Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

On July 12, 2007, bioMETRX, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into several agreements with Alpha Capital Anstalt (“Alpha”) whereby Alpha lent the Company $750,000 to be held in escrow pending delivery of the Company’s garage door openers. The funds will be used to pay the manufacturer of the garage door openers once they have been completed and inspected for shipment to fulfill certain outstanding customer purchase orders.

In connection with the transaction the Company executed a $750,000 secured promissory note (“Note”). The Note bears interest at the rate of 24.99% per annum, payable on the first day of each month and on the maturity date the Note matures fifteen (15) days following the release of funds from the escrow account to any person other than the holder. The Note may be prepaid all or any portion of the Note without penalty or premium.

In addition to the Note, the Company and each of its subsidiaries entered into Security Agreements with Alpha whereby each entity pledged all their assets to secure the Note. The Company also issued Alpha a warrant (the “Warrant”) to purchase 375,000 shares of the Company’s common stock at an exercisable price of $1.00 per share. The Warrant is exercisable for a period of five (5) years.

As a condition to Alpha providing the loan to the Company, the Company’s CEO Mark Basile entered into a Guaranty with Alpha whereby Mr. Basile agreed to guaranty the Company’s obligations under the Note and all related documents.

In connection with the transaction the Company paid a due diligence fee of $10,000 to Osher Capital Partners, LLC, paid Alpha a commitment fee of $22,500 and agreed to pay Alpha’s legal fees in connection with this transaction not to exceed $40,000.
