Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On March 31, 2010, Cerus Corporation (the "Company") entered into a loan and security agreement with Oxford Finance Corporation ("Oxford") as lender (the "Credit Agreement"). The Credit Agreement became effective, and Oxford extended an initial $5 million loan to the Company, on March 31, 2010.

The Credit Agreement allows for an additional loan of up to $5 million to be drawn between September 30, 2010 and December 31, 2010. Interest will accrue at a fixed rate of 12.04%. The Credit Agreement includes limitations on the Company's ability to, among other things, incur debt, grant liens, make acquisitions and other investments, make certain distributions such as dividend payments, and dispose of assets. Events of default under the Credit Agreement include payment default, cross acceleration with certain other indebtedness, breaches of covenants and bankruptcy events. In the case of a continuing event of default, Oxford may, among other remedies, eliminate its commitment to make the additional loan, declare due all unpaid principal amounts outstanding, and foreclose on all collateral. The credit facility is secured by substantially all of the Company's assets other than intellectual property. The Company intends to use the proceeds from the initial loan, as well as the additional loan, if drawn, for general corporate purposes.

The foregoing summary of the Credit Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Credit Agreement, a copy of which will be filed as an exhibit to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2010.
