Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On July 2, 2007, Washington Federal, Inc. ( Washington Federal ) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement ) with First Mutual Bancshares, Inc. ( First Mutual ) pursuant to which First Mutual shall merge with and into Washington Federal, with Washington Federal continuing as the surviving corporation (the Merger ). In connection with the Merger, First Mutual Bank, a Washington-chartered savings bank and wholly owned subsidiary of First Mutual, shall merge with and into Washington Federal Savings, a federally chartered savings association and wholly owned subsidiary of Washington Federal, with Washington Federal Savings continuing as the surviving bank.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, shareholders of First Mutual will receive aggregate consideration of approximately $189.8 million, or approximately $27.05 per share, for the shares of First Mutual common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, which amount includes the cash-out of existing First Mutual stock options. First Mutual shareholders may elect to be paid in either Washington Federal common stock, cash or a combination of cash and Washington Federal common stock, subject to certain procedures designed to ensure that 50% of the total consideration will be in the form of Washington Federal common stock. The exchange price of Washington Federal common stock will be established as the average closing price of such stock during a ten-day period which ends five days prior to the closing. If the average closing price during such ten-day period is less than $22.75, Washington Federal can decide in its sole discretion to pay all of the merger consideration in cash.

The Merger is expected to close in the fourth calendar quarter of 2007, pending the receipt of all requisite regulatory approvals and the approval of First Mutual s shareholders.
