Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 21, 2010, PPG Industries, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release announcing that the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, PPG Paints Trading Shanghai (China) (SPT), have reached a settlement with the U.S. Department of Justice (the DOJ) and the U.S. Department of Commerce's Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS) related to violations of U.S. export control laws in connection with certain paint shipments in 2006 for use by the Pakistan Atomic Energy Commission in the construction of a nuclear power plant. SPT has pled guilty in U.S. District Court to four charges under U.S. export control laws, will pay fines of $3 million for civil and criminal violations, along with $32,319 in criminal forfeitures, and will serve five years of corporate probation. In addition, the Company entered into a cooperation and non-prosecution agreement with the DOJ under which the U.S. government has agreed not to bring charges related to this matter against the Company or its affiliates. The Company also agreed to resolve the BIS investigation by paying a civil penalty of $750,000 and entering into certain other agreements. A copy of the press release is filed as Exhibit 99 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.
