Item 1.01 Entry Into A Material Definitive Agreement

Compensation Agreements

On April 24, 2008 Insignia Solutions PLC (“Insignia”) amended the compensation agreement of George Monk, Insignia’s chief financial officer, to provide that an amount equal to one year’s salary of $240,000 and targeted bonus of $96,000 would be due and payable to Mr. Monk within seven days of a change of control of Insignia, regardless of whether or not Mr. Monk were terminated upon such a change of control. No further termination payment would be due if he was subsequently terminated. Prior to this amendment, this payment would be made upon a termination of employment or a demotion following a change of control.

In addition, Insignia agreed to pay a bonus to Mr. Monk and Vincent Pino, a director of Insignia, equal to a total of $250,000, less any payments made to obtain a fairness opinion, to be split equally between Mr. Monk and Mr. Pino, and payable within seven days of the closing of a merger with Dollar Days International, Inc. (“DollarDays”).

Finally, Insignia agreed to pay bonuses of $30,000 to each of Mark McMillan, former chief executive officer and director of Insignia, and Mr. Monk, within seven days of the closing of the merger with DollarDays, as full and final settlement of amounts payable to them related to the deferred portion of the consideration that may have been payable by Smith Micro Software, Inc. (“SMSI”) under the Asset Purchase Agreement dated February 11, 2007 between Insignia, SMSI and certain subsidiaries of Insignia, as amended, had Insignia not entered into the Release Agreement with SMSI as described below.

Release Agreement with Smith Micro Software, Inc.

The Merger was completed on June 23, 2008.
