Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On October 7, 2011, Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. (the Company) made available to its stockholders its fiscal year 2011 annual report to stockholders which included the Company's CEO's letter to stockholders (the Letter to Stockholders). The Letter to Stockholders is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

With regard to statements in the Letter to Stockholders that include certain non-GAAP financial measures, the fiscal year 2011 measures and fiscal year 2012 guidance measures are adjusted to exclude the impact of costs the Company expects to incur in connection with the migration of our data center to IBM. The Company believes this information helps investors understand the effect of the migration on reported results and provide a better representation of our actual performance. Free cash flow is a non-GAAP measure and is defined as cash flow from operating activities, less capital expenditures and purchases of intangibles. The Company believes the free cash flow measure provides investors with a more complete understanding of Broadridge's underlying operational results. These non-GAAP measures are indicators that management uses to provide additional meaningful comparisons between current results and prior reported results, and as a basis for planning and forecasting for future periods. Set forth below is a reconciliation of Non-GAAP measures to the comparable GAAP measures in the order of their reference in the Letter to Stockholders.
