Item 8.01 Other Events.

On June 30, 2006, Coach Industries Group, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the Registrant ) learned that the federal government indicted Francis O'Donnell, the Registrant's Chief Executive Officer, among others, based on allegations of RICO conspiracy, conspiracy to commit extortion and money laundering. The indictment filed by the federal government affirmatively states that checks drawn in connection with the alleged money laundering activities were drawn from six other companies, and not the Registrant. Statements published by various news organizations implicating the Registrant as a conduit to the alleged money laundering are inaccurate. The indictment also names Mitchell Weissman, who is not related to the Registrant's Chief Financial Officer, Susan Weisman, or the Registrant.

Effective immediately, the Board of Directors has appointed Mr. Steven Rothman as Chairperson of an Interim Executive Management Committee. Mr. Rothman joined the Company effective February 2006 as an independent member of the Board of Directors.
