ITEM 5.02 DEPARTURE OF DIRECTORS OR PRINCIPAL OFFICERS; ELECTION OF DIRECTORS; APPOINTMENT OF PRINCIPAL OFFICERS

On January 4, 2006, Mr. Wallace Mays was appointed as Chairman of the Board and a Director of Lakefield Ventures Inc. (the Company), by written consent of the Board of Directors of the Company.

Mr. Mays is a recognized expert in the reclamation of uranium mines, both In-Situ Leach (ISL) and underground. He is President of CIMA Energy Corporation, a private corporation, which manages reclamation of uranium mine sites. He is also President of WM Mining Company, a private corporation that owns and develops uranium projects in Mongolia and the USA. Mr. Mays is currently Chief Operations Manager at URASIA Energy Ltd. (TSXV:UUU) which to date has raised more than USD $400 Million in capital.

Mr. Mays' extensive and impressive work history began with a stint as a Nuclear Weapons Officer with the US Navy. Shortly thereafter he entered the commercial oil refining and chemicals industry and held positions of progressive responsibility with several companies.

His career in the uranium industry started in 1974, when he became Engineering Manager, responsible for the design, construction and operation of the first ISL uranium mine in the USA. Since then, he has held a number of senior positions with Everest Minerals Corporation, where he developed and operated four ISL uranium mines in Texas, and the Highlands ISL uranium mine in Wyoming (Power Resources Inc.) where he was responsible for marketing uranium and was Technical Director of the Highlands mine.

Mr. Mays managed ISL and other uranium-related projects for Concord Services Inc. He directed the planning of the Arizona Strip mine and acquisition of ISL properties in Mongolia for Energy Fuels Nuclear Inc. Additionally, while with Energy Fuels, he oversaw the acquisition of the Reno Creek project, leasing of the Dewey Burdock project, and acquisition from Union Carbide of its interest in the White Mesa mill.

Mr. Richard L. Bachman, President of Lakefield Ventures Inc., stated, Wallace brings a technical expertise and knowledge of the uranium business that will be a welcome addition to our management team. His hands-on experience developing and managing uranium mines, coupled with his connections within the global uranium market will be a tremendous asset to Lakefield.

About Lakefield Ventures Inc.

Our vision for Lakefield is to build a uranium production company through the acquisition of late stage uranium projects; and then, engineer and build low cost, environmentally responsible mines. We intend to seek strategic partnerships in our operating areas and expand our resource base through exploration. At its heart Lakefield is committed to becoming a profitable producer and marketer of uranium.
