Dale V. Kesler
Chairman of the Board of Directors
CLST Holdings, Inc.

Edgar Filing: DURHAM TIMOTHY S - Form SC 13D/A

601 S. Royal Lane
Coppell, Texas 75019

Dear Mr. Kesler:

As you know, we represent Timothy S. Durham, a substantial stockholder of CLST Holdings, Inc. We are in receipt of your letter dated May 17, 2007 addressed to our client and others, which was delivered to us by electronic mail this morning (the "May 17 Letter").

Our client is disappointed that the Board has placed conditions on stockholder participation in the director nominating process that are not present in the corporation's Bylaws, Certificate of Incorporation or applicable law. Effectively, the Board has precluded meaningful participation by stockholders in the nominating process unless those stockholders can prove to the Board's satisfaction that, among other things, election results in their favor are a forgone conclusion. Our client believes that this is unfortunate and a breach of the fiduciary duties of participating members of the Board of Directors.

Our client also notes the fourth numbered paragraph of your letter referring to the views of Grant Thornton, the Company's auditors. Specifically, that paragraph states as follows:

"4. Grant Thornton, the Company's auditors, have indicated some concern and uncertainty about continuing as the Company's auditors if a new Board is elected. The nominees should explain how they would address this issue, which could conceivably cause a delay in SEC filings."

So that our client may understand and possibly address the concerns of Grant Thornton, please provide us immediately with copies of all written communications, and written summaries of all oral communications, between Grant Thornton and members of the Company's Board of Directors or management in which Grant Thornton indicates "some concern and uncertainty about continuing as the Company's auditors if a new Board is elected." Please also immediately provide us with all written communications, and written summaries of all oral communications, indicating the persons who Grant Thornton prefers be members of the Board of Directors of the Company, together with an explanation of why Grant Thornton believes those persons are suited to be members of the Board of Directors. Finally, please immediately provide us with copies of all written communications and written summaries of all oral communications between the Company or its representatives, including members of the Board of Directors and officers and employees of the Company, and Grant Thornton relating to the make up of the Board of Directors or which seek to influence Grant Thornton's opinion of our client or other prospective nominees for the Board of Directors.

In order that our client may understand and address the Board's new requirements for stockholder participation in the process of nominating candidates for election to the Board of Directors, please immediately provide us with minutes of the meetings at which the procedures outlined in the May 17 Letter were adopted, together with copies of all management recommendations, briefing books and other materials received or considered by the Board of Directors in connection therewith.

The foregoing information is necessary to permit our client to participate in the nomination and election of directors under applicable law and under the requirements established by the Board in the May 17 Letter. Please respond immediately to this letter regarding whether the Company will immediately cooperate with the foregoing demands. Absent that immediate cooperation, our client intends to make a demand under Section 220 of the Delaware General Corporation Law for the same materials.

Finally, we encourage you to carefully consider the Report on Form 8-K filed by the Company today, attaching a copy of the May 17 Letter. We are concerned that the May 17 Letter, by itself, is incomplete, and thus materially misleading as to the Board's discussions with stockholders to date and the other matters addressed therein. In particular, we are concerned that the matters addressed by numbered paragraphs 2 and 3, varying as they do from applicable law and the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws require additional explanation as to the purpose of the Board's determination that participation by stockholders in the nomination process be subject to unusual disabilities. As discussed above, we believe that numbered paragraph 4 may indicate the existence of serious issues relating to the Company's relationship with its auditors and should be addressed fully. Numbered paragraph 5, expressing the view of an employee and agent of the Company, is completely unsupported by discussion in your letter, but addresses, along with numbered paragraph 4, matters of potentially grave concern and should be more fully addressed. In giving consideration to these matters, we invite your attention to items 3.01, 3.03, 4.01, 5.02, 5.03 and 8.01 of Form 8-K.

Very truly yours

Jeffrey M. Sone

Gentlemen:

Members of the Board of Directors and management of CLST Holdings, Inc. (formerly known as CellStar Corporation) have met and/or spoken with each of you in an attempt to respond to those of you who communicated with us and to determine your views on how the Company should proceed with the liquidation process and the composition of the Board of Directors. You have been advised that the Company intends to hold an annual stockholders meeting to elect the entire Board of Directors.

As described in the Company's proxy statement for the special stockholders meeting held March 28, 2007, the Company's directors intend to make distributions, including the $1.00 dividend, to stockholders as promptly as possible. However, the amount and timing of the distributions are subject to uncertainties and depend on the resolution of contingencies, including the SEC investigation.

The Board does not intend to make any distribution until the SEC investigation is resolved for two reasons. First, members of the Board could be jointly and severally liable if the Company were to make distributions to stockholders and subsequently there were insufficient assets to pay all remaining creditors. Since we have no way of knowing what, if any, fine or penalty the SEC may assess against the Company, we do not know how much cash to retain to satisfy any such potential liability.

The second reason that the Board intends to wait until the SEC investigation is resolved before making distributions is the possibility that stockholders might be liable under fraudulent transfer laws to return the amount of distributions received if, after making the distributions, the Company were to have insufficient assets to pay its remaining creditors.

For these and the other reasons set forth in the proxy statement, the Board intends to liquidate the Company in the manner described in the proxy statement. We intend to focus on costs and talent in our recommendations for directors and management to carry out the plan of dissolution approved at the special stockholder meeting.

Edgar Filing: DURHAM TIMOTHY S - Form SC 13D/A

Our discussions with each of you indicate to us a lack of consensus among you as to how the Board and the Company should proceed. All of you would like to receive distributions without waiting for the resolution of the SEC investigation. However, there was no unanimity on the following issues: whether there should be a new Board of Directors committed to making distributions without waiting for resolution of the SEC investigation, whether there should be a new Board to otherwise manage the liquidation of the Company, the number of directors that should constitute a new Board and who they should be, and your willingness to participate in a proxy contest to elect a new Board.

The Board would have no objection to considering the election of a new slate of directors who we can be assured would represent the interests of all stockholders. Consequently, the Board proposes the following:

1. You and other stockholders you may choose to contact, submit to the Board a slate of nominees for director that you would like the Board to consider nominating in the Company's proxy statement for the annual meeting.
2. The Board would like the slate to have the written support of holders of a majority of outstanding shares of the Company's common stock. The Board will consider a slate having the support of a lesser amount of common stock if the Board can be satisfied that the number of shares supporting the slate would, if voted at the annual meeting, be sufficient to ensure the election of the slate against any other slate of nominees.
3. The slate would be accompanied by a description of the qualifications of each nominee, his or her affiliations with any stockholders, his or her plans for conducting the liquidation of the Company, including a commitment to the payment of all of the net proceeds to stockholders, and other information required by Article 9(c) of the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation or the SEC's proxy rules.
4. Grant Thornton, the Company's auditors, have indicated some concern and uncertainty about continuing as the Company's auditors if a new Board is elected. The nominees should explain how they would address this issue, which could conceivably cause a delay in SEC filings.
5. Sherri Gunn, the Company's CEO and CFO, has expressed similar concerns. The nominees should discuss how they would address this issue.

If a slate is submitted under these circumstances, the Board will give serious consideration to proposing those persons as the only nominees for election in the Company's proxy statement for the annual meeting.

The Company can provide to you at your request a list of record holders of the Company's common stock prepared for the special meeting held March 28, 2007.

If you do not desire to submit a slate as described above, the Nominating Committee of the Board will recommend its proposed slate of directors to the Board, and the Board will submit to stockholders its nominated slate of directors for election.

For purposes of keeping all stockholders apprised of these developments, the Company will file this letter on a Form 8-K.

We look forward to hearing from you by June 1. Although the Company announced its intention to hold the annual stockholders meeting on or before June 29, we do not believe it will be feasible to do so. However, we anticipate that the meeting will be held during July.

Very truly yours,
