QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE 2012 ANNUAL MEETING

What am I voting on?

We are soliciting your vote on the following:

1. to elect the nine director nominees named in the proxy statement to serve until the 2013 Annual Meeting of Stockholders;
2. to approve an amendment and restatement of the Allscripts Healthcare Solutions, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the "ESPP") to, among other items, increase the number of shares available for grant thereunder by 1,000,000;
3. to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation of the company's named executive officers, as described in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section, the tabular disclosure regarding such compensation, and the accompanying narrative disclosures, set forth in this Proxy Statement;

5. to transact any and all other business that may properly come before the annual meeting or any adjourned session of the annual meeting.

How do this proxy statement supplement and the revised proxy card enclosed herewith affect my previously submitted proxy?

If you (i) previously submitted the proxy card enclosed with our original proxy statement made available to stockholders on or about May 17, 2012 (the "Old Proxy Card") or voted over the Internet or by telephone before the date of this proxy statement supplement, and (ii) do not submit the revised proxy card enclosed with this proxy statement supplement (the "Revised Proxy Card") or vote again over the Internet or by telephone, then your vote will be cast as you directed in the Old Proxy Card. In addition, if you voted FOR ALL or WITHHOLD ALL with respect to the director nominees in the Old Proxy Card, your vote will be cast in the same manner with respect to Messrs. Bascomb, Stevens and Thurman. If you voted in such a manner and wish to change your vote with respect to Messrs. Bascomb, Stevens and Thurman, you must submit a Revised Proxy Card. If you previously voted for Mr. Gamache, that vote will be disregarded as he will no longer be standing for election as a director at the annual meeting.

If you submit a Revised Proxy Card, or vote again over the Internet or by telephone, it will be deemed to revoke any previously submitted proxy instructions, and your vote will be cast in accordance with your new instructions.

Who may vote?

Allscripts stockholders at the close of business on April 24, 2012, the record date for the 2012 annual meeting, are entitled to vote. On that date, there were 191,443,441 shares of Allscripts common stock outstanding (including 619,944 restricted stock awards subject to performance-based vesting conditions).

How does discretionary voting authority apply?

If you submit a proxy card but do not indicate how you want to vote, you give authority to Glen E. Tullman, Chief Executive Officer, Lee Shapiro, President, and Jacqueline Studer, General Counsel, to vote for the items discussed in these proxy materials and any other matter that is properly raised at the annual meeting. In such a case, your vote will be cast FOR the election of each director nominee (whether you submit the Old Proxy Card or the Revised Proxy Card), FOR the approval of the amendment and restatement of the ESPP, FOR approval of the resolution to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation of the Company's named executive officers, as described in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section, the tabular disclosure regarding such compensation, and the accompanying narrative disclosure, set forth in this proxy statement, FOR the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2012, and vote FOR or AGAINST any other properly raised matters, at the discretion of Messrs. Tullman and Shapiro and Ms. Studer.

What vote is required to approve the proposals?

Election of Directors: A plurality of the votes cast will elect directors. This means that the nine nominees who receive the highest number of votes will be elected. If you do not want to vote your shares for a particular nominee, you may indicate that in the space provided on the proxy card or withhold authority as prompted during telephone or Internet voting.

Approval of the amendment and restatement of the ESPP: Approval of the amendment and restatement of the ESPP requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present or represented by proxy and having the power to vote at the annual meeting. A stockholder abstention will have the effect of a vote against the approval of the plan, but a broker non-vote will have no effect.

Approval, on an advisory basis, of the compensation of the Company's named executive officers, as described in this Proxy Statement: Approval, on an advisory basis, of the compensation of the Company's named executive officers, as described in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section, the tabular disclosure regarding such compensation, and the accompanying narrative disclosure, set forth in this proxy statement, requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present or represented by proxy and having the power to vote at the annual meeting. A stockholder abstention will have the effect of a vote against the approval of the proposal, but a broker non-vote will have no effect.

Ratification of the Appointment of the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm: Although we are not required to submit the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm to a vote of stockholders, we believe that it is appropriate to ask that you ratify the appointment. Ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2012 requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present or represented by proxy at the annual meeting. A stockholder abstention will have the effect of a vote against the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP.

PROPOSAL 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The board of directors proposes, based on the recommendation of the Nominating and Governance Committee, the nominees listed below to be elected for a term expiring at the 2013 annual meeting and, in accordance with Delaware law, each director will continue to serve until the election and qualification of his or her respective successor or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal. On August 24, 2010, we consummated a merger with Eclipsys Corporation (Eclipsys), a leading enterprise provider of solutions and services for hospitals and clinicians. Pursuant to Allscripts by-laws and the terms of the merger agreement with Eclipsys, Allscripts agreed to nominate Mr. Glen E. Tullman for election to the board of directors at the first three annual meetings of stockholders following the closing of the merger with Eclipsys.

Concurrent with our entry into the HealthCor Agreement described below, our board of directors increased the size of the board by two directors (to a total of nine directors), effective as of the annual meeting. In connection therewith, Marcel L. Gus Gamache informed the board on May 30, 2012 that he would no longer seek re-election at the annual meeting. Mr. Gamache has been one of our directors since 2003, and currently serves as chairman of the Audit Committee and as a member the Nominating and Governance Committee.

Agreement with HealthCor

On May 31, 2012, we entered into an agreement (the HealthCor Agreement) with HealthCor Management, L.P. (HealthCor) and certain affiliates of HealthCor (the HealthCor Stockholders). The HealthCor Agreement was entered into in settlement of a lawsuit (the Lawsuit) recently filed against us and our directors by HealthCor and the HealthCor Stockholders in the Delaware Court of Chancery, seeking, among other things, to enjoin us from enforcing the advance notice requirements of our by-laws in connection with the annual meeting. Pursuant to the HealthCor Agreement, our board of directors (i) increased the size of the board from seven to nine directors, effective as of the annual meeting, and (ii) agreed to nominate Stuart L. Bascomb, David D. Stevens and Ralph H. Thurman (the New Nominees) for election as directors at the annual meeting, and to appoint them as directors in the event the annual meeting is not held prior to June 25, 2012. HealthCor and the HealthCor Stockholders have dismissed the Lawsuit, and, subject to certain exceptions, the parties have released any claims relating to the Lawsuit.

Each of the New Nominees has entered into an agreement with HealthCor (each, a Nominee Agreement), pursuant to which he agreed to stand for election as a director of the Company and to serve as a director if elected, and was paid $50,000 by HealthCor for serving as a nominee. Under the Nominee Agreements, HealthCor agreed to indemnify each New Nominee, subject to certain exceptions, from any and all losses and expenses incurred by him relating to his role as a nominee to our board of directors, or otherwise arising from or in connection with the proxy solicitation relating thereto, but only with respect to events occurring from the date of the Nominee Agreement and prior to the annual meeting.

If the New Nominees are elected as directors at the annual meeting, they will serve until our 2013 annual meeting of stockholders (the 2013 annual meeting), or until their earlier death, resignation, disqualification or removal. We agreed that, if elected, Mr. Thurman would be initially appointed to serve as a member of the Compensation Committee, and one of the other New Nominees would initially be appointed to serve as a member of the Audit Committee. We also agreed that we would not increase the size of the board to more than nine directors from the date of the HealthCor Agreement until the date that is 30 days prior to the expiration of the advance notice period for the making of proposals by stockholders at the 2013 annual meeting (the Covered Period). In the event that any of the New Nominees resigns or is otherwise unable to serve as a director during the Covered Period, the HealthCor Stockholders will have the right to nominate a director to fill the resulting vacancy who satisfies criteria established by our board of directors, subject to the approval of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and our board of directors.

The HealthCor Stockholders agreed that at the annual meeting they will (and will cause their representatives to) vote all shares of common stock that they beneficially own for each of the Company s nominees for election to the board of directors and in favor of certain other matters to be voted on at the annual meeting. In addition, the HealthCor Stockholders agreed that, subject to certain exceptions, during the Covered Period they will not (and will cause their representatives not to) propose, effect or seek to effect any tender offer, merger or other extraordinary transaction, or take certain other actions relating to control of the Company or the Company's governance.

A copy of the HealthCor Agreement is included as Exhibit 10.1 to our Current Report on Form 8-K, filed with the SEC on June 1, 2012.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE MATTERS

Director Independence

A majority of our current directors qualify as independent in accordance with the listing requirements of NASDAQ. The NASDAQ definition of independence includes a series of objective tests, such as that the director is not an employee of the company and has not engaged in various types of business dealings with the company. The board has considered the independence of each director currently serving on the board, each director nominee and each director who served Allscripts during 2011 and the board has made a subjective determination as to Messrs. Bascomb, Black, Chookaszian, Cindrich, Fife, Gamache, Green, Kangas, Kluger, Stevens and Thurman, and Ms. Burzik, who have each been determined to be independent within the meaning of independence under the listing standards of NASDAQ, that no relationships exist or existed which, in the opinion of the board, would interfere or interfered with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out their responsibilities of a director. In making these determinations, the board reviewed and discussed information provided by each director and director nominee and by Allscripts with regard to each person's business and personal activities as they may relate to Allscripts and Allscripts' management. With respect to Mr. Fife, the board considered the matter described in Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions Lease Agreement and Cost-Sharing Arrangement with BG Jet Corp in the proxy statement. With respect to Mr. Green, the board considered that, in December 2008, Mr. Green entered into a consulting arrangement with Innovative Health Strategies LLC, a subsidiary of Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP, a law firm that is providing, and may continue to provide in the future, legal services to Allscripts. With respect to Mr. Kluger, a portfolio company of Altaris Capital, where Mr. Kluger is a partner and managing director, has an ordinary course commercial agreement with Allscripts pursuant to which the portfolio company is expected to make annual payments to Allscripts of less than 1/10th of 1% of Allscripts' annual revenue. With respect to Mr. Cindrich, the board considered that Mr. Cindrich had provided consulting services to the Company with fees totaling less than $40,000, which terminated prior to Mr. Cindrich's appointment to the board. With respect to Messrs. Bascomb, Stevens and Thurman, the board considered the Nominee Agreements described above in Proposal 1 Election of Directors Agreement with HealthCor.

OWNERSHIP OF ALLSCRIPTS COMMON STOCK

The following table sets forth the number of shares of Allscripts common stock beneficially owned as of April 24, 2012 (except in the case of Messrs. Bascomb, Stevens and Thurman, which is as of May 30, 2012) by:

our Named Executive Officers or NEOs;

each director serving as of April 24, 2012 and each director nominee;

all directors and executive officers as a group; and each stockholder that we know to own beneficially more than 5% of Allscripts common stock based on information filed with the SEC.

Beneficial ownership is a technical term broadly defined by the SEC to mean more than ownership in the usual sense. In general, beneficial ownership includes any shares that the holder can vote or transfer and includes shares of common stock which the individual has the right to acquire within 60 days through the exercise of stock options and warrants, vesting of restricted stock units or the settlement of deferred stock units (DSUs). These shares are considered to be outstanding for the purpose of calculating the percentage of outstanding Allscripts common stock owned by a particular stockholder, but are not considered to be outstanding for the purpose of calculating the percentage ownership of any other person. Percentage of ownership is based on 191,443,441 total shares of Allscripts common stock outstanding as of April 24, 2012 (including 619,944 restricted stock awards subject to performance-based vesting conditions). Except as otherwise noted, the stockholders named in this table have sole voting and dispositive power for all shares shown as beneficially owned by them.
