Item 8.01. Other Events.

As previously reported in the Company's 2004 Form 10-K and March 31, 2005 Form 10-Q, in July 2003 Nokia Corporation ("Nokia") filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas a motion to intervene and to gain access to documents previously sealed by the Court in the now-settled litigation between InterDigital Communications Corporation (the "Company"), InterDigital Technology Corporation and Ericsson, Inc. ("Ericsson Litigation"). We filed a response opposing the request to intervene and opposing the request for access to the documents. The trial court granted Nokia's motion to intervene in the Ericsson Litigation and provided Nokia with document access on a limited basis. Nokia subsequently filed a motion to reinstate certain orders that were vacated in the Ericsson Litigation, which motion was granted by the trial court. We appealed that ruling to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

On August 4, 2005 the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals ruled in favor of the Company and reversed the trial court's order, finding that the district court had committed error in permitting Nokia to intervene. The Federal Circuit Court of Appeals reversed the trial court's decisions which had both granted intervention and reinstated the prior vacated orders, which orders had been vacated as part of the settlement of the Ericsson Litigation.
