ITEM 5.02 DEPARTURE OF DIRECTORS OR CERTAIN OFFICERS; ELECTION OF DIRECTORS; APPOINTMENT OF CERTAIN OFFICERS; COMPENSATORY ARRANGEMENTS OF CERTAIN OFFICERS.

Effective August 26, 2012, Daniel C. Ustian resigned from his roles as Chairman, President, Chief Executive Officer and member of the Board of Directors (the Board) of Navistar International Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company) and all other offices, directorships and other positions with any subsidiaries or affiliates of the Company.

Effective August 26, 2012, the Board appointed Lewis B. Campbell as a director and the Executive Chairman of the Board (Executive Chairman) and Interim Chief Executive Officer (Interim CEO) of the Company. Mr. Campbell will serve as a Class III director with his term expiring at the Company's 2014 annual stockholder meeting. In connection with Mr. Campbell's appointment, the Company, together with its principal operating subsidiary, Navistar, Inc., a Delaware corporation, entered into an Employment and Services Agreement (the Services Agreement) and the Company entered into a non-qualified stock option award agreement (the Option Agreement) and an Indemnification Agreement (as described below), each with Mr. Campbell. A copy of the Services Agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.3 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference, a copy of the Indemnification Agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.4 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference, and a copy of the Option Agreement and related supplement is attached as Exhibit 10.4 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Mr. Campbell, age 66, served as Chairman of Textron Inc., a $12 billion publicly traded industrial company, from 1999 to 2010, Chief Executive Officer from 1998 to 2009 and President from 1994 to 1999 and from 2001 until 2009. Mr. Campbell initially joined Textron as Chief Operating Officer in 1992. Prior to joining Textron, Mr. Campbell spent 24 years at General Motors Company, where he served in a variety of roles including Vice President and General Manager, Flint Automotive Division for Buick/Oldsmobile/Cadillac as well as Vice President and General Manager, GMC Trucks. Mr. Campbell currently serves on the Board of Directors of Bristol-Myers Squibb Company, where he has been Lead Independent Director since 2008. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of Sensata Technologies Holding N.V. and the Board of Trustees of Noblis, Inc., a not-for-profit science, technology and strategy organization. Mr. Campbell's success in the automotive and industrial industries, underscored by his hands-on experience overseeing several key functional areas of his prior employers, assisted the Company in reaching the conclusion that Mr. Campbell should serve as a director.

Mr. Campbell has not been appointed to any committees of the Board at this time and no determination has yet been made regarding the committees to which he may be appointed. There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Campbell and any other person pursuant to which Mr. Campbell was selected as a director.

Mr. Campbell is not related to any other director or executive officer of the Company. Mr. Campbell receives no separate compensation for his role as director.

Also effective August 26, 2012, the Company promoted Troy A. Clarke, 57, currently President of Truck and Engine operations at the Company, to the position of President and Chief Operating Officer. Prior to his appointment as President of Truck and Engine operations, Mr. Clarke served as President of the Company's Asia Pacific operations and Senior Vice President, Strategic Initiatives. Mr. Clarke joined the Company in January 2010. Prior to Mr. Clarke's tenure at the Company, he spent more than 35 years at General Motors Company (GM), where he served in a variety of roles, including President of GM North America, President and Managing Director of GM's Mexico operations, Vice President of Manufacturing and Labor Relations and President of GM Asia Pacific. Mr. Clarke is not related to any other director or executive officer of the Company.

In connection with Mr. Clarke's promotion to President and Chief Operating Officer, the Compensation Committee of the Board approved the following changes to Mr. Clarke's compensation:

In addition, Mr. Clarke received a restricted stock grant equal to $1 million which vests only upon the third anniversary of the date of grant.

Services Agreement

General Employment and Duties.

Pursuant to the terms of the Services Agreement, effective August 26, 2012, Mr. Campbell will serve as Executive Chairman and Interim CEO of the Company, reporting to the Board. In the event Mr. Campbell ceases to serve as Interim CEO but remains as Executive Chairman, the terms of the Services Agreement will still govern his service relationship with the Company as Executive Chairman. Mr. Campbell's employment and service relationship with the Company may be terminated at any time, upon written notice to the other party, with or without Cause (as defined in the Services Agreement), at the option of the Company or due to Constructive Termination (as defined in the Services Agreement), at the option of Mr. Campbell. Each of the Company or Mr. Campbell may terminate Mr. Campbell's employment and service as Interim CEO or Executive Chairman separately or together.

Compensation.

The Company will pay Mr. Campbell an annual base salary of $500,000 as compensation for his services to the Company. Mr. Campbell will participate in the Company's Annual Incentive Plan for the 2013 fiscal year and will be eligible to earn an annual cash incentive bonus based upon the attainment of performance goals established by the Board, with a target annual incentive for the 2013 fiscal year of $1,000,000, and subject to the terms and conditions of the Company's Annual Incentive Plan or other annual incentive program, on the same terms and conditions that apply to other senior executives generally.

Employee Benefits.

Generally Mr. Campbell will be eligible to participate in accordance with the terms of all Company employee benefit plans, policies, and arrangements that are applicable to other senior executive officers of the Company, during the period that he is employed as Interim CEO or Executive Chairman. In the event Mr. Campbell ceases to serve as Interim CEO and Executive Chairman but remains a non-executive director of the Company, he will be eligible to participate only in such plans that are applicable to other non-employee members of the Board. Without limiting the foregoing, Mr. Campbell will be entitled to the following benefits: (i) while he is Interim CEO, Mr. Campbell will be provided with Company-paid life insurance; (ii) reimbursement for reasonable costs of relocation; (iii) participation in the Company's Executive Flexible Perquisite Program, pursuant to its terms, with an annual payment of $46,000; and (iv) reimbursement of automobile related expenses consistent with the policy in effect for the Company's other senior executive officers. Mr. Campbell will not be eligible for any defined benefit pension plan including any nonqualified defined benefit or deferred compensation plan benefit under any plan maintained by the Company.

Stock Option Grant.

Pursuant to the terms of the Services Agreement, on August 26, 2012, Mr. Campbell was granted 500,000 nonqualified stock options to purchase shares of the Company's common stock (the Options). The Options are subject to terms of both the Services Agreement and the Option Agreement. For a description of the material terms of the Options, please refer to the section Option Agreement below.

Termination of Employment.

In the event Mr. Campbell's employment and service with the Company terminates for any reason, Mr. Campbell will be entitled to his unpaid and accrued payments and benefits. However, if prior to the first anniversary of the Services Agreement Mr. Campbell is terminated as Interim CEO because the Company has engaged a permanent CEO and Mr. Campbell is terminated without Cause as Executive Chairman, he will be entitled to his full annual incentive bonus for fiscal year 2013 (as opposed to only earned amounts as of his termination).

If Mr. Campbell's employment and service with the Company is terminated by the Company without Cause or by Mr. Campbell due to Constructive Termination, in either case during the thirty-six months after the date of the then-most recent Change in Control (as defined in the Services Agreement), then in addition to his accrued obligations and the accelerated vesting of his Options, subject to Mr. Campbell's execution of a release (without revocation), Mr. Campbell will be entitled to: (i) a lump sum severance payment equal to 300% of the sum of his base salary and target annual incentive; (ii) continued healthcare coverage for thirty-six months; (iii) continued life insurance coverage for thirty-six months; (iv) outplacement services; (v) retention of any remaining flexible perquisite allowance already paid to Mr. Campbell; (vi) any post-retirement health and life insurance benefits due to Mr. Campbell; (vii) Company-paid tax counseling and tax forms preparation services up to and including the taxable year of Mr. Campbell in which the termination occurred; and (viii) a pro rata portion of the actual annual incentive that would have been payable to Mr. Campbell for the Company's fiscal year in which the termination occurred, based on actual performance.

Limitation on Payments.

In the event that any payment or benefit received or to be received by Mr. Campbell (the Total Payments) would be subject to the excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Excise Tax), then generally Mr. Campbell's cash severance payments will first be reduced, and his noncash severance payments will thereafter be reduced, to the extent necessary so that no portion of the Total Payments is subject to the Excise Tax, but only if the net amount of such Total Payments, as so reduced, is greater than or equal to the net amount of such Total Payments without such reduction.

Restrictive Covenants.

Mr. Campbell will be subject to the Company's standard restrictive covenants regarding confidentiality, non-disparagement, non-solicitation, non-competition, and cooperation, which generally survive until twenty-four months following a termination.

Indemnification.

Subject to applicable law, Mr. Campbell will be provided indemnification to the maximum extent permitted by the Company's amended and restated bylaws and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, including coverage, if applicable, under any directors and officers insurance policies. In connection with the foregoing, the Company and Mr. Campbell entered into an Indemnification Agreement (the Indemnification Agreement) substantially consistent with the form indemnification agreement provided to the Company's non-employee directors.

The preceding descriptions of the Services Agreement and the Indemnification Agreement are qualified in their entirety by reference to the text of the Services Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.3 and the Indemnification Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.4.

Option Agreement

As described above, in connection with his appointments and pursuant to the terms of the Services Agreement and the Option Agreement, Mr. Campbell was granted Options as an employment inducement award under the applicable New York Stock Exchange rules. The Options have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Company's common stock on their grant date. Other than as provided below, the Options will become 100% vested and exercisable on the day immediately prior to the first anniversary of their grant date (the Exercise Date), subject to Mr. Campbell's continued service through such date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that (i) the Company terminates Mr. Campbell's employment and service as both Interim CEO and Executive Chairman without Cause prior to the Exercise Date; (ii) certain events giving rise to a Constructive Termination occur other than in connection with a Change in Control (as defined in the Services Agreement); (iii) following a Change in Control Mr. Campbell terminates employment and service due to a Constructive Termination; or (iv) Mr. Campbell dies prior to the Exercise Date but after a permanent chief executive officer has been appointed by the Company (each such termination, a Vesting Termination), the Options will vest immediately but not be exercisable until the Exercise Date, subject to Mr. Campbell's execution of a release agreement (without revocation). Upon becoming vested the Options will remain exercisable until the fifth anniversary of their grant date unless, but any unexercised portion will expire upon a termination for Cause. Upon any termination of employment which is not a Vesting Termination, in each case prior to the Exercise Date, the Options will expire immediately. The Options will not be subject to the Company's current long-term incentive plan, and Mr. Campbell will not otherwise participate in the Company's equity compensation program.

The Options are generally subject to restrictions on transfer by Mr. Campbell. In the event of a Change in Control, the Options may be assumed or substituted for by an acquiror, or in the absence of the foregoing, may be terminated in exchange for cash payment equal to the value of the Options over the aggregate exercise price of the Options. In the event of capital or corporate events, the Options and the shares underlying the Options will be subject to certain adjustments.

The preceding description of the Option Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Option Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.5.
