Publicly-Traded Company

PRESS RELEASE

Signing of the definitive Stock Purchase Agreement to acquire controlling interest in Perez Companc S.A.

(Rio de Janeiro, October 17, 2002) - PETRÓLEO BRASILEIRO S.A. - PETROBRAS, [BOVESPA: PETR3/PETR4, NYSE: PBR/PBRA, LATIBEX: XPBR/XPBRA], Brazil's biggest oil and gas, petrochemicals and energy company announces today that it has signed the Stock Purchase Agreement (SPA) related to its previously announced acquisition of 58.62% of the outstanding capital stock of Perez Companc S.A. (BASE: PC, NYSE: PC), the largest independently owned oil company in Latin America, from the Perez Companc Family and the Fundacion Perez Companc.

Petrobras CEO Francisco Gros said: I believe that the acquisition of a Company such as Perez Companc, with high quality assets, excellent management standards and a fine industrial image is entirely in line with Petrobras strategic objectives of consolidating the internationalization of the Corporation and its risk diversification processes. The acquisition will establish a material footprint in the exploration and production activity in Latin America. We expect that the acquisition will provide synergies with our downstream facilities, distribution network, petrochemical and gas businesses in the southern cone, as well as supply of by-products in Brazil .

As mentioned in our press release dated July 22, 2002, the closing of the transaction was subject to the execution of a definitive Share Sale and Purchase Agreement and to (i) the closing of the exchange offer of Perez Companac s subsidiary, Pecom Energía S.A., in respect to its outstanding Notes, as well as the refinancing of Pecom Energía S.A. bank loans, in both cases leading to an acceptable debt profile for Perez Companac, (ii) additional due diligence, (iii) final Petrobras' Board of Directors approval, and (iv) certain required regulatory approvals.

The Perez Companac debt restructuring was completed on October 4, 2002 and the results are acceptable and consistent with Petrobras preliminary expectations. The total refinancing program involved an amount of approximately US$ 2 billion. 92% of the outstanding bond holders accepted the bond exchange offer and 100% of the banks that were part of the proposed bank debt restructuring accepted the refinancing arrangements. As a result of the restructuring, the average life of Perez Companac s total debt increased from approximately 3.1 years to 4.4 years.

The due diligence process confirmed Petrobras view of Perez Companac s overall outstanding assets and strategic market position. As a consequence of the process, some adjustments have been performed in the valuation of individual business segments that are reflected in the final transaction terms.

Petrobras Board of Directors approved the final terms on October 16, 2002. In accordance with the provision of Argentine law, appropriate filings will now be made with the Argentine antitrust authority (CNDC).

The consideration to be paid, after the conclusion of final negotiations and due diligence, will consist of US$ 689,184,000 in cash and US$ 338,416,000 in Notes issued by Petrobras International Finance Company, a wholly owned subsidiary of Petrobras, with a 4.75% annual coupon and final maturity on October 4th, 2007. Petrobras also acquired 39,67% of the outstanding capital stock of Petrolera Perez Companac S.A. (PPC) for US$ 49,752,177 in cash. The Perez Companac Family owned the PPC Shares directly and indirectly. The percentage of PPC purchased is lower and the price for the shares acquired in PPC was also adjusted below that announced in our press release dated July 22, 2002 because of rights of first refusal exercised by a third party.

Petrobras will receive 627,845,399 class B shares of Perez Companac S.A. (resulting from the conversion of the same number of class A shares) owned by members of the Perez Companac family, and 621,871,347 class B shares owned by the Fundación Perez Companac, as well as 198,355 ordinary shares of Petrolera Perez Companac S.A.
