Form 8-K contains certain supplemental disclosures regarding the Merger.

Pending Pinnacle Stockholder Litigation.

As previously disclosed on page 133 of the definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus related to the Merger dated February 28, 2018 (the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus) under the heading Litigation Relating to the Merger, on February 21, 2018, a purported stockholder of Pinnacle filed a putative class action lawsuit against Pinnacle and its directors (together, the Defendants) in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada, captioned George Smith v. Pinnacle Entertainment, Inc., et al., Case No. 2:18-cv-00314 (D. Nev.). The complaint alleges that the Defendants violated Sections 14(a) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act) because the preliminary Form S-4 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) allegedly contains material omissions and misstatements. The complaint seeks, among other things, injunctive relief preventing the consummation of the Merger until additional disclosures are made, and damages. The Defendants believe that the action is without merit.

In addition, after the filing of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, on March 2, 2018, a purported stockholder of Pinnacle filed a putative class action lawsuit against the Defendants in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada, captioned Robert Ohigashi v. Pinnacle Entertainment, Inc., et al., Case 2:18-cv-00387 (D. Nev.). On March 7, 2018, a purported stockholder of Pinnacle filed a putative class actions lawsuit against the Defendants in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada, captioned Adam Franchi v. Pinnacle Entertainment, Inc., et al., Case No. 2:18-cv-00415. Similar to the first complaint described above, the complaints filed on March 2, 2018 and March 7, 2018 allege that the Defendants violated Sections 14(a) and 20(a) of the Exchange Act because the preliminary Form S-4 filed with the Commission allegedly contains material omissions and misstatements. The complaints seek, among other things, injunctive relief preventing the consummation of the Merger until additional disclosures are made, and damages. The Defendants believe that these actions are also without merit. The Defendants believe that no further disclosure is required under applicable laws; however, to avoid the risk of the litigation delaying or adversely affecting the Merger and to minimize the expense of defending the litigation related to the Merger, the Defendants have agreed to make the supplemental disclosures related to the Merger as set forth herein. As a result of the supplemental disclosures set forth herein, the named plaintiffs in each of the pending lawsuits (George Smith v. Pinnacle Entertainment, Inc., et al., Robert Ohigashi v. Pinnacle Entertainment, Inc., et al. and Adam Franchi v. Pinnacle Entertainment, Inc., et al.) have concluded that the claims in each of the lawsuits have been mooted, have determined not to seek to enjoin the special meeting of Company stockholders to vote on the Merger, and will dismiss each lawsuit with prejudice. Nothing in this

END OF SUPPLEMENT TO JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

Pending Penn Shareholder Litigation.

On March 6, 2018, Penn received a letter dated March 5, 2018 on behalf of purported Penn shareholder Robert Garfield (Garfield) demanding that Penn file suit against the members of the board of directors of Penn (the Penn board). The letter alleged, among other things, that the board members breached fiduciary duties in connection with the entry into the Merger Agreement, and through causing Penn to make allegedly materially inadequate disclosures and material omissions in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus. On March 9, 2018, Garfield filed a putative derivative and purported class action lawsuit captioned Garfield v. Carlino, No. 18-2652, in the Court of Common Pleas of Berks County, Pennsylvania against members of the Penn board, with Penn as a nominal defendant, alleging several claims under Pennsylvania law based on substantially the same allegations raised in his letter. On March 13, 2018, the Penn board appointed an independent special litigation committee to review, investigate, and evaluate the claims on behalf of Penn. On March 16, 2018, Garfield filed a motion for a preliminary injunction and expedited discovery. The defendants believe that the action is without merit. A copy of the complaint is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

Important Additional Information

In connection with the proposed transaction, on February 8, 2018, Penn filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") a registration statement on Form S-4 that contains a joint proxy statement of Penn and Pinnacle and also constitutes a prospectus of Penn (the "joint proxy statement/prospectus").
