NeoMedia Technologies, Inc. and Subsidiaries
Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

Note 1 - General

Business – NeoMedia Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“NeoMedia”, and also referred to herein as “us”, “we” and “our”), is an innovator and a global market leader in 2D mobile barcode technology and solutions that enable the mobile barcode ecosystem world-wide. NeoMedia strives to harness the power of the mobile phone with state-of-the-art mobile barcode technology. With this technology, mobile phones with cameras become barcode scanners and this enables a range of applications including consumer oriented marketing and advertising, mobile ticketing and couponing, and business-to-business commercial track and trace solutions.

As a technology pioneer in the global mobile barcode industry, our suite of products, services and IP portfolio allows us to offer a comprehensive end-to-end mobile barcode solution. We offer barcode management and infrastructure technology solutions, barcode reader solutions and IP licensing, as well as mobile couponing and ticketing products and services. NeoMedia has been a pioneer in the mobile barcode field since the mid 1990s, and during that time has spearheaded the development of a robust IP portfolio that encompasses many preferred mobile barcode implementations. We have an IP portfolio currently consisting of over sixty issued and pending patents.

Going Concern – We have historically incurred net losses from operations and we expect that we will continue to have negative cash flows as we implement our business plan. There can be no assurance that our continuing efforts to execute our business plan will be successful and that we will be able to continue as a going concern. The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“US GAAP”), which contemplates our continuation as a going concern. Net income for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 and 2010, respectively, was $12.4 million and $41.5 million, of which $18.9 million and $47.6 million, respectively, were net gains related to our financing instruments. Net cash used by operations during the nine months ended September 30, 2011 and 2010 was $3.5 million and $4.7 million, respectively. At September 30, 2011, we have an accumulated deficit of $232.0 million. We also have a working capital deficit of $65.0 million, of which $47.2 million is related to our financing instruments, including $18.3 million related to the fair value of warrants and those debentures that are recorded as hybrid financial instruments, and $28.9 million related to the amortized cost carrying value of certain of our debentures and the fair value of the associated derivative liabilities. We also have a continuing purchase price guarantee obligation of $4.5 million associated with an acquisition of a business in 2006, which we subsequently sold in 2007.

The items discussed above raise substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern.

We currently do not have sufficient cash or commitments for financing, to sustain our operations for the next twelve months. We will require additional financing in order to execute our operating plan and continue as a going concern. Our management’s plan is to attempt to secure adequate funding to bridge the commercialization of our patent licensing and barcode ecosystem businesses. We cannot predict whether this additional financing will be in the form of equity, debt, or another form and we may not be able to obtain the necessary additional capital on a timely basis, on acceptable terms, or at all. In the event that these financing sources do not materialize, or that we are unsuccessful in increasing our revenues and profits, we may be unable to implement our current plans for expansion, repay our debt obligations as they become due or respond to competitive pressures, any of which circumstances would have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. Should our lender, YA Global Investments, L.P. (“YA Global”) choose not to provide us with continued financing, or if we do not find alternative sources of financing to fund our operations or if we are unable to generate significant product revenues, we only have sufficient funds to sustain our current operations through approximately December 8, 2011.

The financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and reclassification of recorded asset amounts or the amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should we be unable to continue as a going concern.

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The accompanying unaudited financial statements have been prepared in accordance with US GAAP for interim financial information and Rule 8.03 of Regulation S-X. They do not include all of the information and footnotes required by US GAAP for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. The results of operations for the periods presented are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. For further information, refer to our financial statements as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and for the years then ended, including notes thereto in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010.

Basis of Presentation – The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of NeoMedia Technologies, Inc. and our wholly-owned subsidiaries. We operate as one reportable segment. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

Use of Estimates – The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Changes in facts and circumstances may result in revised estimates, which are recorded in the period in which they become known.

Stock-Based Compensation - FASB ASC 718, Stock Compensation, requires that all stock-based compensation be recognized as an expense in the financial statements and that such cost be measured at the grant date fair value of the award. We account for modifications of the terms of existing option grants as exchanges of the existing equity instruments for new instruments. The fair value of the modified option at the grant date is compared with the value at that date of the original option immediately before its terms are modified. Any excess fair value of the modified option over the original option is recognized as additional compensation expense.

Basic and Diluted Net Income (Loss) Per Share – Basic net income (loss) per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) attributable to common shareholders by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011, we reported net income per share and included dilutive instruments in the fully diluted net income per share calculation. During the three months ended September 30, 2010, we reported a net loss per share, and as such, basic and diluted loss per share were equivalent. During the nine months ended September 30, 2010, we reported net income per share and included dilutive instruments in the fully diluted net income per share calculation.

Edgar Filing: NEOMEDIA TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 10-Q

Recent Accounting Pronouncements - The following Accounting Standards Codification Updates have recently been issued:

Pronouncement	Issued	Title
ASU No. 2011-08	September 2011	Intangibles—Goodwill and Other (Topic 350): Testing Goodwill for Impairment
ASU No. 2011-09	September 2011	Compensation—Retirement Benefits—Multiemployer Plans (Subtopic 715-80): Disclosures about an Employer’s Participation in a Multiemployer Plan

To the extent appropriate, the guidance in the above Accounting Standards Codification Updates is already reflected in our consolidated financial statements and management does not anticipate that these accounting pronouncements will have any material future effect on our consolidated financial statements.

Note 3 – Financing

At September 30, 2011, our financing transactions with YA Global, an accredited investor, included shares of our Series C preferred stock issued in February 2006, Series D preferred stock issued in January 2010, a series of twenty eight secured convertible debentures issued between August 2006 and September 2011 and various warrants to purchase shares of our common stock. All of our assets are pledged to secure our obligations under these securities. At various times, YA Global has assigned or distributed portions of its holdings of these securities to other holders, including persons who are officers of YA Global and its related entities, as well as to other holders who are investors in YA Global’s funds. As of September 30, 2011, approximately $1,862,500 has been assigned or distributed by YA Global to other holders, which represents approximately 5% of YA Global’s holdings.

Conversions –Our preferred stock and convertible debentures are convertible into shares of our common stock. However, the conversion of each of these securities is limited such that the holder cannot exceed 9.99% beneficial ownership of our common stock, unless the holder waives their right to such limitation. Cumulatively, as of September 30, 2011, the holders of our Series C preferred stock have converted 16,567 shares of the original 22,000 shares of Series C preferred stock into 204,815,226 shares of common stock and holders of our Series D preferred stock have converted 1,399 shares of the original 25,000 shares of Series D preferred stock into 10,938,232 shares of common stock. YA Global has converted $888,000 of principal and accrued interest on those debentures into 76,334,719 shares of our common stock. Holders, other than YA Global, converted $1,399,759 of principal and accrued interest on the debentures into 114,224,052 shares of common stock.

Debenture Interest Payments— On December 23, 2010 and again on February 18, 2011, we made payments of $1.0 million each of accrued interest, related to the March 27, 2007 debenture, to YA Global.

Secured Debentures - The underlying agreements for each of the twenty eight debentures issued to YA Global are essentially the same, except in regard to the interest rate, varying conversion prices per share, and the number of warrants that were issued in conjunction with each of the debentures. The debentures are convertible into our common stock, at the option of the holder, at the lower of a fixed conversion price per share or a percentage of the lowest volume-weighted average price (“VWAP”) for a specified number of days prior to the conversion (the “look-back period”). The conversion is limited such that the holder cannot exceed 9.99% ownership, unless the holder waives their right to such limitation. All of the debentures are secured according to the terms of a Security Pledge Agreement dated August 23, 2006, which was entered into in connection with the first convertible debenture issued to YA Global and which provides YA Global with a security interest in substantially all of our assets. The debentures are also secured by a Patent Security Agreement dated July 29, 2008. On August 13, 2010 our wholly owned subsidiary, NeoMedia Europe GmbH, became a guarantor of all outstanding financing transactions between us and YA Global, through pledges of their intellectual property and other movable assets. As security for our obligations to YA Global, all of our Pledged Property, Patent Collateral and other collateral is affirmed through the several successive Ratification Agreements which have been executed in connection with each of the 2010 and 2011 financings.

2011 Financing Transactions - Between January 10, 2011 and September 15, 2011 we entered into seven Securities Purchase Agreements to issue and sell nine debentures to YA Global in the aggregate principal amount of $3,950,000. The debentures are convertible, at the option of the holder, at a conversion price equal to the lesser of (i) $0.10 or (ii) 95% of the lowest closing bid price of our common stock for the 60 trading days preceding the date of conversion. The debentures bear interest at 14% and mature on July 29, 2012. The debentures provided net proceeds of $3,685,000 after payment of $265,000 in fees. We have the right to redeem a portion or all amounts outstanding under the debentures at a redemption premium of 10%, plus accrued interest. In connection with the six debentures issued prior to June 30, 2011, we also issued warrants to YA Global to purchase 1,250,000, 1,250,000, 1,000,000, 1,000,000, 1,000,000 and 3,000,000 shares of common stock, respectively. In addition, we issued warrants to YA Global to purchase 1,000,000 shares of common stock on September 15, 2011. The warrants issued from January 2011 through April 2011 initially had an exercise price of $0.10 per share, and the warrants issued subsequently, an exercise price of $0.15 per share. However, as a result of the anti-dilution protection in these warrants, the subsequent issuance of additional debentures to YA Global reset the exercise price of the warrants to 95% of the lowest closing bid price of our common stock for the 60 days preceding the issuance date of the debentures. All warrants issued during 2011 have a term of five years.

At inception, a summary of the allocation of the components of the new debentures and warrants issued this quarter was as follows:

	July 13, 2011 debenture	August 12, 2011 debenture (in thousands)	September 15, 2011 debenture
Gross proceeds	$ 450	$ 350	$ 450
Structuring and due diligence fee	(37 )	(37 )	(25 )
	$ 413	$ 313	$ 425
Derivative liabilities:
Investor warrants	$ -	$ -	$ (28 )
Compound derivative	(1,242 )	(868 )	(303 )
Total derivative liabilities	(1,242 )	(868 )	(331 )
Day one derivative loss	829	555	-
Convertible debenture-initial carrying value	-	-	(94 )
	$ (413 )	$ (313 )	$ (425 )

The compound derivatives were valued using the Monte Carlo Simulation valuation method. Significant assumptions used to value the compound derivatives as of inception of the financings included exercise estimates/behaviors and the following significant estimates:

	July 13, 2011 Financing		August 12, 2011 Financing		September 15, 2011 Financing
Conversion price	$	0.0128	$	0.0128	$	0.0247
Equivalent volatility		188	%	187	%	183
Equivalent interest risk		14.00	%	14.00	%	14.00
Equivalent credit risk		7.19	%	7.20	%	7.63

The warrants are valued using the binomial option valuation methodology. Significant assumptions used to value the warrants as of their inception included the following significant estimates:

	September 15, 2011
Exercise price	$	0.028
Expected life		5 years
Estimated volatility		290 %
Risk free rate of return		0.15 %
Dividend yield		--

For the risk-free rates of return, we use the published yields on zero-coupon Treasury Securities with maturities consistent with the term of the warrants and volatility is based upon our expected stock price volatility over the term of the warrants.

All debentures with YA Global contain provisions for acceleration of principal and interest upon default. Certain debentures also contain default interest rates and conversion prices, as reflected in the table above.

In our evaluation of these financing transactions, we concluded that the conversion features were not afforded the exemption for conventional convertible instruments due to the variable conversion rate, and they did not otherwise meet the conditions set forth in current accounting standards for equity classification. Because equity classification was not available for the conversion features, we elected to bifurcate the compound derivatives, and carry them as derivative liabilities, at fair value. Each compound derivative consists of (i) the embedded conversion feature, (ii) down-round anti-dilution protection features, and (iii) default, non-delivery and buy-in puts which were combined into one compound instrument that is carried as a component of derivative liabilities.

Fair Value Considerations - In accordance with FASB ASC 815, Derivatives and Hedging, we determined that the conversion features of the Series C and Series D preferred stock, and the Debentures met the criteria of embedded derivatives and that the conversion features of these instruments required bifurcation and accounting as derivative instrument liabilities. Changes in the fair value of the compound derivative liability, including the embedded conversion option, are charged or credited to income each period. As permitted by FASB ASC 815-15-25-4, Recognition of Embedded Derivatives, we elected not to bifurcate the embedded derivatives in the March 2007, August 2007, April 2008 or May 2008 Debentures and accordingly, these convertible instruments are being carried in their entirety at their fair values, with the changes in the fair value of the debentures charged or credited to income each period.

Derivative financial instruments arising from the issuance of convertible financial instruments are initially recorded, and continuously carried, at fair value. Upon conversion of any of the convertible financial instruments, the carrying amount of the debt, including any unamortized premium or discount, and the related derivative instrument liability are credited to the capital accounts upon conversion to reflect the stock issued and no gain or loss is recognized.

Bifurcated Embedded Derivative Instruments – Series C and Series D preferred stock and Convertible Debentures - For financings recorded in accordance with FASB ASC 815-15-25-1, the compound embedded derivative instruments are valued using a Monte Carlo Simulation methodology because that model embodies certain relevant assumptions (including, but not limited to, interest rate risk, credit risk, and conversion/redemption privileges) that are necessary to value these complex derivatives.

The conversion price in each of the convertible debentures is subject to adjustment for down-round, anti-dilution protection. Accordingly, if we sell common stock or common share indexed financial instruments below the stated or variable conversion price in the agreement, the conversion price adjusts to that lower amount.

The assumptions included in the calculations are highly subjective and subject to interpretation. Assumptions used as of September 30, 2011 included exercise estimates/behaviors and the following other significant estimates:

Equivalent amounts reflect the net results of multiple modeling simulations that the Monte Carlo Simulation methodology applies to underlying assumptions.

Due to the variable component of the conversion price, rapid fluctuations in the trading market price may result in significant variations to the calculated conversion price. For each debenture, we analyze the ratio of the conversion price (as calculated based on the percentage of VWAP for the appropriate look back period) to the trading market price for a period of time equal to the term of the debenture to determine the average ratio for the term of the note. Each quarter, the ratio in effect on the date of the valuation is compared with the average ratio over the term of the debenture to determine if the calculated conversion price is representative of past trends or if it is considered unrepresentative due to a large fluctuation in the stock price over a short period of time. If the calculated conversion price results in a ratio that deviates significantly from the average ratio over the term of the agreement, the average ratio of the conversion price to the trading market price is then multiplied by the current trading market price to determine the variable conversion price for use in the fair value calculations. This variable conversion price is then compared with the fixed conversion price and, as required by the terms of the debentures, the lower of the two amounts is used as the conversion price in the Monte Carlo Simulation model used for valuation purposes. On September 30, 2011, the fixed conversion price for each of the debentures was equal to or higher than the calculated variable conversion price. Accordingly, the variable conversion price was used in the Monte Carlo Simulation model. This analysis is performed each quarter to determine if the calculated conversion price is reasonable for purposes of determining the fair value of the embedded conversion features (for instruments recorded under FASB ASC 815-15-25-1) or the fair value of the hybrid instrument (for instruments recorded under FASB ASC 815-15-25-4).

Hybrid Financial Instruments Carried at Fair Value – 2007 and 2008 Convertible Debentures - The March 2007, August 2007, April 2008 and May 2008 convertible debentures are recorded in accordance with FASB ASC 815-15-25-4 and the entire hybrid instrument was initially recorded at fair value, with subsequent changes in fair value charged or credited to income each period. These financial instruments are valued using the common stock equivalent approach. The common stock equivalent is calculated using the shares indexed to the debentures valued at the market price of our stock and the present value of the coupon.

The shares indexed to the debentures are calculated using the variable conversion price based on the 125 day look-back period and the present value of the coupon from inception of the debentures to the revised maturity date of July 29, 2012.

Current Period Valuations - On January 5, 2010, the terms of all of the debentures issued prior to that date were modified to increase the look-back period used to calculate the variable conversion price per share for all debentures to a period of 125 days and to extend the stated maturity date to July 29, 2012, which increased our future anticipated cash flows related to those instruments. Because that increase exceeded the threshold prescribed by FASB ASC 470-50, Debt Modifications and Extinguishments, the modification of the amounts due under these instruments was accounted for as an extinguishment. Accordingly, the original convertible debentures were considered extinguished and the revised convertible debentures were recorded at their fair value, resulting in an extinguishment loss of approximately $5.6 million.

For our Series C and Series D preferred stock and our convertible debentures, the following table reflects the face value of the instruments and, as appropriate, either their amortized cost carrying value and the fair value of the separately-recognized compound embedded derivative or, for those debentures recorded in their entirety at fair value, their fair value, as well as for each of the instruments the number of common shares (in thousands) into which the instruments are convertible as of September 30, 2011 and December 31, 2010.

The terms of the embedded conversion features in the convertible instruments presented above provide for variable conversion rates that are indexed to our common stock price. As a result, the number of indexed shares is subject to continuous fluctuation. For presentation purposes, the number of shares of common stock into which the embedded conversion feature of the Series C and Series D preferred stock was convertible as of September 30, 2011 was calculated as face value plus assumed dividends (if declared), divided by the lesser of the fixed rate or the calculated variable conversion price using the 125 day look-back period. The number of shares of common stock into which the embedded conversion feature in the convertible debentures was convertible as of September 30, 2011 was calculated as the face value of each instrument divided by the variable conversion price using the appropriate look-back period.

The March 2007, August 2007, April 2008 and May 2008 debentures are carried in their entirety at fair value in accordance with FASB ASC 815-15-25-4 and the value of the embedded conversion feature is effectively embodied in those fair values.

Changes in the fair value of convertible instruments that are carried in their entirety at fair value (the March 2007, August 2007, April 2008 and May 2008 debentures) are reported as "Gain (loss) from change in fair value of hybrid financial instruments" in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations. The changes in fair value of these hybrid financial instruments were as follows:

	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
	September 30,		September 30,

Gain (loss) from changes in fair value of hybrid instruments	$ 17,631	$(6,941 )	$ 4,203	$ 12,611

The carrying value of our liability for convertible instruments carried at fair value decreased $20.8 million during the three month period ended September 30, 2011. However, the fair values of these liabilities decreased $17.6 million. The difference between the change in carrying value and change in fair value was due to the conversion of $1,142,837 in principal and $59,801 in accrued interest related to the March 2007 debenture which resulted in a decrease in fair value of approximately $3.2 million.

The carrying value of our liability for convertible instruments carried at fair value decreased $9.6 million during the nine month period ended September 30, 2011. However, the fair values of these liabilities decreased $4.2 million. The difference between the change in carrying value and change in fair value was due to the payment of $1.0 million in interest and the conversion of $1,289,958 in principal and $109,801 in accrued interest related to the March 2007 debenture which resulted in a decrease in fair value of approximately $4.4 million.

Changes in the fair value of derivative instrument liabilities related to the bifurcated embedded derivative features of convertible instruments not carried at fair value are reported as "Gain (loss) from change in fair value of derivative liability – Series C and Series D preferred stock and debentures" in the accompanying consolidated statement of operations.

Gain (loss) from change in fair value of derivative liability	$43,727	$(15,561 )	$12,457	$31,263

The carrying value of the derivative liabilities-Series C and Series D preferred stock and debentures decreased $43.7 million during the three month period ended September 30, 2011 resulting from i) $45.1 million decrease in the fair value of the derivative liability, as shown in the table above, ii) less conversion of a portion of the Series C and D preferred stock resulting in a reduction of $1.0 million, iii) an increase of $1,242,000, $868,000 and $303,000 due to the inception date fair value of the derivative liabilities resulting from the July 13, 2011, August 12, 2011 and September 15, 2011 financings, respectively.

The carrying value of the derivative liabilities-Series C and Series D preferred stock and debentures decreased $14.9 million during the nine month period ended September 30, 2011 resulting from i) $15.0 million decrease in the fair value of the derivative liability, as shown in the table above, ii) less conversion of a portion of the Series C preferred stock resulting in a reduction of $5.3 million, iii) less conversion of a portion of the Series D preferred stock resulting in a reduction of $139,000 iv) an increase of $573,000, $744,000, $677,000, $284,000, $310,000, $525,000, $1,242,000, $868,000 and $303,000 due to the inception date fair value of the derivative liabilities resulting from the January 10, 2011, February 8, 2011, March 11, 2011, April 13, 2011, May 31, 2011, June 28, 2011, July 2011, August 2011, September 2011 financings, respectively.

Warrants - YA Global holds warrants to purchase shares of our common stock that were issued in connection with the convertible debentures and the Series C and Series D preferred stock. The warrants are exercisable at a fixed exercise price which, from time to time, has been reduced when the Company has entered into subsequent financing arrangements with a lower price. The exercise prices may be reset again in the future if we subsequently issue stock or enter into a financing arrangement with a lower price.

The warrants issued to YA Global do not meet all of the established criteria for equity classification in FASB ASC 815-40, Derivatives and Hedging – Contracts in Entity’s Own Equity, and accordingly, are recorded as derivative liabilities at fair value. Changes in the fair value of the warrants are charged or credited to income each period.

The warrants are valued using a binomial option valuation methodology because that model embodies all of the relevant assumptions that address the features underlying these instruments. Significant assumptions used in this model as of September 30, 2011 included an expected life equal to the remaining term of the warrants, an expected dividend yield of zero, estimated volatility ranging from 195% to 306%, and risk-free rates of return of 0.02% to 0.17%. For the risk-free rates of return, we use the published yields on zero-coupon Treasury Securities with maturities consistent with the remaining term of the warrants and volatility is based upon our expected stock price volatility over the remaining term of the warrants. To encompass the value of the anti-dilution provisions, the exercise price input into the model equals the lowest price of any subsequently issued common share indexed instruments with a conversion price below the stated exercise price of the warrant.

Changes in the fair value of the warrants are reported as "(Gain) loss from change in fair value of derivative liability - warrants" in the accompanying consolidated statement of operations.

The changes in the fair value of the warrants were as follows:

The carrying value of warrants decreased during the three months ended September 30, 2011 due to warrant fair value adjustments of $568,000 as shown in the table above, less the issuance of warrants on September 15, 2011 with a fair value of $28,000.

The carrying value of warrants decreased during the nine months ended September 30, 2011 due to warrant fair value adjustments of $2.3 million as shown in the table above, less the issuance of warrants on January 10, 2011, February 8, 2011, March 31, 2011, April 13, 2011, May 31, 2011, June 28, 2011 and September 15, 2011 with a fair value of $143,700, $58,800, $38,600, $18,000, $90,000, $104,700 and $28,000 respectively.

Fair Value Considerations – As required by FASB ASC 820, assets and liabilities measured at fair value are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to their fair value measurement. Our derivative financial instruments that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis under FASB ASC 815 are all measured at fair value using Level 3 inputs. Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

Estimating fair values of derivative financial instruments requires the development of significant and subjective estimates that may, and are likely to, change over the duration of the instrument with related changes in internal and external market factors. In addition, valuation techniques are sensitive to changes in the trading market price of our common stock, which has a high estimated historical volatility. Because derivative financial instruments are initially and subsequently carried at fair values, our income will reflect the volatility in these estimate and assumption changes.

Subsequent events

A secured convertible debenture in the amount of $450,000 was issued on October 25, 2011. The debenture is convertible, at the option of the holder, at a conversion price equal to the lesser of (i) $0.10 or (ii) 95% of the lowest closing bid price of our common stock for the 60 trading days preceding the date of conversion. The stated maturity date of the debenture is July 29, 2012.

Subsequent to September 30, 2011, holders of convertible debentures, other than YA Global converted $265,730 of principal and accrued interest on those debentures into 23,453,098 shares of our common stock. Holders of Series C and D preferred stock, other than YA Global converted those securities into 68,095,930 shares of our common stock.

Note 4 – Stock-Based Compensation

A total of 1,022,605 stock options were issued to employees during the nine months ended September 30, 2011, exercisable at strike prices ranging from $0.017 to $0.14 per share.

Total stock-based compensation expense recorded in the statement of operations was $6,000 and $40,200 for the three months ended September 30, 2011 and 2010 and $58,000 and $137,700 for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 and 2010, respectively.

We used the following assumptions to value the stock options granted during the nine months ended September 30, 2011 and 2010:

Note 6 – Contingencies

We are involved in various legal actions arising in the normal course of business, both as claimant and defendant. Although it is not possible to determine with certainty the outcome of these matters, it is the opinion of management that the eventual resolution of the following legal actions is unlikely to have a material adverse effect on our financial position or operating results.

William Klawonn v. Y.A. Global Investments, L.P. and NeoMedia Technologies, Inc. – On April 28, 2010, William Klawonn, a shareholder of NeoMedia, filed a derivative action, in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, against YA Global and us claiming trading activities that violated section 15 U.S.C. § 78p(b). On July 8, 2010, an order was granted in the case stipulating that the plaintiff had agreed that we have no liability in the action.

The order also stipulated that we will be considered a nominal party to the action, and as such we remain subject to the discovery rights and obligations of the action. On December 6, 2010, an order was granted in the case to dismiss for the plaintiff's failure to state a valid claim for relief, without prejudice. However the order also allowed the plaintiff 45 days to amend the complaint. On January 20, 2011, the plaintiff filed an amended complaint. On February 4, 2011, a further order was granted in the case again stipulating that the plaintiff had agreed that we have no liability in the action. The order also again stipulated that we will continue to be considered a nominal party to the action, and as such we remain subject to the discovery rights and obligations of the action. On March 24, 2011, YA Global filed a motion to dismiss the amended complaint and on May 9, 2011, plaintiff filed a memorandum of law in opposition to YA Global's motion to dismiss the amended complaint. On June 8, 2011, YA Global filed a reply memorandum of law in further support of its motion to dismiss the amended complaint. The Court heard oral argument on the motion on August 4, 2011. On August 10, 2011, the Court issued an opinion and order granting the motion to dismiss as to some claims and denying it as to others. The parties are engaged in pretrial discovery, which is expected to continue at least through January 2012. We are not able to predict with any certainty the outcome of this litigation, including the merits or value of the amended complaint.

The Webb Law Firm – On August 25, 2010, we were notified by The Webb Law Firm that they had filed a request for ex parte reexamination with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), of our '048 patent. The request for reexamination asserted that certain claims in our patent are invalid over prior art references not previously before the USPTO. On November 23, 2010, the USPTO issued an office action agreeing to the ex parte reexamination. On November 30, 2010, the USPTO issued a further communication indicating the extent to which the reexamination will evaluate the patent and which claims of the patent would be addressed. On January 29, 2011, we filed an amendment of the '048 patent with the USPTO in response to the reexamination. The amendment proposed several minor changes and clarifications to the '048 patent to address the issues enumerated in the reexamination. On May 23, 2011, the USPTO issued a communication which included a Notice of Intention to Issue Ex Parte Reexamination Certificate, which accepted our proposed amendment to the '048 patent. In so doing, the USPTO has affirmed the validity of the patent. On September 6, 2011, the USPTO issued the Reexamination Certificate, and this matter is now closed.

Baniak Pine & Gannon, LLC, Valauskas & Pine LLC, and McDonnell Boehnen Hulbert & Berghoff LLP - On February 18, 2011, Baniak Pine & Gannon, LLC, Valauskas & Pine LLC, and McDonnell Boehnen Hulbert & Berghoff LLP filed a complaint for injunctive and other relief against us and a member of our Board of Directors, Mr. George G. O'Leary in The United States District Court For The Northern District Of Illinois, Eastern Division. The complaint seeks to recover certain legal fees related to the plaintiffs' services to us and other damages for tortious interference by Mr. O'Leary. On April 21, 2011, we filed a motion to dismiss Mr. O'Leary from the lawsuit and on April 25, 2011, we filed an answer to the complaint. Our bylaws provide for the indemnification of our Directors against complaints such as this and we maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance. On July 6, 2011, the District Court dismissed the claims against Mr. O'Leary with prejudice. On October 18, 2011, the parties settled the matter, and will soon file a stipulation to dismiss the matter with prejudice. The District Court will retain jurisdiction to enforce the settlement.

Note 7 – Geographic Reporting

We are structured and evaluated by our Board of Directors and management as one business unit.

Consolidated net revenues and net income for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011 and 2010, and the identifiable assets as of September 30, 2011, and December 31, 2010, by geographic area were as follows:

In addition to his compensation as a member of our Board, Mr. O'Leary is compensated as our acting Chief Operating Officer under a consulting agreement for which he received $24,750 and $60,750 in compensation from us during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011, respectively.

ITEM 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Overview

NeoMedia Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("NeoMedia", and also referred to herein as "us", "we" and "our"), is a pioneer and a global market leader in 2D mobile barcode technology and infrastructure solutions that enable the mobile barcode ecosystem world-wide. NeoMedia strives to harness the power of the mobile phone in innovative ways with state-of-the-art mobile barcode technology. With this technology, mobile phones with cameras become barcode scanners and this enables a range of practical applications including consumer oriented advertising, mobile ticketing and couponing, and business-to-business commercial track and trace solutions. As a leading technology pioneer in the global mobile barcode industry, we believe that our suite of products, services and IP portfolio makes us the only provider able to offer a comprehensive end-to-end mobile barcode solution. We offer barcode management and infrastructure, reader solutions and IP licensing, as well as mobile couponing and ticketing products and services. Our current direct customers include brand owners and agencies looking to offer innovative mobile barcode solutions to their customer base. Our partners include handset manufacturers, mobile marketing platform providers and value added resellers.

As reported in "eMarketer" (May 2011), the market for barcode services is rapidly developing in several regions around the world. As companies of all sizes begin to recognize the economic potential of mobile barcodes, we continue to focus our efforts on positioning ourselves to take part in this growing marketplace. We are focusing our sales activities primarily in the United States and Europe and are expanding our business development activities, through partnerships, to markets in Africa and South America.

We have focused much of 2011 on strengthening the NeoMedia brand and attempting to grow the industry through ongoing press relations and industry evangelization based on education and best practices. We work closely with our customers to help ensure effective barcode implementations, increase their brand and consumer awareness and ultimately, drive the overall adoption of their mobile barcode initiatives. From our perspective, this evangelization activity has been successful and we believe that the NeoMedia brand is well positioned in the market. From a sales strategy perspective, we are pleased with the results of two of our strategic approaches. The first is the maximization of our patent portfolio through IP licensing, and the second is our focus on partnering with key mobile marketing agencies and/or brand and agencies direct to maximize the reach of our barcode management and infrastructure solutions.

NeoMedia has been involved in, and strived to be an innovator in, the mobile barcode field since the mid-1990s, and during that time has spearheaded the development of a robust IP portfolio that encompasses many preferred mobile implementations. Our IP portfolio currently consists of sixty one issued and pending patents. We have always licensed our portfolio to others in the ecosystem, however, our current IP licensees have generated significantly less revenue for the organization than we had anticipated. As the market for mobile barcodes continues to grow, we believe that these revenues should increase. In September 2011, we announced an agreement with Global IP Law Group to help further monetize our patent portfolio and lead the licensing of our IP focusing on the US market. We are hopeful that our IP licensing activities will begin to show significant results, in the form of new IP licensees, beginning in Q4-11.

Our barcode management and infrastructure solution includes both our barcode reader (NeoReader) as well as our barcode infrastructure solutions (NeoSphere). We continue to enter into strategic agreements with mobile marketing agencies for our services. These companies typically represent brands and mobile technology solutions in Europe and the United States. Currently there are nineteen such agreements signed and we have been seeing increasing campaign activity through these partnerships with leading consumer brands. NeoMedia solutions are now used by a number of Fortune 500 brands in the United States and abroad through both our indirect and direct sales channels. Our most successful campaign to date was with a Fortune 500 brand in the US who generated over 500,000 scans from an in pack campaign over a three month period.

Mobile barcodes have become an increasingly important engagement tool for brands and marketers in 2011 as demonstrated by the rapid increase number of codes created using NeoSphere. Our platform has generated more than 72,000 mobile barcodes for use in marketing and advertising campaigns worldwide and usage on the NeoSphere platform has reached record heights this year for us, experiencing an 1800 percent growth rate over the same time period in 2010. While these figures represent significant successes for NeoMedia, we believe that downward price pressure is occurring in the market given the congested competitive environment for mobile barcode solutions as well as the 'battle' between free and fee based solutions. In order to encourage brands to trial mobile barcodes in their campaigns, we have offered free or low cost trials in order to compete and grow the overall market for mobile barcodes globally. We are hopeful that many of these trials will translate into production deployments over the short term. NeoMedia continues to promote an open and interoperable approach to the market to empower the mobile ecosystem – and deploys a partial indirect (also called managed direct or DNS prefixed) solution for our customers.

We are also seeing consumers beginning to scan mobile barcodes en masse, as evidenced by the codes appearing in all forms of media, and we have seen significant growth in the uptake of our NeoReader product offering. With pre-install agreements with Sony Ericsson and Samsung Electronics Italy, as well as downloadable via our own website, <http://get.neoreader.com>, and the key “app stores” including Android, Apple, Blackberry, Nokia and Ovi, our reader now has a reach to over 16 million consumers. In the past twelve months, NeoReader downloads have increased 1012% and we anticipate that this growth will continue as we improve our discoverability on the major app stores. Our reader is offered free of charge for consumers and we anticipate this growth in consumer utilization will continue and help encourage brand adoption of mobile barcodes. In September 2011, NeoMedia also released NeoReader SDK for Android and iPhone customers which will help to expedite fee based enterprise reader opportunities.

In August 2011, we legally restructured our European subsidiary in Germany to change from an AG legal structure to a GmbH (to become NeoMedia Europe GmbH). This change to legal structure ensures the organization is organized in a manner consistent with the size of company. Our NeoMedia Europe business continues to focus on opportunities for mobile couponing, ticketing and hardware scanning solutions in Europe as well as leads the development of our barcode reader application. While the software business operations in Europe have seen success in terms of Lavasphere Enterprise, NeoReader and NeoReader custom deployments, the hardware business development has been relatively slow. We believe that the slow uptake on our hardware business is due to a number of factors including high equipment cost, point of sale (POS) integration timelines and overall speed of market development. We continue to aggressively evaluate opportunities to maximize the potential for our two hardware scanner products, XELIA and EXIO2 in markets throughout Europe and through partners, in other regions of the world.

NeoMedia has experienced a number of organizational changes in 2011 and we believe that we are now well positioned to support our growing customer base. We have established new staff areas in marketing, sales engineering, sales, information technology and technical support. We have also looked critically at our cost of operations and have reduced considerably in key areas. We have downsized our headquarters in Atlanta and have moved our accounting team into a smaller, more cost-efficient office. We are assessing new locations for our headquarters in the United States and are recruiting additional key staff to the operation.

We have also made some significant additions to our Board of Directors in 2011 and welcome both Sarah Fay and Peter Mannetti. Both bring a wealth of contacts and experience and are welcome additions to the Board of Directors.

We will continue to look critically at our business to ensure that all business lines are effective and contributing to the ongoing success of NeoMedia. We will continue to maximize all revenue opportunities for our business in what we view as a time of market growth and opportunity, with a goal to get to self-sufficiency and profitability as soon as possible.

Management Changes

Effective July 19, 2011, Mr. Michael W. Zima resigned his position as Chief Financial Officer and Corporate Secretary of the Company.

On July 19, 2011, the Board of Directors of the Company appointed Mr. Robert W. Thomson to serve as interim Chief Financial Officer and Corporate Secretary of the Company. Mr. Thomson had previously served as the Company's Corporate Controller.

Comparison of the Three and Nine Months Ended September 30, 2011 and 2010

Results of Operations

We continue to focus on the development of our patent licensing and barcode ecosystem technology. During the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, our operating losses were $1.3 million and $1.4 million, respectively. Our net income was $59.4 million and net loss was $25.6 million for the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively. During the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, our operating losses were $3.7 million and $4.6 million, respectively. Our net income was $12.3 million and $41.5 million for the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively. Our operating results include gains and losses from the change in fair value of our hybrid financial instruments, warrants and debentures. We incur these gains and losses principally as a result of changes in the market value of our common stock. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2011, we reported gains on our hybrid financial instruments, warrants and debentures, totaling $61.9 and $18.9 million, respectively. During the three months ended September 2010, we reported non-cash losses on our hybrid financial instruments, warrants and debentures, totaling $23.6 million, and during the nine months ended September 2010, we reported non-cash gains on our hybrid financial instruments, warrants and debentures, totaling $53.6 million, respectively.

The following table sets forth certain data derived from our consolidated statements of operations:

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2011	2010	2011	2010
	(in thousands)		(in thousands)
Revenues:
Barcode Reader	$19	$22	$361	$89
Barcode Management & Infrastructure	107	5	195	16
IP Licensing	380	277	892	899
Consulting	-	-	2	-
Hardware	18	13	52	175
Other	4	21	162	27
Total revenues	$528	$338	$1,664	$1,206

Revenues. Revenues for the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, were $528,000 and $338,000, an increase of $190,000, or 56%. Revenues for the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively were $1.7 million and $1.2 million, an increase of $458,000 or 38%. Our revenues and product mix have changed as a result of changes in our operations and business strategy. For the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, our Barcode Reader product sales were $19,000 and $22,000, a decrease of $3,000 or 14%, as a result of reduced demand for these products and services. Barcode Reader product sales for the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, were $361,000 and $89,000, an increase of $272,000, or 406%. For the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, our Barcode Management & Infrastructure revenue was $107,000 and $5,000, respectively, an increase of $102,000 or 2,000%. Barcode Management & Infrastructure revenue was $195,000 and $16,000 during the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, an increase of $179,000 or 1,100%. We are focusing additional sales resources on this category in response to opportunities with agencies and brands in the U.S. and Europe. Revenues related to patent licensing agreements were $380,000 and $277,000 during the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, as a result of licensing agreements we entered into in 2009, 2010 and 2011. Revenues related to patent licensing agreements were $892,000 and $899,000 during the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively. We continue to expect our revenues to change as we focus our efforts toward patent licensing, and the barcode ecosystem. We believe this focus will deliver the most value in the future. For the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, our hardware product sales were $18,000 and $13,000, an increase of $5,000 or 38%. For the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, hardware product sales were $52,000 and $175,000, a decrease of $123,000 or 337%. Our hardware products tend to be sold in large transactions and revenues can fluctuate significantly from period to period.

Cost of Revenues. Cost of revenues was $324,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2011 compared with $236,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2010, an increase of $88,000, or 37%. Cost of revenues was $799,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared with $830,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2010, a decrease of $31,000, or 4%. Cost of revenues for NeoMedia Europe, related to our hardware products, was $9,000 and $5,000 for the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, and was $15,000 and $133,000 for the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively. Amortization costs related to our patents and the proprietary software of NeoMedia Europe was $235,000 and $231,000 for the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, and was $705,000 and $697,000 for the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively.

Sales and Marketing. Sales and marketing expenses were $217,000 and $231,000 for the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, a decrease of $14,000, or 6%, and $838,000 and $812,000 for the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, an increase of $26,000, or 3%. We expect that our sales and marketing expense will increase slowly in 2011 as we promote our business strategy and core technology.

General and Administrative. General and administrative expenses were $830,000 and $835,000 for the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, a decrease of $5,000, or 1%, and $2.4 million and $3.0 million for the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, a decrease of $520,000, or 18%. Expenses decreased as a result of decreased payroll costs, professional services fees related to legal and accounting, as well as business related travel as we continue our efforts to control expenses.

Research and Development. Research and development expenses were $481,000 and $465,000 for the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, an increase of $16,000, or 3%, and $1.3 million and $1.2 million for the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, an increase of $145,000, or 12%. Research and development increased as we continued the development of our barcode ecosystem products.

Loss from Operations. For the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, our loss from operations was $1.3 million and $1.4 million. For the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, our loss from operations decreased to $3.7 million, from $4.6 million. This improvement was primarily the result of increases in our gross margin and decreased general and administrative expenses, partially offset by increases in sales and marketing and research and development costs.

Gain (Loss) from Change in Fair Value of Hybrid Financial Instruments. We carry certain of our debentures at fair value, in accordance with FASB ASC 815-15-25, and do not separately account for the embedded conversion feature. The change in the fair value of these liabilities includes changes in the value of the accrued interest due under these instruments, as well as changes in the fair value of the common stock underlying the instruments. For the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, the liability related to these hybrid instruments decreased during 2011, and increased during 2010, resulting in a gain of $17.6 million and a loss of $6.9 million, respectively. For the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, the liability related to these hybrid instruments decreased during 2011 and 2010, resulting in a gain of $4.2 million and $12.6 million, respectively. These fair value changes were primarily the result of fluctuations in the value of our common stock during the periods. Because our stock price has been volatile and because many of our hybrid financial instruments include relatively low fixed conversion prices, it is possible that further fluctuations in the market price of our stock could cause the fair value of our hybrid financial instruments to change significantly in future periods. The fair values of our hybrid financial instruments are subject to volatility so long as the related debentures are outstanding in their present form. These instruments will no longer be volatile if they are converted into common stock.

Gain (Loss) from Change in Fair Value of Derivative Liabilities - Warrants. We account for our outstanding common stock warrants that were issued in connection with our preferred stock and our debentures, at fair value. For the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, the liability related to warrants fluctuated resulting in a gain of $568,000 and a loss of $1.1 million, respectively. For the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, the liability related to warrants decreased resulting in a gain of $2.3 million and $9.8 million, respectively. These fair value changes were primarily the result of fluctuations in the value of our common stock during the period. Because our stock price has been volatile and because many of our warrants include relatively low fixed exercise prices it is possible that further fluctuations in the market price of our common stock could cause the fair value of our warrants to change significantly in future periods. The derivative liabilities are subject to volatility so long as the warrants are outstanding in their present form. These instruments will no longer be volatile upon their exercise into common stock.

Gain (Loss) from Change in Fair Value of Derivative Liabilities - Series C and D Preferred Stock and Debentures. For our Series C and D preferred stock, and certain of our debentures, we account for the embedded conversion feature separately as a derivative financial instrument. We carry these derivative financial instruments at fair value. For the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, the liability related to the derivative instruments embedded in the Series C and D preferred stock and these debentures decreased during 2011 and increased during 2010, resulting in a gain of $45.7 million and a loss of $15.6 million, respectively. For the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, the liability related to the derivative instruments embedded in the Series C and D preferred stocks and these debentures decreased during 2011 and 2010, resulting in a gain of $12.5 million and $31.3 million, respectively. These fair value changes were primarily the result of fluctuations in the value of our common stock during the period. Because our stock price has been volatile and because many of our derivative financial instruments include relatively low fixed conversion prices, it is possible that further fluctuations in the market price of our common stock could cause the fair value of our derivative financial instruments to change significantly in future periods. The derivative liabilities are subject to volatility so long as the preferred stock or debentures are outstanding in their present form. These instruments will no longer be volatile upon their conversion into common stock.

Interest Expense Related to Convertible Debt. Interest expense related to debentures that are carried at amortized cost and which are not carried as hybrid financial instruments at fair value was $1.2 million and $595,000 for the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, respectively, and $2.8 million and $1.6 million for the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010. These fluctuations in interest expense were primarily the result of increased debenture financing during the three and nine months ended September 2011.

Net Income (Loss). As a result of the above, during the three months ended September 2011 and 2010, we experienced net income of $59.4 million and a net loss of $25.6 million, respectively. This increase in net income resulted primarily from gains in the fair value of our hybrid and derivative instruments during the three months ended September 2011 compared with a loss in 2010. During the nine months ended September 2011 and 2010, we experienced net income of $12.4 million and net income of $41.5 million, respectively. This decrease in net income resulted primarily from losses in the fair value of our hybrid and derivative instruments during the nine months ended September 2011 compared with gains in 2010, partially offset by a loss on extinguishment of debt of approximately $5.6 million during the nine months ended September 2010.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of September 30, 2011, we had $250,000 in cash and cash equivalents, an increase of $170,000, or 213%, compared with $80,000 as of December 31, 2010.

Cash used in operating activities decreased to $3.5 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 compared with $4.7 million for the period ended September 30, 2010, representing decreased operational expenses.

Cash used in investing activities was $6,000 and $13,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 and 2010, respectively, representing the purchase of equipment.

Cash provided by financing activities during the nine months ended September 2011 was $3.7 million, which included the following:

- Gross proceeds of $450,000 in connection with a Secured Debenture entered into with YA Global on January 10, 2011, accruing interest at 14% per annum and payable on the maturity date of July 29, 2012, less structuring and due diligence fees of $25,000, resulting in net proceeds of $425,000; and

- Gross proceeds of $650,000 in connection with a Secured Debenture entered into with YA Global on February 8, 2011, accruing interest at 14% per annum and payable on the maturity date of July 29, 2012, less structuring and due diligence fee of $40,000, resulting in net proceeds of $610,000; and
- Gross proceeds of $450,000 in connection with a Secured Debenture entered into with YA Global on March 11, 2011, accruing interest at 14% per annum and payable on the maturity date of July 29, 2012, less structuring and due diligence fee of $25,000, resulting in net proceeds of $425,000; and
- Gross proceeds of $450,000 in connection with a Secured Debenture entered into with YA Global on April 13, 2011, accruing interest at 14% per annum and payable on the maturity date of July 29, 2012, less structuring and due diligence fees of $25,000, resulting in net proceeds of $425,000; and
- Gross proceeds of $450,000 in connection with a Secured Debenture entered into with YA Global on May 31, 2011, accruing interest at 14% per annum and payable on the maturity date of July 29, 2012, less structuring and due diligence fee of $25,000, resulting in net proceeds of $425,000; and
- Gross proceeds of $250,000 in connection with a Secured Debenture entered into with YA Global on June 28, 2011, accruing interest at 14% per annum and payable on the maturity date of July 29, 2012, less structuring and due diligence fee of $100,000, resulting in net proceeds of $150,000. The structuring and due diligence fees in connection with this debenture, will also be applied to satisfy and provide for the next two scheduled debenture financings; the first of which occurred on July 13, 2011, and the second of which is scheduled to occur on or before August 15, 2011; and
- Gross proceeds of $450,000 in connection with a Secured Debenture entered into with YA Global on July 13, 2011, accruing interest at 14% per annum and payable on the maturity date of July 29, 2012. There were no structuring or due diligence fee deducted from the gross proceeds of this financing since they were satisfied with the June 28, 2011 financing, resulting in net proceeds of $450,000; and
- Gross proceeds of $350,000 in connection with a Secured Debenture entered into with YA Global on August 13, 2011, accruing interest at 14% per annum and payable on the maturity date of July 29, 2012. There were no structuring or due diligence fee deducted from the gross proceeds of this financing since they were satisfied with the June 28, 2011 financing, resulting in net proceeds of $350,000; and
- Gross proceeds of $450,000 in connection with a Secured Debenture entered into with YA Global on September 15, 2011, accruing interest at 14% per annum and payable on the maturity date of July 29, 2012, less structuring and due diligence fee of $25,000, resulting in net proceeds of $425,000.

Conversions of our preferred stock or debentures into common stock have a positive effect on our liquidity. During the three months ended September 30, 2011, investors converted 671 shares of Series C preferred stock, 1,399 shares of Series D preferred stock, and $1,202,638 of principal and accrued interest on the convertible debentures. Cumulatively, as of September 30, 2011, investors have converted 16,567 shares of Series C preferred stock, 1,399 shares of Series D preferred stock, and $2,287,759 of principal and accrued interest on the convertible debentures. These conversions have reduced the carrying value of the Derivative financial instruments, the Series C and D preferred stock, the Debentures payable carried at fair value, and the Series C and D convertible preferred stock, and as a result, have strengthened our balance sheet.

Subsequent Event

On October 25, 2011, we entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement and issued and sold a secured debenture to YA Global in the principal amount of $450,000. The debenture is convertible at the option of the holder, at a conversion price equal to the lesser of (i) $0.10 or (ii) 95% of the lowest closing bid price of our common stock for the 60 trading days preceding the date of conversion. The stated maturity date of the debenture is July 29, 2012.

Going Concern – We have historically incurred net losses from operations and we expect that we will continue to have negative cash flows as we implement our business plan. There can be no assurance that our continuing efforts to execute our business plan will be successful and that we will be able to continue as a going concern. The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“US GAAP”), which contemplates our continuation as a going concern. Net income for the nine months ended September 30, 2011 and 2010, respectively, was $12.4 million and $41.5 million, of which $18.9 million and $47.6 million, respectively, were net gains related to our financing instruments. Net cash used by operations during the nine months ended September 30, 2011 and 2010 was $3.5 million and $4.7 million, respectively. At September 30, 2011, we have an accumulated deficit of $232.0 million. We also have a working capital deficit of $65.0 million, of which $47.2 million is related to our financing instruments, including $18.3 million related to the fair value of warrants and those debentures that are recorded as hybrid financial instruments, and $28.9 million related to the amortized cost carrying value of certain of our debentures and the fair value of the associated derivative liabilities. We also have a continuing purchase price guarantee obligation of $4.5 million associated with an acquisition of a business in 2006, which we subsequently sold in 2007.

The items discussed above raise substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern.

We currently do not have sufficient cash, or commitments for financing, to sustain our operations for the next twelve months. We will require additional financing in order to execute our operating plan and continue as a going concern. Our management's plan is to secure adequate funding to bridge the commercialization of our patent licensing and barcode ecosystem businesses. We cannot predict whether this additional financing will be in the form of equity, debt, or another form and we may not be able to obtain the necessary additional capital on a timely basis, on acceptable terms, or at all. In the event that these financing sources do not materialize, or that we are unsuccessful in increasing our revenues and profits, we may be unable to implement our current plans for expansion, repay our debt obligations as they become due or respond to competitive pressures, any of which circumstances would have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. Should our lender, YA Global choose not to provide us with continued financing, as they have in the past, or if we do not find alternative sources of financing to fund our operations or if we are unable to generate significant product revenues, we only have sufficient funds to sustain our current operations through approximately December 8, 2011.

The financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and reclassification of recorded asset amounts or the amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should we be unable to continue as a going concern.

Sources of Cash and Projected Cash Requirements - As of September 30, 2011, our cash balance was $250,000. NeoMedia's use of YA Global as a financing source has certain ramifications that could affect future liquidity and business operations. For example, pursuant to the terms of the debenture agreements between us and YA Global, without YA Global's consent we cannot (i) issue or sell any shares of our common stock or our preferred stock without consideration or for consideration per share less than the closing bid price immediately prior to its issuance, (ii) issue or sell any preferred stock, warrant, option, right, contract, call, or other security or instrument granting the holder thereof the right to acquire our common stock for consideration per share less than the closing bid price immediately prior to its issuance, (iii) enter into any security instrument granting the holder a security interest in any of our assets or (iv) file any registration statements on Form S-8. In addition, pursuant to security agreements between us and YA Global, YA Global has a security interest in all of our assets. Such covenants could severely harm our ability to raise additional funds from sources other than YA Global, and would likely result in a higher cost of capital in the event we secured funding.

Additionally, pursuant to the terms of the Investment Agreement between us and YA Global in connection with our Series C preferred stock, we cannot (i) enter into any debt arrangements in which we are the borrower, (ii) grant any security interest in any of our assets or (iii) grant any security below market price.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

There have been no material changes to our critical accounting policies and estimates from the information provided in Item 7, "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010.

ITEM 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

We are a “smaller reporting company” as defined by Rule 12b-2 of the Exchange Act and are not required to provide information under this item.

ITEM 4. Controls and Procedures

Disclosure Controls and Procedures - Our management, with the participation of our Acting CEO and our Interim CFO, have evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act) as of the end of the period covered by this report.

These controls are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the reports we file or submit pursuant to the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the rules and forms of the SEC, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Acting CEO and Interim CFO, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Based on this evaluation, our Acting CEO and Interim CFO concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as of September 30, 2011 at a reasonable assurance level, because of material weaknesses with respect to entity level controls over financial reporting, identified as of December 31, 2010, which we are in the process of remediating. Such weaknesses were:

• Our senior management did not establish and maintain a proper tone as to internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2010. Specifically, our senior management was unable, due to time constraints, to promptly address all of the control weaknesses brought to their attention throughout this and the previous year’s audit; and

• We, through our senior management, failed to maintain formalized accounting policies and procedures as of December 31, 2010. Once implemented, the policies and procedures should provide guidance to accounting personnel in the proper treatment and recording of financial transactions, as well as proper internal controls over financial reporting.

As noted, we have commenced efforts to address the material weaknesses in our internal control over financial reporting and the ineffectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and, although remediation efforts are underway, the above material weaknesses will not be considered remediated until new controls over financial reporting are fully designed and operating effectively for an adequate period of time.

Notwithstanding the material weaknesses described above, we believe that our consolidated financial statements presented in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q fairly present, in all material respects, our financial position, results of operations, and cash flows as of the end of the period covered herein.

Inherent Limitations - Our management, including our Acting CEO and Interim CFO, does not expect that our disclosure controls and procedures will prevent all error and all fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. The design of any system of controls is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within our company have been detected. These inherent limitations include the realities that judgments in decision-making can be faulty, and that breakdown can occur because of simple error or mistake. In particular, many of our current processes rely upon manual reviews and processes to ensure that neither human error nor system weakness has resulted in erroneous reporting of financial data.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting - There were no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the period ended September 30, 2011 which were identified in conjunction with management's evaluation required by paragraph (d) of Rules 13a-15 and 15d-15 under the Exchange Act, that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. Legal Proceedings

We are involved in various legal actions arising in the normal course of business, both as claimant and defendant. Although it is not possible to determine with certainty the outcome of these matters, it is the opinion of management that the eventual resolution of the following legal actions is unlikely to have a material adverse effect on our financial position or operating results.

William Klawonn v. Y.A. Global Investments, L.P. and NeoMedia Technologies, Inc. – On April 28, 2010, William Klawonn, a shareholder of NeoMedia, filed a derivative action, in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, against YA Global and us claiming trading activities that violated section 15 U.S.C. § 78p(b). On July 8, 2010, an order was granted in the case stipulating that the plaintiff had agreed that we have no liability in the action. The order also stipulated that we will be considered a nominal party to the action, and as such we remain subject to the discovery rights and obligations of the action. On December 6, 2010, an order was granted in the case to dismiss for the plaintiff's failure to state a valid claim for relief, without prejudice. However the order also allowed the plaintiff 45 days to amend the complaint. On January 20, 2011, the plaintiff filed an amended complaint. On February 4, 2011, a further order was granted in the case again stipulating that the plaintiff had agreed that we have no liability in the action. The order also again stipulated that we will continue to be considered a nominal party to the action, and as such we remain subject to the discovery rights and obligations of the action. On March 24, 2011, YA Global filed a motion to dismiss the amended complaint and on May 9, 2011, plaintiff filed a memorandum of law in opposition to YA Global's motion to dismiss the amended complaint. On June 8, 2011, YA Global filed a reply memorandum of law in further support of its motion to dismiss the amended complaint. The Court heard oral argument on the motion on August 4, 2011. On August 10, 2011, the Court issued an opinion and order granting the motion to dismiss as to some claims and denying it as to others. The parties are engaged in pretrial discovery, which is expected to continue at least through January 2012. We are not able to predict with any certainty the outcome of this litigation, including the merits or value of the amended complaint.

The Webb Law Firm – On August 25, 2010, we were notified by The Webb Law Firm that they had filed a request for ex parte reexamination with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), of our '048 patent. The request for reexamination asserted that certain claims in our patent are invalid over prior art references not previously before the USPTO. On November 23, 2010, the USPTO issued an office action agreeing to the ex parte reexamination. On November 30, 2010, the USPTO issued a further communication indicating the extent to which the reexamination will evaluate the patent and which claims of the patent would be addressed. On January 29, 2011, we filed an amendment of the '048 patent with the USPTO in response to the reexamination. The amendment proposed several minor changes and clarifications to the '048 patent to address the issues enumerated in the reexamination. On May 23, 2011, the USPTO issued a communication which included a Notice of Intention to Issue Ex Parte Reexamination Certificate, which accepted our proposed amendment to the '048 patent. In so doing, the USPTO has affirmed the validity of the patent. On September 6, 2011, the USPTO issued the Reexamination Certificate, and this matter is now closed.

Baniak Pine & Gannon, LLC, Valauskas & Pine LLC, and McDonnell Boehnen Hulbert & Berghoff LLP - On February 18, 2011, Baniak Pine & Gannon, LLC, Valauskas & Pine LLC, and McDonnell Boehnen Hulbert & Berghoff LLP filed a complaint for injunctive and other relief against us and a member of our Board of Directors, Mr. George G. O'Leary in The United States District Court For The Northern District Of Illinois, Eastern Division. The complaint seeks to recover certain legal fees related to the plaintiffs' services to us and other damages for tortious interference by Mr. O'Leary. On April 21, 2011, we filed a motion to dismiss Mr. O'Leary from the lawsuit and on April 25, 2011, we filed an answer to the complaint. Our bylaws provide for the indemnification of our Directors against complaints such as this and we maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance. On July 6, 2011, the District Court dismissed the claims against Mr. O'Leary with prejudice. On October 18, 2011, the parties settled the matter, and will soon file a stipulation to dismiss the matter with prejudice. The District Court will retain jurisdiction to enforce the settlement.
