Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

In connection with action taken by the Board of Directors of Principal Financial Group, Inc. (the “Company”), more fully described in the attached exhibit to this report, the Company announced the promotion of Daniel J. Houston to the position of president and chief operating officer of the Company, and his election to the Board of Directors of the Company, all effective November 25, 2014. The text of the announcement is included herewith as Exhibit 99.

Effective November 29, 2014, Mr. Houston’s annual salary will be $675,000, subject to periodic adjustment in accordance with the Company’s regular salary review policy. In addition, Mr. Houston will continue to participate in the Company’s annual and long-term incentive compensation plans, qualified and non-qualified savings and retirement plans and other benefits as described in the Company’s current proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 7, 2014. Effective January 1, 2015, Mr. Houston’s annual incentive compensation target will be 200% of base salary, and his long-term incentive compensation target will be 425% of base salary.

The terms and conditions of Mr. Houston’s continued employment and the severance and other termination benefits payable to him in the event of a termination of employment following a “change of control,” as that term is defined in the Company’s current proxy statement, are governed by the severance and change of control agreements described in the Company’s current proxy statement.
