Notice in regard to Delisting of Canon Inc. 4th Series Unsecured Convertible Debentures

Due to applicability of article 4, section 2, clause 1 of special regulations regarding delisting standards of the securities listing regulations, the 4th Series Unsecured Convertible Debentures (the Convertible Bonds) that Canon Inc. (the Company) issued on November 24, 1993, will be delisted. Details are provided below.

1. Reason for the Delisting.

Due to advanced conversion of the Convertible Bonds into common stock, as of June 2, 2005, the outstanding amount of the Convertible Bonds, which is also the total face value of the amount listed, was below 300 million yen. Since the outstanding amount of the Convertible Bonds did not fulfill the listing standards of the Tokyo Stock Exchange and Osaka Securities Exchange, the Convertible Bonds will be delisted from both the exchanges.

2. Delisting Date

July 4, 2005

Note: The Convertible Bonds issued by the Company will be assigned to the exchanges pre-delisting section from June 4, 2005 to July 3, 2005 where trading can be conducted up to and including July 1, 2005. Delisting occurs on July 4, 2005.

3. Items in regard to the relevant Convertible Bonds

(1) Name	Canon Inc. 4th Series Unsecured Convertible Debentures
(2) Outstanding Amount	288 million yen (as of June 2, 2005)
(3) Conversion Price	1,497 yen
(4) Securities Issued	Common stock

4. Future handling of the relevant Convertible Bonds

Although the Convertible Bonds will be delisted on July 4, 2005, the date of maturity and the expiry date of the conversion period in regard to the Convertible Bonds are December 20, 2005 and December 19, 2005, respectively. Even after the delisting of the Convertible Bonds, based on predetermined procedures, conversion into listed common stock up to and including the expiry date of the conversion period is possible.
