Section 1 – Registrant’s Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entering into a Material Definitive Agreement

On December 8, 2015, RiceBran Technologies (the “Company”) entered into a binding agreement (the “Agreement”) with Kentucky Equine Research (“KER”) effective as of December 8, 2015. During the term of the Agreement, Company will be the exclusive KER endorsed supplier of stabilized rice bran for use as a feed and supplement ingredient in equine feed products throughout North America, as well as have preference for KER’s international operations in the equine feed markets. Company will provide manufacturing, distribution, sales and marketing expertise, and KER will contribute sales and marketing expertise, technical support and research and development to the relationship. Company will provide KER with a portion of the gross profits arising out of the relationship through a commission arrangement.

The Agreement is for an initial term of ten years, and automatically renews for one-year periods. However, the parties anticipate that the Agreement will be expanded into a more formal and definitive agreement (the “Definitive Agreement”) on or before March 31, 2016 and will use commercially reasonable efforts to do so. Should a Definitive Agreement be entered into, it will supersede and amend all of the provisions of the Agreement. If the parties do not enter into a Definitive Agreement, then the Agreement will remain in full force and effect.
