News release
Converium Holding Ltd, Zug

Zug, Switzerland - April 17, 2007 - Converium Files Lawsuit Against SCOR S.A. and Patinex AG Alleging Violations of United States Securities Laws.

On April 16, 2007, Converium filed a complaint in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against SCOR and Patinex. The complaint alleges that the defendants violated Sections 13(d), 14(d), and 14(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, because, among other things, (i) SCOR has unlawfully and unfairly excluded Converium's United States shareholders, a group which we believe represents approximately 22% of Converium's outstanding shares, from participating in SCOR's unsolicited tender offer, and (ii) defendants failed to make proper disclosures in connection with their purchase and ownership of Converium securities.

Edgar Filing: CONVERIUM HOLDING AG - Form 6-K

Converium is seeking an expedited discovery and briefing schedule so as to permit a hearing on a motion for preliminary injunction prior May 22, 2007, which (unless extended) is currently the last date on which Converium shareholders may tender shares in connection with SCOR's unsolicited tender offer.

Among other things, Converium is seeking an order enjoining SCOR from consummating the offer until SCOR and Patinex have complied with their obligations under the Williams Act, including SCOR extending the offer to Converium's United States shareholders and ADS holders.
