EXHIBIT 1

Alvarion Refines Operating Activities and Implements
Profitability Initiatives

Tel Aviv, Israel, June 6, 2012 – Alvarion® Ltd. (NASDAQ: ALVR), a provider of optimized wireless broadband solutions addressing the connectivity, coverage and capacity challenges of public and private networks, today announced that it will be streamlining the company's operations and implementing certain cost reduction initiatives intended to help achieve profitability.

Having completed a major technology investment cycle, the company is moving to improve execution by better responding to customer requirements through improved go-to-market effectiveness, shorter decision cycles, and by enhancing products to address market needs. The company will also reduce expenses including a global wage reduction for all employees, along with adjustments to headcount.

Hezi Lapid, President and CEO of Alvarion stated, "We believe that the new initiatives will enable the company to move towards stability, while we continue to invest in its growth engines, and develop new product innovations. We believe that the new organizational structure will be managed effectively and profitably to serve the needs of our customers."

About Alvarion
