Note 1. Nature of Operations

Overview

interclick, inc. (the “Company” or “interclick”) is a technology company providing solutions for data-driven advertising. Combining scalable media execution capabilities with analytical expertise, interclick delivers exceptional results for marketers. The Company’s proprietary Open Segment Manager (“OSM”) platform organizes and values billions of data points daily to construct the most responsive digital audiences for major digital marketers. The Company generates revenue by serving as a principal in transacting online display advertising between agency clients and third party website publishers. Substantially all of the Company’s revenues are generated in the United States.

On August 31, 2007, the Company closed an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Desktop Merger”), wherein the Company acquired Desktop Interactive, Inc. (“Desktop Interactive”), a privately-held Delaware corporation engaged in the Internet advertising business. Desktop Interactive merged with and into Desktop Acquisition Sub, Inc. (“Desktop”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company formed in Delaware on August 24, 2007. Desktop was the surviving corporation of the Desktop Merger.

The Company is particularly sensitive to industry seasonality given that the majority of its revenues are tied to CPM (cost-per-thousand) campaigns, which are strongest in the fourth quarter and weakest in the first quarter. While not necessarily indicative of future seasonality, the Company’s revenue mix in 2010 was as follows: 14.0% in the first quarter, 21.4% in the second quarter, 26.1% in the third quarter, and 38.5% in the fourth quarter.

Basis of Presentation

The interim condensed consolidated financial statements included herein have been prepared by the Company, without audit, pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). In the opinion of the Company’s management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments and reclassifications and non-recurring adjustments) necessary to present fairly our results of operations and cash flows for the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010, our statement of changes in stockholders’ equity for the three months ended March 31, 2011 and our financial position as of March 31, 2011, have been made. The results of operations for such interim period are not necessarily indicative of the operating results to be expected for the full year.

Certain information and disclosures normally included in the notes to the annual consolidated financial statements have been condensed or omitted from these interim consolidated financial statements. Accordingly, these interim condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010, as filed with the SEC on March 22, 2011. The December 31, 2010 consolidated balance sheet is derived from those statements.

The Company has evaluated subsequent events for potential recognition and/or disclosure through the date of issuance of these financial statements.

Note 2. Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. On an ongoing basis, we evaluate our estimates, including those related to the accounts receivable and allowance for doubtful accounts, fair values of financial instruments, intangible assets and goodwill, useful lives of intangible assets and property and equipment, fair values of stock-based awards, income taxes, and contingent liabilities, among others.

Principles of Consolidation

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of interclick, inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiary. All significant inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Accounts Receivable and Allowance for Doubtful Accounts Receivable

Trade accounts receivables are non-interest bearing and are stated at gross invoice amounts less an allowance for doubtful accounts receivable.

Credit is extended to customers based on an evaluation of their financial condition and other factors. The Company generally does not require collateral or other security to support accounts receivable. The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers and maintains an allowance for potential bad debts.

The Company estimates its allowance for doubtful accounts by evaluating specific accounts where information indicates the customers may have an inability to meet financial obligations, such as bankruptcy proceedings and receivable amounts outstanding for an extended period beyond contractual terms. In these cases, the Company uses assumptions and judgment, based on the best available facts and circumstances, to either record a specific allowance against these customer balances or to write the balances off. In addition, the Company calculates an overall reserve based on a percentage of the overall gross accounts receivable. This percentage is based on management's assessment of the aging of accounts receivable, historical write-offs of receivables and the associated risk profile of the Company's customer base.

The Company's customer agreements are primarily entered into with agencies which manage campaigns on behalf of brand advertisers. Such agreements are governed by standard terms and conditions for Internet Advertising as prescribed by the Interactive Advertising Bureau. Under these agreements, the Company holds the agency liable for payments to the extent proceeds have cleared from the advertiser to the agency for campaigns placed in accordance with the agreement. For sums not cleared to the agency, the Company may hold the advertiser solely liable. Write-offs of accounts receivable are taken in the period when the Company has exhausted its efforts to collect overdue and unpaid receivables or otherwise has evaluated other circumstances that indicate that the Company should abandon such efforts.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization are provided for on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets per the following table. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the lesser of the estimated useful life or the term of the underlying lease. Expenditures for additions and improvements are capitalized while repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred.

The following table reflects the estimated useful lives of the various categories of property and equipment:

Category

	Depreciation Term
Computer equipment	3-5 years
Software	3 years
Furniture and fixtures	3-5 years
Office equipment	3-5 years
Leasehold improvements	5 years

Intangible Assets

The Company records the purchase of intangible assets not acquired in a business combination in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic 350 “Intangibles - Goodwill and Other” and records intangible assets acquired in a business combination in accordance with ASC Topic 805 “Business Combinations”.

Customer relationships were fully amortized as of December 31, 2009 and were amortized based upon the estimated percentage of annual or period projected cash flows generated by such relationships, to the total cash flows generated over the estimated three-year life of the customer relationships. Developed technology is being amortized on a straight-line basis over five years. The domain name was amortized over its remaining useful life of six months at its acquisition date.

Expenditures for software developed for internal use are capitalized and amortized over a three-year period on a straight-line basis. For software developed for internal use, the Company capitalizes costs in accordance with the provisions of ASC 350-40 “Internal Use Software.” The Company’s policy provides for the capitalization of external direct costs of materials and services associated with developing or obtaining internal-use software. In addition, the Company also capitalizes certain payroll and payroll-related costs for employees who are directly associated with internal use software projects. The amount of capitalizable payroll costs with respect to these employees is limited to the time directly spent on such projects. Costs associated with preliminary project state activities, training, maintenance and all other post-implementation stage activities are expensed as incurred. The Company also expenses internal costs related to minor upgrades and enhancements related activities, as it is impractical to separate these costs from normal maintenance activities. Internal-use software is being amortized over three years.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues consist of amounts charged to customers, net of discounts and credits for serving advertising impressions, click-throughs or other actions placed on our publisher vendor's websites. The Company's revenue is recognized in the period that the advertising impressions, click-throughs or actions occur when lead-based information is delivered or, provided that no significant Company obligations remain, collection of the resulting receivable is reasonably assured, and prices are fixed or determinable. The Company recognizes revenue when the following criteria have been met: (i) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, (ii) the fees are fixed or determinable, (iii) no significant Company obligations remain, and (iv) collection of the related receivable is reasonably assured.

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

In April 2010, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) 2010-13, “Compensation – Stock Compensation”. This update clarified the classification of an employee share-based payment award with an exercise price denominated in the currency of a market in which the underlying security trades. The adoption of ASU 2010-13 did not have a material impact on the Company’s consolidated results of operations or financial condition.

Note 3. Property and Equipment

Note 6. Commitments and Contingencies

Minimum Fees

The Company is party to multi-year agreements with third parties whereby the Company is obligated to pay minimum publisher, data and ad verification fees of approximately $10,147,000 in 2011 and $72,000 in 2012. Under the agreements, the Company expensed approximately $1,957,000 and $383,000 in fees under these agreements for the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010, respectively.

Legal Matters

On or about December 8, 2010, Sonal Bose commenced an action in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (Sonal Bose v. Interclick, Inc., Case No. 10 Civ. 9183-DAB (S.D.N.Y.)) alleging that interclick engaged in certain activities that plaintiff claims violate electronic privacy and computer use laws. The plaintiff asserts federal and state law claims, and seeks compensatory, statutory, and punitive damages, restitution, and reimbursement of expenses and attorney's fees. The plaintiff also seeks injunctive and declaratory relief and class action certification.

Plaintiff also had brought a related action in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against certain of our advertisers, which has been voluntarily dismissed as a separate action now that plaintiff has filed an Amended Complaint naming the advertisers as defendants in the action against the Company. The Company is providing for the defense of the advertisers.

Motions to dismiss the suit by the Company and by the advertisers are pending. As noted in the motions to dismiss, interclick believes the case is entirely without merit and interclick intends to vigorously defend its prior practices and technology.

There are no proceedings in which any of our directors, officers or affiliates, or any registered or beneficial shareholder, is an adverse party or has a material interest adverse to our interest.

Note 7. Stockholders' Equity

Preferred Stock

The Company is authorized to issue up to 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock having a par value of $0.001 per share, of which none was issued and outstanding at March 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010.

Common Stock

The Company is authorized to issue up to 140,000,000 shares of common stock having a par value of $0.001 per share, of which 24,508,501 and 24,065,611 shares were issued and outstanding at March 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010, respectively.

During the three months ended March 31, 2011, proceeds of $131,745 were received and an aggregate of 52,290 shares were issued as a result of stock option exercises.

Stock Warrants

On April 15, 2010, as part of a consulting agreement, the Company issued to an investor relations firm a three-year warrant to purchase 25,000 shares of common stock exercisable at $4.44 per share for services to be rendered over a 12-month period. Accordingly, the Company has recognized stock-based compensation of $35,094 for the three months ended March 31, 2011.

Stock Incentive Plan and Stock Option Grants to Employees and Directors

During the three months ended March 31, 2011, the Company granted 383,500 stock options, all of which were issued under the 2007 Incentive Stock and Award Plan (the "2007 Award Plan"), at various exercise prices ranging from $5.01 to $6.40 per share. The options granted vest pro rata over three years; all options expire ten years from the grant date.

As of March 31, 2011, 480,759 shares were remaining under the 2007 Award Plan for future issuance.

The total fair value of stock options granted to employees and directors during the three months ended March 31, 2011 was $1,623,162, which is being recognized over the respective vesting periods. The Company recorded compensation expense of $59,248 for the three months ended March 31, 2011 in connection with these stock options.

The Company estimates the fair value of share-based compensation utilizing the Black-Scholes option pricing model, which is dependent upon several variables such as the expected option term, expected volatility of our stock price over the expected term, expected risk-free interest rate over the expected option term, expected dividend yield rate over the expected option term, and an estimate of expected forfeiture rates. The Company believes this valuation methodology is appropriate for estimating the fair value of stock options granted to employees and directors which are subject to ASC Topic 718 "Compensation – Stock Compensation" requirements. These amounts are estimates and thus may not be reflective of actual future results, nor amounts ultimately realized by recipients of these grants. The Company recognizes compensation on a straight-line basis over the requisite vesting period for each award. The following table summarizes the assumptions the Company utilized to record compensation expense for stock options granted during the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010:

Risk-free interest rate	2.66	%	2.69	%
Dividend yield	0.00	%	0.00	%

For stock options issued through September 30, 2009, the expected life is based on the contractual term. Thereafter, the Company utilized the simplified method to estimate the expected life for stock options granted to employees and directors. The simplified method was used as the Company does not have sufficient historical data regarding stock option exercises. The expected volatility is based on historical volatility. The risk-free interest rate is based on the U.S. Treasury yields with terms equivalent to the expected life of the related option at the time of the grant. Dividend yield is based on historical trends. While the Company believes these estimates are reasonable, the compensation expense recorded would increase if the expected life was increased, a higher expected volatility was used, or if the expected dividend yield increased.

A summary of the Company's 2007 Award Plan stock option activity for employees and directors during the three months ended March 31, 2011 is presented below:

Options	Number of Shares	Weighted Average Exercise Price	Weighted Average Remaining Contractual Term	Aggregate Intrinsic Value
Balance Outstanding, December 31, 2010	5,134,792	$ 2.69

Outstanding, Exercisable and Expected to Vest at March 31, 2011	5,350,133	$ 3.10	3.3	$ 20,125,550

The balance of options outstanding at December 31, 2010 in the table above includes awards granted under the 2007 Award Plan and the 2007 Equity Incentive Plan, under which there were no shares available for future issuance. The table above excludes 150,000 options granted to a director of the Company on June 29, 2009, at a strike price of $2.40 that had been granted outside of the 2007 Award Plan and 2007 Equity Incentive Plan.

The weighted-average grant-date fair value of options granted to employees during the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010 was $4.23 and $3.17, respectively. The total intrinsic value of options exercised by employees during the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010 was $136,612 and $130,550, respectively.

During the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010, the Company recognized an aggregate amount of $1,081,518 and $817,572, respectively, of stock-based compensation for options granted.

Nonvested Common Stock Grants to Employees and Directors

On March 21, 2011, executive officers and members of the Board of Directors were granted an aggregate of 387,500 shares of restricted common stock, under the 2007 Award Plan, having a fair value of $2,344,375 (based on a quoted trading price of $6.05 per share) that will vest in one-third installments on an annual basis. Accordingly, the Company has recognized stock-based compensation of $23,273 for the three months ended March 31, 2011.

The total fair value of shares vested to employees during the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010 was $12,394 and $49,951, respectively.

As of March 31, 2011, there was $2,507,649 of total unrecognized compensation costs related to nonvested share-based compensation arrangements. That cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of 2.86 years.

Other Stock-Based Option Awards to Nonemployees

On March 21, 2011, 5,000 restricted shares of common stock were granted to an advisor and will vest on March 21, 2012. Accordingly, the Company has recognized stock-based compensation of $1,057 for the three months ended March 31, 2011.

As of March 31, 2011, there were 112,500 options outstanding out of 150,000 options granted in July 2009 to advisors. The options were granted outside of the 2007 Award Plan and 2007 Equity Incentive Plan, have an exercise price of $2.48, and vest quarterly through March 2013.

Options to purchase 1,138,543 shares of common stock were outstanding during the three months ended March 31, 2011, but were not included in the computation of diluted earnings per share because the effects would have been anti-dilutive. In addition, 337,500 nonvested shares were not included in the computation of diluted earnings per share because the number of shares assumed purchased (calculated using the compensation cost attributed to future services and not yet recognized) under the treasury stock method exceeds the number of shares that would be issued.

Options to purchase 656,000 shares of common stock and warrants to purchase 173,750 shares of common stock were outstanding during the three months ended March 31, 2010, but were not included in the computation of diluted

Note 9. Income Taxes

Income tax expense amounting to $73,618 for the three months ended March 31, 2011 is based on the Company's estimate of the effective tax rate expected to be applicable for the full year 2011. The effective tax rate of 40.2% for the three months ended March 31, 2011 differs from the statutory federal rate principally because of the effect of state income taxes and non-deductible expenses. The effective tax rate is based on the Company's best estimate of projected taxable income through the end of 2011.

The Company recorded an income tax benefit for the three months ended March 31, 2010 of $1,079,108. The tax benefit was based on the Company's estimate of the effective tax rate expected to be applicable for the full year. The effective tax rate of 123.5% for the three months ended March 31, 2010 differs from the statutory rate principally because of state income taxes, a valuation allowance established on capital loss carryforwards and other non-deductible expenses.

Note 10. Concentrations

Concentrations of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist of cash and cash equivalents and accounts receivable. Cash and cash equivalents are deposited in three financial institutions. The balance, at any given time, may exceed Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insurance limits. As of March 31, 2011 there was approximately $916,000 in excess of FDIC insurable limits.

Concentration of Revenues, Accounts Receivable and Publisher Expense

For the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010, the Company had concentrations of revenues with agency customers representing revenues equaling 10% or greater as follows:

	For the Three Months Ended March 31, 2011	For the Three Months Ended March 31, 2010
Agency	Less than 10%	14.2	%
Agency	Less than 10%	11.3	%

At March 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010, concentration of accounts receivable with individual agency customers representing 10% or greater of accounts receivable was as follows:

	March 31, 2011	December 31, 2010
Agency	10.4 %	13.8 %

Edgar Filing: interclick, inc. - Form 10-Q

Agency 10.1 % Less than 10%

For the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010, the Company made significant purchases of advertising impressions from a publisher with a percentage of total publisher expense (included in cost of revenues) equaling 10% or greater as follows:

	For the Three Months Ended March 31, 2011		For the Three Months Ended March 31, 2010

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

The following discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and related notes appearing elsewhere in this report on Form 10-Q. In addition to historical information, this discussion and analysis contains forward-looking statements that involve risks, uncertainties, and assumptions. Our actual results may differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors, including but not limited to those set forth under "Risk Factors" in our Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 2010 filed with the SEC on March 22, 2011

This following discussion and analysis includes both financial measures in accordance with GAAP, as well as a non-GAAP financial measure, EBITDA. EBITDA represents operating income before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, including stock-based compensation. EBITDA should be viewed as supplemental to, and not as an alternative for, net income or loss, income or loss from operations or any other measure for determining operating performance or liquidity, as determined under GAAP. We have included a reconciliation of our non-GAAP financial measure to net income. See page 8 of this report.

EBITDA is used by our management as an additional measure of our performance for purposes of business decision-making, including developing budgets and managing expenditures. Period-to-period comparisons of EBITDA helps our management identify additional trends in our financial results that may not be shown solely by period-to-period comparisons of income or loss, or income or loss from operations. Our management recognizes that EBITDA has inherent limitations because of the excluded items, particularly those items that are recurring in nature.

We believe that the presentation of EBITDA is useful to investors in their analysis of our results for reasons similar to the reasons why our management finds it useful and because it helps facilitate investor understanding of decisions made by our management in light of the performance metrics used in making those decisions. In addition, we believe that providing EBITDA, together with a reconciliation to GAAP, helps investors make comparisons between interclick and other companies. In making any comparisons to other companies, investors need to be aware that companies use different non-GAAP measures to evaluate their financial performance. Investors should pay close attention to the specific definition being used and to the reconciliation between such measure and the corresponding GAAP measure provided by each company under applicable SEC rules.

Company Overview

interclick, inc. ("interclick" or the "Company") is a technology company providing solutions for data-driven advertising. Combining scalable media execution capabilities with analytical expertise, interclick delivers exceptional results for marketers. The Company's proprietary Open Segment Manager ("OSM") platform organizes and values billions of data points daily to construct the most responsive digital audiences for major digital marketers. We generate our revenue by serving as a principal in transacting online display advertising between agency clients and third party website publishers. Substantially all of the Company's revenues are generated in the United States.

interclick is particularly sensitive to seasonality given that the majority of its revenues are tied to CPM (cost-per-thousand) branded advertisers campaigns, which are strongest in the fourth quarter and weakest in the first quarter.

Significant events which affected our results of operations include:

- Revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2011 increased 67.5% to $23,786,151 from $14,201,857 for the three months ended March 31, 2010;

Edgar Filing: interclick, inc. - Form 10-Q

- Gross profit percentage for the three months ended March 31, 2011 was 46.7% as compared to 44.9% for the three months ended March 31, 2010;
- Operating expenses were 45.2% of revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2011 compared to 47.4% of revenue for the three months ended March 31, 2010;
 - Headcount increased to 118 people at March 31, 2011 from 91 people at March 31, 2010;
- EBITDA (a non-GAAP measure) for the three months ended March 31, 2011 was $1,775,327 compared to $688,400 for the three months ended March 31, 2010; and
 - Operating income for the three months ended March 31, 2011 was $363,021 compared to an operating loss of ($343,644) for the three months ended March 31, 2010.

Table of Contents

- Net income for the three months ended March 31, 2011 was $109,553 or $0.00 per diluted share, compared to $205,070 or $0.01 per diluted share for the three months ended March 31, 2010. Results for the three months ended March 31, 2011 included an income tax expense of $73,618. Results for the three months ended March 31, 2010 included an income tax benefit of $1,079,108 and an other than temporary impairment of available-for-sale securities of $458,538.

Results of Operations

Three Months Ended March 31, 2011 Compared with Three Months Ended March 31, 2010

Revenues

	2011	2010	Period-over- Period $ Change	Period-over- Period % Change
Revenues	$23,786,151	$14,201,857	$9,584,294	67.5	%

Our revenue growth is attributed primarily to an increase in the number of clients seeking interclick's solution and higher average revenue per advertising campaign.

The continued overall growth in online advertising, the planned further enhancements to our technology including the launch of a video platform in the first quarter of 2011, our ability to acquire quality advertising impressions from publishers, and our effectiveness at providing data integrations across campaigns, gives us confidence we will continue to increase our overall advertising client base and revenues on a year-over-year basis for the foreseeable future.

Cost of Revenues and Gross Profit

	2011	2010	Period-over- Period $ Change	Period-over- Period % Change
Cost of revenues	$12,681,445	$7,819,181	$4,862,264	62.2	%
Percentage of revenues	53.3	% 55.1	%

The increase in our cost of revenues is primarily attributable to the growth in advertising campaigns requiring the purchase of appropriate levels of advertising impressions from publishers. Cost of revenues is comprised primarily of the amounts paid for advertising impressions, third-party data, ad verification, privacy notification, ad serving and rich media expenses directly associated with given campaigns. The decrease in cost of revenues as a percentage of revenue is primarily attributable to favorable market conditions and continual improvements in our supply chain management efficiency. This decrease is partially offset by higher data, ad verification and privacy notification fees.

	2011	2010	Period-over- Period $ Change	Period-over- Period % Change
Gross profit	$11,104,706	$6,382,676	$4,722,030	74.0	%
Percentage of revenues	46.7	% 44.9	%

The overall increase in gross profit dollars is the primary result of the increase in revenue largely offset by higher cost of revenues. The increase in gross profit as a percentage of revenue in 2011 from 2010 is attributable the lower year-over-year growth in cost of revenues as compared to revenues. We expect gross margin percentages will continue to range in the mid to low 40's due to industry seasonal fluctuations and varying costs in connection with the dynamic mix of advertising campaigns, data, ad verification and privacy notification efforts.

Table of Contents

Operating Expenses

Operating expenses consist of general and administrative, sales and marketing, technology support, and amortization of intangible assets. These are discussed in further detail below. Total operating expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2011 increased to $10,741,685 from $6,726,320 for the three months ended March 31, 2010, an increase of $4,015,365 or 59.7%. As a percentage of revenues, operating expenses decreased to 45.2% for the three months ended March 31, 2011, from 47.4% for the three months ended March 31, 2010, representing improved operating efficiency as the business expanded. The increase was primarily attributable to headcount expansion from 91 employees as of March 31, 2010 to 118 employees as of March 31, 2011 (a headcount increase of 30%), higher sales and marketing expenses overall and overhead expenditures necessary to support interclick's increased business. The majority of hiring was in the operations, technology, product and sales areas to support the growth of our business and the ongoing innovation, development and marketing of our technology platform, including OSM. We expect to continue hiring aggressively in 2011, albeit at a slower pace than revenue growth.

In the first quarter of 2011, we began capitalizing the costs of internal-use software development projects. In connection with these projects, we capitalized approximately $455,000 of payroll and payroll related costs attributable to the product development personnel in our technology support group. These costs are amortized over three years as intangible assets as discussed further below.

General and Administrative

	2011	2010	Period-over- Period $ Change	Period-over- Period % Change
General and administrative	$5,401,876	$3,230,528	$2,171,348	67.2	%
Percentage of revenues	22.7	% 22.7	%

General and administrative expenses consist primarily of executive, finance, administrative, operations and product support compensation (including stock-based compensation), facilities costs, insurance, depreciation, professional fees, investor relations fees and bad debt expense. The increase in general and administrative expenses is primarily attributable to our headcount expansion, expenditures necessary to support interclick's increased business, such as rent, depreciation and insurance, as well as approximately $685,000 of legal litigation expenses that did not occur in the prior year period. While overall general and administrative expenses increased year-over-year, they remained constant as a percentage of revenue due to the Company's substantial growth in revenues. The Company expects general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenue to generally decline as the business expands, despite legal litigation costs which are currently expected to range between approximately $1.25 million and $2.0 million in 2011.

Sales and Marketing

	2011	2010	Period-over- Period $ Change	Period-over- Period % Change
Sales and marketing	$4,389,523	$2,116,714	$2,272,809	107.4	%
Percentage of revenues	18.5	% 14.9	%

Sales and marketing expenses consist primarily of compensation (including sales commissions and stock-based compensation) for sales and marketing personnel, sales support resources, marketing and advertising efforts, and industry event expenses. The increase in our sales and marketing expenses is primarily attributable to higher sales commissions, costs incurred in connection with the Company's marketing and advertising initiatives to promote interclick's brand, and head count expansion. The Company expects to continue its marketing and advertising efforts for the foreseeable future.

Table of Contents

Technology Support

	2011	2010	Period-over- Period $ Change	Period-over- Period % Change
Technology support	$900,671	$1,339,578	$(438,907)	-32.8	%
Percentage of revenues	3.8	% 9.4	%

Technology support consists primarily of compensation (including stock-based compensation) of technology support and related resources. Technology support and related resources have been directed primarily towards continued development and enhancement of our OSM and ad serving platforms, including the integration of data providers, and ongoing maintenance and improvement of our technology infrastructure, including expansion of our data center facilities.

The decrease in technology support is primarily due to the capitalization of approximately $455,000 of internal-use software costs in the first quarter of 2011. Such costs included payroll and payroll related costs attributable to the product development personnel in our technology support group. We expect to capitalize additional costs associated with the development of internal-use software in the near-term.

As a technology-centric company, interclick is highly dependent on technology related costs to support its infrastructure operations, and differentiated product offerings in the marketplace. The Company expects that its efforts in this regard will continue to help drive revenue growth for the foreseeable future.

Amortization of Intangible Assets

	2011	2010	Period-over- Period $ Change	Period-over- Period % Change
Amortization of intangible assets	$49,615	$39,500	$ 10,115	25.6	%
Percentage of revenues	0.2	% 0.3	%

Amortization of intangible assets includes amortization of customer relationships, developed technology, internal-use software and a domain name acquired through the Desktop acquisition in 2007. The increase in amortization of intangible assets expense is attributable to the capitalization and amortization of internal-use software beginning in the first quarter of 2011.

Other income (expense) consists of interest expense, interest income, other than temporary impairment of available-for-sale securities, and warrant derivative liability income. The increase in our interest expense from $102,409 for the three months ended March 31, 2010 to $182,201 for the three months ended March 31, 2011 is primarily attributable to higher outstanding borrowings under our current line of credit versus our former line of credit, which is partially offset with savings from more favorable borrowing rates on our current line of credit. The increase is also partially attributable to increased interest expense incurred on capitalized leases for computer equipment purchased during 2010 and during the three months ended March 31, 2011. The decrease in the loss on other than temporary impairment of available-for-sale securities from $458,538 for the three months ended March 31, 2010 to $0 for the three months ended March 31, 2011 is attributable to impairments recognized on available-for-sale securities during 2010, along with the sale of approximately 7,000,000 shares of such securities in December 2010 resulting in the reduction of the carrying value of the available-for-sale securities to $609 at December 31, 2010. Accordingly, no material impairments or loss on these available-for-sale securities is expected to occur in future periods.

Income Tax (Expense) Benefit

	2011		2010	Period-over- Period $ Change	Period-over- Period % Change
Income tax (expense) benefit	$(73,618)		$1,079,108	$(1,152,726)	-106.8 %
Percentage of revenues	-0.3	%	7.6	%

Income tax expense for the three months ended March 31, 2011 is attributable to the increased taxable income generated by the Company for the three months ended March 31, 2011 over for the three months ended March 31, 2010. The income tax benefit recognized for the three months ended March 31, 2010 was attributable to the effective tax rate projected for the full year 2010 applied to the Company's pre-tax book loss for the three months ended March 31, 2010. The Company's effective tax rate for the three months ended March 31, 2011 was 40.2%. The Company currently estimates that its effective tax rate will be in the low 40s percentage range in the near-term.

Net Income

	2011		2010	Period-over- Period $ Change	Period-over- Period % Change
Net income	$109,553		$205,070	$(95,517)	-46.6 %
Percentage of revenues	0.5	%	1.4	%

The decrease in net income is primarily attributable to a significant income tax benefit recognized in the three months ended March 31, 2010. Income (loss) before income taxes increased from a loss of ($874,038) for the three months ended March 31, 2010 to income of $183,171 for the three months ended March 31, 2011. This was largely attributable to strong revenue growth, operating expenses growing at a slower pace than revenues, and no impairment on available-for-sale securities. The increase was partially offset by higher interest expense and increases in assets under capitalized leases.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Net cash used in operating activities during the three months ended March 31, 2011 totaled $540,840 and resulted primarily from net income of $109,553, adjusted for non-cash items, including stock-based compensation of $1,161,383, and depreciation and amortization expense of $250,923. In addition to these non-cash adjustments, cash was positively affected by a decrease in accounts receivable of $8,582,987, due to our industry's seasonally weakest revenues in the first quarter, more than offset by collections on our industry's seasonally strongest revenues from the fourth quarter. These increases were more than offset by seasonally strong decreases in accounts payable of $8,495,641, accrued expenses of $1,404,015 primarily attributable to the payment of 2010 bonuses, and an increase in prepaid expenses and other current assets of $723,714, including prepaid income taxes of $440,665.

Net cash provided by operating activities during the three months ended March 31, 2010 totaled $1,567,101 and resulted primarily from net income from continuing operations of $205,070, adjusted for non-cash items, including stock-based compensation of $849,582, an other than temporary impairment of available-for-sale securities of $458,538, depreciation and amortization expense of $182,462, and a deferred tax benefit of $1,684,957. In addition to these non-cash adjustments, cash was positively affected by a decrease in accounts receivable of $6,451,620, due to our industry's seasonally weakest revenues in the first quarter, more than offset by collections on our industry's seasonally strongest revenues from the fourth quarter. These increases were partially offset by seasonally strong decreases in accounts payable of $3,674,840, and accrued expenses of $1,218,173 primarily attributable to the payment of 2009 bonuses.

Net cash used in investing activities during the three months ended March 31, 2011 totaled $524,898 and resulted primarily from the purchase of $69,527 of property and equipment, which were necessary as we continue to build out our technology infrastructure and $455,371 of costs associated with the development of our various internal-use software platforms, including enhancements to OSM.

Net cash used in investing activities during the three months ended March 31, 2010 totaled $1,719,716 and resulted primarily from $439,219 of purchases of property and equipment and the transfer of $1,291,746 of cash to restricted cash related to certificates of deposit securing letters of credit.

Table of Contents

Net cash provided by financing activities during the three months ended March 31, 2011 was $50,689 and resulted primarily from proceeds of $131,745 received from the exercise of stock options, was partially offset by $96,401 of payments made on the capitalized leases for property and equipment acquired.

Net cash used in financing activities during the three months ended March 31, 2010 was $3,176,155 and resulted primarily from net repayments of $3,248,594 under the former Crestmark Commercial Capital Lending, LLC (“Crestmark”) line of credit, partially offset by proceeds of $80,000 received from the exercise of stock options.

During three months ended March 31, 2011, we acquired $1,378,061 in capital assets, including $1,308,534 of computer equipment through conventional capital leases. These additions further enhance the features and scale of our technology assets, which are necessary to support both the realization of growth objectives as well as to advance interclick’s present competitive position. For the remainder of 2011, we expect to acquire up to approximately $1,600,000 in additional capital assets, a portion of which will likely be financed through capital leases.

As of March 31, 2011, the balance outstanding on the SVB line of credit was $8,500,000. As of March 31, 2011, the Company had $6,500,000 of borrowing capacity available under the SVB line of credit based on the availability of eligible accounts receivable.

As of March 31, 2011, the Company has an outstanding standby letter of credit in the amount of $294,700 for the benefit of the landlord of the Company’s New York office facilities. This letter of credit is secured by a certificate of deposit, which at March 31, 2011, is classified as restricted cash, a non-current asset.

At March 31, 2011, interclick had working capital of $25,757,536 including $11,435,601 in cash and cash equivalents, $498,816 in a short-term investment, and $500,379 in near-term restricted cash. interclick’s working capital is impacted by the seasonal nature of its business, whereby revenue and receivables are typically weakest in the first quarter and strongest in the fourth quarter. As of May 6, 2011, interclick had approximately $18,757,000 of cash and cash equivalents and $797,000 in total restricted cash. Due to this cash position, full use of the SVB line of credit has recently not been necessary. interclick has delivered positive EBITDA for more than two years. We discuss this non-GAAP financial measure and its limitations under Company Overview above. Management anticipates that revenues will continue to increase for the foreseeable future. For all of these reasons, interclick expects that it has sufficient cash and borrowing capacity to meet its working capital needs for at least the next 12 months.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Management’s discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations is based upon our consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The preparation of these unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. On an ongoing basis, we evaluate our estimates, including those related to the accounts receivable and allowance for doubtful accounts, fair values of financial instruments, intangible assets and goodwill, useful lives of intangible assets and property and equipment, fair values of stock-based awards, income taxes, and contingent liabilities, among others.

In response to the SEC's financial reporting release, FR-60, "Cautionary Advice Regarding Disclosure About Critical Accounting Policies", the Company has selected a more subjective accounting estimation processes for purposes of explaining the methodology used in calculating estimates, in addition to the inherent uncertainties pertaining to the estimate and the possible effects on interclick's financial condition. The accounting estimates are discussed below. These estimates involve certain assumptions that if incorrect could create a material adverse impact on the interclick's results of operations and financial condition.

Table of Contents

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Management is particularly attentive to the length of accounts receivable collection cycles and the related possibility of an increase in bad debts. Management continuously monitors the credit worthiness of our customers and the aging of accounts receivable to identify accounts receivable balances which may be deemed uncollectible and to establish an appropriate allowance based upon historical collection and write-off experience. The Company's customer agreements are primarily entered into with agencies which manage campaigns on behalf of brand advertisers. Such agreements are governed by standard terms and conditions for Internet Advertising as prescribed by the Interactive Advertising Bureau. Under these agreements, the Company holds the agency liable for payments to the extent proceeds have cleared from the advertiser to the agency for campaigns placed in accordance with the agreement. For sums not cleared to the agency, the Company may hold the advertiser solely liable. Write-offs of accounts receivable are taken in the period when the Company has exhausted its efforts to collect overdue and unpaid receivables or otherwise has evaluate other circumstances that indicate that the Company should abandon such efforts.

The Company's bad debt reserve was $529,672, or approximately 1.45% of gross accounts receivable as of March 31, 2011 as compared to $563,512, or 1.25% of gross accounts receivable as of December 31, 2010.

Internal-Use Software

The Company's policy with respect to internal-use software provides for the capitalization of external direct costs of materials and services associated with developing or obtaining internal use software. In addition, the Company also capitalizes certain payroll and payroll-related costs for employees who are directly associated with developing internal use software projects. The amount of capitalizable payroll costs is limited to the time directly spent on such projects. Costs associated with preliminary project state activities, training, maintenance and all other post-implementation stage activities are expensed as incurred. The Company also expenses internal costs related to minor upgrades and enhancements related activities, as it is impractical to separate these costs from normal maintenance activities.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues consist of amounts charged to customers, net of discounts, credits and amounts paid for serving advertising impressions, click-throughs or other actions placed on our publisher vendor's websites. The Company's revenue is recognized in the period that the advertising impressions, click-throughs or actions occur, when lead-based information is delivered or, provided that no significant Company obligations remain, collection of the resulting receivable is reasonably assured, and prices are fixed or determinable. The Company recognizes revenue as a principal on a gross basis when the following criteria have been met: (i) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, (ii) the fees are fixed or determinable, (iii) no significant Company obligations remain, and (iv) collection of the related receivable is reasonably assured.

Stock-Based Compensation

Stock-based compensation expense is estimated at the grant date based on the award's fair value as calculated by the Black-Scholes option pricing model and is recognized as expense over the requisite service period. The Black-Scholes option pricing model requires various highly judgmental assumptions including expected volatility and expected term. If any of the assumptions used in the Black-Scholes option pricing model changes significantly, stock-based compensation expense may differ materially in the future from that recorded in the current period. In addition, we are required to estimate the expected forfeiture rate and only recognize expense for those shares expected to vest. We estimate the forfeiture rate based on historical experience. To the extent our actual forfeiture rate is different from our estimated rate, stock-based compensation expense is adjusted accordingly.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 including anticipated revenues, expected increases in our advertising customer base, expected gross margins, expected hiring of new employees, having sufficient cash and borrowing capacity to meet its working capital for at least the next 12 months and expectations regarding acquiring additional capital assets. Forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as “anticipates,” “intends,” “plans,” “projects,” “seeks,” “believes,” “estimates,” “expects” and references to future periods.

Table of Contents

Forward-looking statements are based on our current expectations and assumptions regarding our business, the economy and other future conditions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict. Our actual results may differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements. We caution you therefore against relying on any of these forward-looking statements. They are neither statements of historical fact nor guarantees or assurances of future performance. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include the impact of intense competition, the continuation or worsening of current economic conditions, a potential decrease in corporate advertising spending, a potential decrease in consumer spending and the condition of the domestic and global credit and capital markets.

Any forward-looking statement made by us in this report speaks only as of the date on which it is made. Factors or events that could cause our actual results to differ may emerge from time-to-time, and it is not possible for us to predict all of them. We undertake no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, except as may be required by law.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures . Our management carried out an evaluation, with the participation of our Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer, required by Rule 13a-15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) of the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) under the Exchange Act. Based on that evaluation, our Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of the end of the period covered by this report to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC’s rules and forms and is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting . There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act that occurred during the period covered by this report that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II – OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

From time-to-time, the Company may be involved in litigation relating to claims arising out of the Company’s operations in the normal course of business.

On or about December 8, 2010, Sonal Bose commenced an action in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (Sonal Bose v. Interclick, Inc., Case No. 10 Civ. 9183-DAB (S.D.N.Y.)) alleging that interclick engaged in certain activities that plaintiff claims violate electronic privacy and computer use laws. The plaintiff asserts federal and state law claims, and seeks compensatory, statutory, and punitive damages, restitution, and reimbursement of expenses and attorney’s fees. The plaintiff also seeks injunctive and declaratory relief and class action certification.

Plaintiff also had brought a related action in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against certain of our advertisers, which has been voluntarily dismissed as a separate action now that plaintiff has filed an Amended Complaint naming the advertisers as defendants in the action against the Company. The Company is providing for the defense of the advertisers.

Motions to dismiss the suit by the Company and by the advertisers are pending. As noted in the motions to dismiss, interclick believes the case is entirely without merit and interclick intends to vigorously defend its prior practices and technology.
