Item 1.02 – Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

On September 22, 2016, First Bancorp (the “Company”) issued a press release reporting that its wholly owned subsidiary, First Bank, entered into an agreement on September 22, 2016 with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”) to terminate all existing loss share agreements with the FDIC. First Bank made a payment of $2.0 million to the FDIC and all rights and obligations related to payments under the agreements were terminated. As a result of the settlement, First Bancorp expects to record a pretax expense of approximately $5.7 million during the quarter ending September 30, 2016, which primarily relates to the write-off of the remaining indemnification asset associated with the agreements. The loss share agreements were related to two failed bank acquisitions from 2009 and 2011. A copy of the Press Release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

The foregoing description of the termination agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the termination agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01 – Financial Statements and Exhibits

Exhibit 10.1 Termination Agreement Among the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Receiver of Cooperative Bank, Wilmington, North Carolina, and The Bank of Asheville, Asheville, North Carolina and First Bank dated as of September 22, 2016

Exhibit 99.1 News Release dated September 22, 2016

Disclosures About Forward Looking Statements

The discussions included in this document and its exhibits may contain forward looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Act of 1995, including Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933. Such statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results to differ materially. For the purposes of these discussions, any statements that are not statements of historical fact may be deemed to be forward looking statements. Such statements are often characterized by the use of qualifying words such as “expects,” “anticipates,” “believes,” “estimates,” “plans,” “projects” or other statements concerning opinions or judgments of the Company and its management about future events. The accuracy of such forward looking statements could be affected by such factors as, including but not limited to, the financial success or changing conditions or strategies of the Company’s customers or vendors, fluctuations in interest rates, actions of government regulators, the availability of capital and personnel or general economic conditions.
