Item 5. Other Events and Regulation FD Disclosure

On July 10, 2002, the Florida Attorney General's Office announced the resolution of its privacy investigation regarding Eckerd Corporation's patient information programs. Without admitting any wrongdoing, Eckerd agreed to make changes to its customer authorization procedures in connection with certain of its patient information programs, and a $1 million donation to the Florida A&M University School of Pharmacy to create an endowed chair faculty position.

Separately, the Florida Attorney General's Office has informed Eckerd that it has closed its investigation into Eckerd's handling of metric decimal quantity prescriptions without taking any action against Eckerd.
