Item 8.01. Other Events.

On December 29, 2011, the Federal Trade Commission (the FTC) received a completed set of signature pages executed by Energy Transfer Partners, L.P. (ETP), Energy Transfer Partners GP, L.P. (ETP GP), AmeriGas Propane, L.P., AmeriGas Propane, Inc. and UGI Corporation, to an Agreement Containing Consent Orders (the Consent Order Agreement), pursuant to which such parties agreed to comply with the terms of a proposed Decision and Order (the Order), which remains subject to approval by the FTC. Under the terms of the Order, the parties agree that ETP, ETP GP, Heritage ETC, L.P. (together with ETP and ETP GP, the Contributor Parties) and APU will enter into Amendment No. 2 (the Second Amendment) to the Contribution and Redemption Agreement (the Contribution Agreement), dated as of October 15, 2011, and amended by Amendment No. 1 thereto dated as of December 1, 2011 (the First Amendment), substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1. The Second Amendment requires the Contributor Parties to divest the Cylinder Exchange Business (as such term is defined in the Second Amendment) of Heritage Operating, L.P. (HOLP).

In accordance with the Order, and subject to FTC clearance of the Contribution Closing (as such term is defined in the Contribution Agreement), the parties have agreed to enter into the Second Amendment pursuant to which the Contributor Parties will cause HOLP to transfer, distribute and/or assign to Heritage Propane Express, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (HPX), HOLP's interest in the assets and liabilities of the Cylinder Exchange Business. The Second Amendment also contemplates that, as promptly as practicable after the execution of the Second Amendment, the Contributor Parties shall cause HPX to use its reasonable best efforts to sell the Cylinder Exchange Business to a third party. The Cylinder Exchange Business is defined in the Second Amendment to mean HOLP's business of preparing, distributing, marketing and selling 20-pound portable grill cylinders pre-filled with propane and collecting used 20-pound portable grill cylinders for refilling or disposal.

Under the terms of the Second Amendment, the purchase price under the Contribution Agreement will be reduced by an amount equal to $40 million, subject to a customary post-closing adjustment pursuant to the terms of the Contribution Agreement.

In addition, the Second Amendment provides that, as a condition to the Contribution Closing, HPX and APU will enter into a transition services agreement whereby APU will provide HPX with certain transition and supply services related to the Cylinder Exchange Business for up to the later of 12 months after the Contribution Closing or, if requested by a buyer of the Cylinder Exchange Business, 6 months after the closing of the sale of the Cylinder Exchange Business with the option for a 6-month extension at the buyer's discretion, but in no event to exceed 24 months.

The above description of the Second Amendment does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the form of Second Amendment, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, the full text of the Contribution Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to ETP's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 18, 2011, and the full text of the First Amendment, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to ETP's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 7, 2011, each of which are incorporated herein by reference.

Additionally, on December 29, 2011, the FTC issued requests for additional information and documentary material in connection with the proposed contribution of the propane operations of ETP to APU by the Contributor Parties. These additional requests, commonly referred to as a second request, are part of the regulatory process under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act), and will extend the waiting period under the HSR Act until 30 days after the parties have substantially complied with the requests, unless voluntarily extended or terminated sooner by the FTC. ETP and APU are working cooperatively with the FTC to obtain HSR clearance and approval of the Order and, as a result, anticipate not having to comply with the second request.

Forward Looking Statements

Information contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K may include certain statements concerning expectations for the future that are forward-looking statements as defined by federal law. Such forward-looking statements are subject to a variety of known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors that are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond management's control. Among those factors are the risk that the conditions to closing the Transaction are not met, that the FTC Commissioners do not approve the Order or that the anticipated benefits from the Transaction cannot be fully realized. An extensive list of factors that can affect future results are discussed in ETP's Annual Report on Form 10-K and other documents filed from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission. ETP undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement to reflect new information or events
