Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On July 9, 2012, American Campus Communities, Inc. (the Company ) and American Campus Communities Operating Partnership LP (the Operating Partnership and, together with the Company, ACC ) substantially completed its due diligence investigation relating to the acquisition of 15 student housing properties with 6,579 beds, including two properties and an additional phase at an existing property currently under development, pursuant to an Agreement of Merger and Contribution, dated as of June 7, 2012, as amended by Amendment No. 1 thereto (the Merger Agreement ), among ACC and Campus Acquisitions Holdings, LLC, the Property Entities (as defined therein), Campus Acquisitions Management, LLC, the Development Entities (as defined therein) and Campus Acquisitions Investment Management LLC (collectively, Campus ). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, ACC will acquire the portfolio for $627.0 million. The acquisition consideration consists of the assumption of approximately $231.6 million of outstanding mortgage debt, the issuance of between $15 million and $50 million in the form of units of common limited partnership interest in the Operating Partnership, and between $345.4 million and $380.4 million in cash, with the final allocation between the unit and cash consideration to be determined by Campus prior to closing.

ACC and Campus have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement provides that either ACC or Campus may terminate the Merger Agreement if the acquisition of certain properties has not occurred by October 31, 2012 (provided that this right will not be available to a party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under the Merger Agreement materially contributed to the failure of the closing to occur on or before this date). The Merger Agreement also contains certain termination rights for ACC and Campus, including without limitation ACC's ability to terminate the Merger Agreement if Campus breaches the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement. In connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement for such reason, Campus will be required to pay ACC a termination fee of $12.5 million. In addition, if ACC breaches the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, ACC may be required to forfeit an earnest money deposit of $12.5 million. In addition, both parties may enforce the merger agreement by specific performance, in addition to any other remedy, although under no circumstance may Campus elect to receive the $12.5 million earnest money deposit and also seek damages or any other remedy.

The transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, which are expected to close during the third quarter of 2012, are subject to certain closing conditions, including, among other things, (a) obtaining certain lender consents, and (b) the accuracy of the other parties' representations and warranties and compliance with covenants, subject in each case to materiality standards. The Merger Agreement contains provisions pursuant to which Campus can defer the closings of the acquisition of any of the three development properties to a date not later than October 15, 2013 if the closing conditions relating to such properties is not satisfied by November 15, 2012. ACC is not aware of any material federal, state or foreign regulatory requirements or approvals that are required for the execution of the Merger Agreement or the closing of the transactions contemplated thereby.

For additional information, reference is made to the Merger Agreement, which is incorporated by reference herein as an exhibit to this report. The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement.

In addition to historical information, this report contains forward-looking statements under the federal securities law. These statements are based on current expectations, estimates and projections about the industry and markets in which ACC operates, management's beliefs, and assumptions made by management. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks and uncertainties, which are difficult to predict.

ACC's actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of various factors, including risks and uncertainties related to the proposed transactions (including but not limited to (i) the occurrence of any effect, event, development or change that could give rise to the termination of the Merger Agreement, (ii) the inability to complete the proposed transactions, (iii) the failure of any party to satisfy the conditions to the closing of the transactions and (iv) the failure of ACC to obtain the necessary lender consents). These forward-looking statements are made as of the date of this report, and ACC undertakes no obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.

This report does not constitute an offer of any securities for sale.
