The Merger

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, on April 5, 2006, each of Premium Acquisition, Inc. (Merger Co 1), Mulberry Acquisition, Inc. (Merger Co 2) and DLJMB IV First Merger Co Acquisition Inc. (Merger Co 3), and each of Merger Co 1, Merger Co 2 and Merger Co 3, a Merger Co) merged with and into the Company, with the Company being the surviving corporation (the Merger). Upon consummation of the Merger, (i) each share of common stock of the Company, par value $0.01 per share (except for dissenting shares, shares held by certain senior managers of the Company and shares held in the Company s agent stock accumulation plans), was converted into the right to receive $37.00 in cash; (ii) each share of common stock of the Company held by certain senior managers of the Company was renamed Class A-1 Common Stock; (iii) each share of common stock of the Company beneficially owned through the Company s agent stock accumulation plans by the Company s independent insurance agents was converted into one share of Class A-2 Common Stock, par value $.01 per share, of the Company; and (iv) each share of common stock of each Merger Co was converted into one share of Class A-1 Common Stock of the Company. The Mulberry Entities held 6,756,756.7567 shares of common stock of Merger Co 2, which were converted into 6,756,756.7567 shares of Class A-1 Common Stock in the Merger. In connection with the Merger, the Company transferred substantially all of its assets and liabilities to HealthMarkets, LLC (HealthMarkets), a Delaware limited liability company and wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company.

The aggregate amount of cash consideration paid to former stockholders of the Company in the Merger was $1,611,618,324. This cash consideration was funded by (i) equity contributions of $610,000,000 by certain affiliates of The Blackstone Group, $250,000,000 by the Mulberry Entities, and $125,000,000 by certain affiliates of DLJ Merchant Banking Partners; (ii) borrowings of $500,000,000 under a senior credit facility of HealthMarkets, LLC; (iii) the issuance by HealthMarkets, LLC of $103,100,000 aggregate principal amount of junior subordinated notes to HealthMarkets Capital Trust I and HealthMarkets Capital Trust II, which issued to several third party investors preferred stock having an aggregate liquidation value of $100,000,000; and (iv) available cash of the Company. As a result of the Merger, (i) Blackstone Capital Partners IV L.P., Blackstone Capital Partners IV-A L.P., Blackstone Family Investment Partnership IV-A L.P. and Blackstone Participation Partnership IV, L.P. (collectively, the Blackstone Investors) acquired an aggregate of 16,486,486.4865 shares of Class A-1 Common Stock, representing approximately 61.5% of the total outstanding shares of Class A-1 Common Stock, (ii) the Mulberry Entities acquired 6,756,756.7567 shares of Class A-1 Common Stock, representing approximately 25.2% of the total outstanding shares of Class A-1 Common Stock, and (iii) DLJ Merchant Banking Partners IV, L.P., DLJ Offshore Partners IV, L.P., MBP IV Plan Investors, L.P., CSFB Strategic Partners Holdings III, L.P. and CSFB Strategic Partners Parallel Holdings III, L.P. (collectively, the DLJ Investors) acquired an aggregate of 3,378,378.3784 shares of Class A-1 Common Stock, representing approximately 12.6% of the total outstanding shares of Class A-1 Common Stock.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2 hereto and is incorporated by reference in its entirety into this Item 6.

In connection with the Merger, the Company amended and restated its certificate of incorporation and bylaws, which are filed as Exhibits 3 and 4 hereto and are incorporated by reference in their entirety into this Item 6. On April 17, 2006, the Company amended its certificate of incorporation to change its name from UICI to HealthMarkets, Inc. The certificate of amendment is filed as Exhibit 5 hereto. The Company has applied to delist its Class A-1 Common Stock from the New York Stock Exchange.

Stockholders Agreement

In connection with the Merger, the Mulberry Entities entered into a Stockholders Agreement, dated as of April 5, 2006 (the Stockholders Agreement) with the Company, the Blackstone Investors, the DLJ Investors, and the management stockholders named therein (the Management Stockholders).

Composition of the Board of Directors

The Stockholders Agreement provides that following the Merger, the initial board of directors of the Company will consist of:

up to up to 6 directors nominated or designated by the Blackstone Investors and any permitted transferee thereof (collectively, the Blackstone Investor Group);

up to 2 directors nominated or designated by the Mulberry Entities and any permitted transferee thereof (collectively, the GS Investor Group);

up to one director nominated or designated by the DLJ Investors and any permitted transferee thereof (collectively, the DLJ Investor Group and each of the Blackstone Investor Group, GS Investor Group and DLJ Investor Group, an Investor Group);

one member of management of the Company to be nominated by Investor Groups holding a majority of the Class A-1 Common Stock held by the Investor Groups (Management Director); and additional directors, including directors who may be considered independent under various definitions of the Securities and Exchange Commission and stock exchanges to the extent deemed necessary or advisable (Additional Director).

Pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement, the Blackstone Investors designated Messrs. Chinh E. Chu and Matthew S. Kabaker, the Mulberry Entities designated Mr. Jones and Mr. Zilka, and the DLJ Investors designated Mr. Kamil M. Salame, as members of the board of directors of the Company. In addition, Mr. William J. Gedwed, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and Mr. Mural R. Josephson have been appointed to the board of directors of the Company as Management Director and Additional Director, respectively.

The allocation of board representation to the Investor Groups will be reduced as the ownership interest of Class A-1 Common Stock of such Investor Group is reduced. The Blackstone Investor Group will have the ability to designate a majority of the directors for so long as it holds a majority of the shares of Class A-1 Common Stock issued to the Investor Groups in the Merger. Each Investor Group will lose its right to designate directors entirely when its ownership of shares of Class A-1 Common Stock is less than the greater of (i) five percent of the shares of Class A-1 Common Stock issued to the Investor Groups in the Merger and (ii) three percent of the then-outstanding shares of Class A-1 Common Stock. Generally, each director will have one vote. However, if the Blackstone Investor Group nominates or designates fewer than the maximum number of directors to which they are entitled, then the directors nominated or designated by the Blackstone Investor Group will have aggregate voting power on board matters equal to the maximum number of directors that the Blackstone Investor Group is entitled to nominate or designate divided by the number of directors they have actually nominated or designated.

Approval Rights

The Stockholders Agreement provides that without the approval of directors designated by at least two Investor Groups, in addition to any customary board approval, the Company will not, and will cause its subsidiaries not to, take certain actions, including:

certain mergers, consolidations, business combinations, reorganizations or liquidations;

certain acquisitions or dispositions of business or assets valued in excess of 20% of the fair market value of the total assets of the Company and its subsidiaries;

certain debt and preferred stock issuances that would increase the aggregate debt and preferred stock level by an amount in excess of 20% of the fair market value of the total assets of the Company and its subsidiaries;

transactions with affiliates, other than de minimis transactions on arm's length terms; or amendments to the certificate of incorporation or bylaws with the purpose or effect of the transactions described above or that would conflict with other terms of the Stockholders Agreement.

The Stockholders Agreement also provides that, without the approval of the affected Investor Group, if the affected party is an Investor Group, or the approval of a majority (by ownership of shares of Class A-1 Common Stock) of the Management Stockholders, if the affected party is a Management Stockholder, neither the Stockholders Agreement nor the Company's certificate of incorporation or bylaws may be amended in a manner that imposes additional transfer restrictions, limits any Investor Group's right to designate directors or further limits tag-along rights or the rights of a stockholder to participate in public offerings. The Stockholders Agreement and the Company's certificate of incorporation and bylaws may not be amended without the approval of each affected Investor Group, if such amendment would subject any Investor Group to materially adverse differential treatment as compared to the other Investor Groups.

In addition, as long as any GS Investor Group remains party to the Stockholders Agreement, the Company and its subsidiaries are not permitted to directly or indirectly acquire or otherwise control equity securities of any bank holding company, depository institution or certain other bank entities without the approval of the GS Investor Group and at least one other Investor Group.

Transfer Restrictions

Under the Stockholders Agreement, transfers of shares of Class A-1 Common Stock are generally prohibited except:

pursuant to tag-along sales and drag-along sales, as described below in Tag-Along Rights and Drag-Along Rights, respectively;

after an initial public offering of the Company (and subject to the provisions of the Registration Rights and Coordination Committee Agreement described below):

in a registered public offering;

pursuant to Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act; or in a distribution of shares of Class A-1 Common Stock by an Investor Group to its general or limited partners, members, managers or shareholders; or with the approval of the Investor Groups holding a majority of the shares held by the Investor Groups.

In addition, members of each Investor Group are permitted to transfer their shares of Class A-1 Common Stock to investment funds that are directly or indirectly managed or advised by the manager or advisor of such Investor Group.

Finally, Management Stockholders are permitted to transfer their shares of Class A-1 Common Stock:

to the Company;

upon the death of the holder, pursuant to applicable laws of descent and distribution; or for estate planning purposes, pursuant to a transfer to the holder's immediate family, whether directly or indirectly by means of a trust or partnership or other bona fide estate-planning vehicle the only beneficiaries of which are the holder's immediate family.

Tag-Along Rights

If any Investor Group proposes to transfer shares of Class A-1 Common Stock in a tag-along sale (as described below), then that Investor Group will be required to offer to each other Investor Group the right to sell a pro rata portion of its shares on the same terms and conditions as the proposed transfer. This right to tag-along is also provided to Management Stockholders if the shares proposed to be transferred by the Investor Groups initiating the sale represent more than 50% of the outstanding shares of Class A-1 Common Stock.

A tag-along sale means:

before an initial public offering of the common stock of the Company, a transfer (1) of at least 1% of the outstanding shares of Class A-1 Common Stock by the Investor Groups holding a majority of the outstanding shares of Class A-1 Common Stock held by the Investor Groups in the aggregate or (2) of at least 5% of the outstanding shares of Class A-1 Common Stock held by any Investor Group; and after an initial public offering of the common stock of the Company, a transfer by an Investor Group of at least 10% of the total amount of shares of Class A-1 Common Stock outstanding.

Drag-Along Rights

If the Investor Groups collectively own at least fifty percent (50%) of the Company's outstanding Class A-1 Common Stock, and Investor Groups owning at least thirty-five percent (35%) of the Company's Class A-1 Common Stock propose to sell shares of the Company's common stock to any third party which, taking into account all shares to be transferred in this or similar transactions, would result in the transfer of greater than 50% of the outstanding common stock of the Company, then the selling Investor Groups will have the option to obligate each holder of Class A-1 Common Stock to sell the same proportion of the holder's shares as is sold by the selling Investor Groups. Upon the exercise of this drag-along option, each holder of Class A-1 Common Stock that is party to the Stockholders Agreement will be subject to many of the same terms as those applicable to shares held by the selling Investor Groups.

Information Rights

The Stockholders Agreement requires the Company to prepare and furnish to each Investor Group and Management Stockholder annual and quarterly financial statements, operating and capital expenditure budgets, and to the extent otherwise prepared, other periodic information relating to the operations and cash flows of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Preemptive Rights

Under the Stockholders Agreement, each Investor Group and Management Stockholder will have preemptive rights to acquire securities to be issued by the Company in order to maintain their then-current proportionate ownership of common stock, subject to certain exceptions.

Line of Business Covenant

The Stockholders Agreement requires the Company to advise each Investor Group before the Company directly or indirectly enters into any line of business materially different from its existing lines of business and to discuss in good faith and reasonably cooperate with the Investor Groups efforts toward resolving any regulatory problem that such actions may cause them.

Company Repurchase Right

Prior to an initial public offering of the Company's stock, in the event the employment of a Management Stockholder is terminated for cause, as such term is defined in the manager's employment agreement, the Company will have the right to purchase such holder's Class A-1 Common Stock at a price equal to the lesser of: (x) the weighted average price paid by the Management Stockholder or (y) the fair market value of the shares to be redeemed (as determined in good faith by the board of directors). In the event the employment of a Management Stockholder is terminated other than for cause or if the Management Stockholder terminates his or her employment, the Company will have the right to purchase the holder's Class A-1 Common Stock at the fair market value of the shares. In these circumstances, at the discretion of the board of directors, in light of the availability under or limitations imposed by any credit agreement or other debt agreement and the capital and liquidity position of the Company, it may pay the repurchase price in the form of a note.

The foregoing description of the Stockholders Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Stockholders Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 6 hereto and is incorporated by reference in its entirety into this Item 6.

Registration Rights and Coordination Committee Agreement

The Mulberry Entities also entered into a Registration Rights and Coordination Committee Agreement, dated as of April 5, 2006 (the Registration Rights and Coordination Committee Agreement) with the Company, the Blackstone Investors, the DLJ Investors and the Management Stockholders. Under the Registration Rights and Coordination Committee Agreement, following an initial public offering of the Company's stock, the Blackstone Investor Group will have the right to demand registration under the Securities Act of its shares for public sale on up to five occasions, the GS Investor Group will have the right to demand such registration on up to two occasions, and the DLJ Investor Group will have the right to demand such registration on one occasion. No more than one such demand is permitted to be made in any 180-day period without the consent of the board of directors of the Company. In addition, both the Investor Groups and Management Stockholders have piggy-back rights, or rights to request that their shares be included in registrations initiated by the Company or by an Investor Group.

Following an initial public offering of the Company's stock, sales or other transfers of the Company's stock by parties to the Registration Rights and Coordination Committee Agreement will be subject to pre-approval by a Coordination Committee that will consist of representatives from each of the Investor Groups with certain limited exceptions. In addition, the Coordination Committee has the right to request that the Company effect a shelf registration.

The foregoing description of the Registration Rights and Coordination Committee Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Registration Rights and Coordination Committee Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 7 hereto and is incorporated by reference in its entirety into this Item 6.

Except as described herein, none of the Filing Persons or, to the knowledge of each of the Filing Persons, any of the persons listed on Schedules I, II-A, II-B, II-C, II-D or II-E hereto is a party to any contract, arrangement, understanding or relationship with respect to any securities of the Company.

SCHEDULE III

In November 2002, the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the National Association of Securities Dealers (NASD) and the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (NYSE) alleged that five broker dealers, including Goldman Sachs, violated Section 17(a) of the Exchange Act, and Rule 17a-4 thereunder, NYSE Rules 440 and 342 and NASD Rules 3010 and 3110 by allegedly failing to preserve electronic mail communications for three years and/or to preserve electronic mail communications for the first two years in an accessible place, and by allegedly having inadequate supervisory systems and procedures in relation to the retention of electronic mail communications. Without admitting or denying the allegations, the five broker dealers, including Goldman Sachs, consented to censure by the SEC, NASD and NYSE and to the imposition of a cease-and-desist order by the SEC and Goldman Sachs paid a total fine of $1,650,000 ($550,000 each to the SEC, NASD and NYSE). Goldman Sachs also undertook to review its procedures regarding the preservation of electronic mail communications for compliance with the federal securities laws and regulations and the rules of the NASD and NYSE, and to confirm within a specified period of time that it has established systems and procedures reasonably designed to achieve compliance with those laws, regulations and rules.

On April 28, 2003, without admitting or denying liability, ten investment banking firms including Goldman Sachs, entered into global settlements with the SEC, the NYSE, the NASD and certain states to resolve the investigations relating to equity research analyst conflicts of interest. Goldman Sachs was charged with violating NYSE Rules 342, 401, 472 and 475, and NASD Conduct Rules 2110, 2210 and 3010. Goldman Sachs also agreed to a censure by the NYSE and the NASD and to pay a total of $110,000,000 and to adopt a set of industry-wide reforms of its research and investment banking businesses and to adopt certain restrictions on the allocations of hot IPO shares. The terms of the global settlement were entered in an order by a federal court in the Southern District of New York on October 31, 2003 (Civil Action Number 03CV2944).

On September 4, 2003, Goldman Sachs and the SEC settled administrative proceedings relating to certain trading in U.S. Treasury securities by Goldman Sachs on the morning of October 31, 2001. The Staff of the SEC alleged that Goldman Sachs violated (i) Section 15(c)(1) and Rule 15c1-2 of the Exchange Act as a result of certain trading in U.S. Treasury bonds over an eight minute period on October 31, 2001; and (ii) Section 15(f) of the Exchange Act by failing to maintain policies and procedures specifically addressed to the possible misuse of non-public information obtained from outside consultants. Under the Offer of Settlement submitted by Goldman Sachs and accepted by the SEC, without admitting or denying the SEC's allegations, Goldman Sachs consented to the entry of an Order that, among other things, (i) censured Goldman Sachs; (ii) directed Goldman Sachs to cease and desist from committing or causing any violations of Section 15(c)(1)(A) & (C) and 15(f) and Rule 15c1-2 of the Exchange Act; (iii) ordered Goldman Sachs to pay disgorgement and prejudgment interest in the amount of $1,742,642, and a civil monetary penalty of $5 million; and (iv) directed Goldman Sachs to conduct a review its policies and procedures and to adopt, implement and maintain policies and procedures consistent with the Order and that review. Goldman Sachs also undertook to pay $2,562,740 in disgorgement and interest relating to certain trading in U.S. Treasury bond futures during the same eight minute period.

On July 1, 2004, Goldman Sachs and the SEC settled administrative proceedings relating to communications from Goldman Sachs sales traders on its Asian Shares Sales Desk to certain institutional customers and news media concerning four international public securities offerings during the period between October 1999 and March 2000. The SEC alleged (i) that certain of these communications by Goldman Sachs employees were made after the registration statements pertaining to those offerings were filed, but not yet declared effective by the SEC, in violation of Section 5(b) of the Securities Act and (ii) that certain comments to the news media by Goldman Sachs with respect to one of the offerings constituted an offer to sell securities in violation of Section 5(c) of the Securities Act. The SEC also alleged that Goldman Sachs failed to adequately supervise the Asian Shares Sales Desk traders, as required by Section 15(b)(4)(E) of the Exchange Act. Under the Offer of Settlement submitted by Goldman Sachs and accepted by the SEC, without admitting or denying the SEC's allegations, Goldman Sachs consented to the entry of an Order that, among other things, directed Goldman Sachs to cease and desist from committing or causing any violations of Sections 5(b) and 5(c) of the Securities Act, and ordered Goldman Sachs to pay a civil monetary penalty of $2 million.

On January 24, 2005, the SEC filed an action in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York alleging that Goldman Sachs violated Rule 101 of Regulation M under the Exchange Act by attempting to induce, or inducing certain investors to make, aftermarket purchases of certain initial public offerings underwritten by Goldman Sachs during 2000. On February 4, 2005, without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint, a final judgment was entered against Goldman Sachs, with the consent of Goldman Sachs, under which Goldman Sachs was permanently restrained and enjoined from violating Rule 101 of Regulation M and required to pay a $40 million civil penalty, which was paid on March 31, 2005.
