Item 8.01 Other Events.

On April 8, 2015, Interparfums SA, our majority owned Paris-based subsidiary, and Coach, Inc. (NYSE: COH; SEHK: 6388), a leading New York design house of modern luxury accessories and lifestyle collections, entered into an 11-year exclusive worldwide fragrance license agreement. Under the agreement, Interparfums SA will create, produce and distribute new perfumes and fragrance-related products, including new men's and women's scents. Interparfums will distribute these fragrances globally to department and specialty stores and duty free shops, as well as in Coach retail stores beginning fall 2016. The license agreement is subject to certain minimum sales, advertising expenditures and royalty payments as are customary in our industry.

Forward Looking Statements

Statements in this report which are not historical in nature are forward-looking statements. Although we believe that our plans, intentions and expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, we can give no assurance that such plans, intentions or expectations will be achieved. In some cases you can identify forward-looking statements by forward-looking words such as "anticipate," "believe," "could," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "may," "should," "will" and "would" or similar words. You should not rely on forward-looking statements because actual events or results may differ materially from those indicated by these forward-looking statements as a result of a number of important factors. These factors include, but are not limited to, the risks and uncertainties discussed under the headings "Forward Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors" in Inter Parfums' annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 and the reports Inter Parfums files from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We do not intend to and undertake no duty to update the information contained in this report.
