Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

As previously disclosed, Signet Jewelers Limited (the “Company”) has been cooperating with investigations by the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection (“CFPB”) and Attorney General for the State of New York (“NY AG”) related to the Company’s in-store credit practices, promotions, and payment protection products. On January 16, 2019, without admitting or denying any of the allegations, findings of fact or conclusions of law (except to establish jurisdiction), the Company’s subsidiary, Sterling Jewelers Inc. (“Sterling”), reached a settlement and entered into a consent order (the “Consent Order”) with the CFPB and NY AG. Pursuant to the Consent Order, Sterling will pay civil money penalties of $10 million to the CFPB and $1 million to the NY AG. The Company will recognize the related $11 million pre-tax charge in the fourth quarter ending February 2, 2019. The Consent Order also includes certain compliance actions the Company must undertake, including continuing to maintain policies and procedures related to the issuance of credit cards, including with respect to credit applications, credit financing terms and conditions and any related add-on products, such as payment-protection insurance, that are reasonably designed to ensure consumer knowledge or consent, and submitting a report to the CFPB and NY AG within 90 days describing compliance with the Consent Order.

A copy of the Consent Order is attached as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference. The description of the Consent Order set forth above does not purport to be complete and is qualified by reference to its full text.

Forward-looking Statements

This Form 8-K contains statements which are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements, based upon management’s beliefs and expectations as well as on assumptions made by and data currently available to management, appear in a number of places throughout this document and include statements regarding, among other things, Signet’s results of operation, financial condition, liquidity, prospects, growth, strategies and the industry in which Signet operates. The use of the words “expects,” “intends,” “anticipates,” “estimates,” “predicts,” “believes,” “should,” “potential,” “may,” “forecast,” “objective,” “plan,” or “t” similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, our ability to implement Signet’s transformation initiative, the effect of US federal tax reform and adjustments relating to such impact on the completion of our quarterly and year-end financial statements, changes in interpretation or assumptions, and/or updated regulatory guidance regarding the US federal tax reform, the benefits and outsourcing of the credit portfolio sale including technology disruptions, future financial results and operating results, the impact of weather-related incidents on Signet’s business, deterioration in the performance of individual businesses or of the Company’s market value relative to its book value, resulting in impairments of fixed assets or intangible assets or other adverse financial consequences, including tax consequences related thereto, especially in view of the Company’s recent market valuation, and our ability to successfully integrate Zale Corporation and R2Net’s operations and to realize synergies from the Zale and R2Net transactions, general economic conditions, potential regulatory changes or other developments following the United Kingdom’s announced intention to negotiate a formal exit from the European Union, a decline in consumer spending, the merchandising, pricing and inventory policies followed by Signet, the reputation of Signet and its banners, the level of competition in the jewelry sector, the cost and availability of diamonds, gold and other precious metals, regulations relating to customer credit, seasonality of Signet’s business, financial market risks, deterioration in customers’ financial condition, exchange rate fluctuations, changes in Signet’s credit rating, changes in consumer attitudes regarding jewelry, management of social, ethical and environmental risks, the development and maintenance of Signet’s omni-channel retailing, security breaches and other disruptions to Signet’s information technology infrastructure and databases, inadequacy in and disruptions to internal controls and systems, changes in assumptions used in making accounting estimates relating to items such as extended service plans and pensions, risks related to Signet being a Bermuda corporation, the impact of the acquisition of Zale Corporation on relationships, including with employees, suppliers, customers and competitors, and an adverse decision in legal or regulatory proceedings.

For a discussion of these and other risks and uncertainties which could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statement, see the “Risk Factors” section of Signet’s Fiscal 2018 Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on April 2, 2018 and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC. Signet undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances, except as required by law.
