Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Agreement and Plan of Merger

On April 29, 2013, Crimson Exploration Inc., a Delaware corporation ( Crimson ), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement ) with Contango Oil & Gas Company, a Delaware corporation ( Contango ), and Contango Acquisition, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Contango ( Merger Sub ), providing for a strategic business combination of Crimson and Contango. Upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Crimson (the Merger ), with Crimson continuing as the surviving corporation and as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Contango. The Merger Agreement was approved by each of the board of directors of Crimson and Contango on April 29, 2013.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time ), each share of Crimson common stock, par value $0.001 per share, issued and outstanding will be converted into the right to receive 0.08288 shares of common stock, par value $0.04 per share, of Contango ( Contango Common Stock ) or, in the case of fractional shares, cash (without interest) in an amount equal to the product of (i) such fractional part of a share of Contango Common Stock multiplied by (ii) the closing price for a share of Contango Common Stock as reported on the New York Stock Exchange on the first trading day following the date on which the Effective Time occurs (the Merger Consideration ). The Merger is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, so that none of Crimson, Contango, Merger Sub or Crimson's stockholders will recognize any gain or loss in the Merger, except that Crimson's stockholders may recognize gain or loss with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Contango Common Stock.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, each option that was previously granted by Crimson to purchase shares of Crimson common stock will be converted at the Effective Time into a comparable option to purchase Contango Common Stock. The conversion will be accomplished by using the same exchange ratio for the Crimson common stock described above. Immediately prior to the Effective Time, each restricted share of Crimson common stock will become fully vested and unrestricted and become entitled to receive the Merger Consideration.

Crimson and Contango have each made certain representations and warranties and agreed to certain covenants in the Merger Agreement. Each of Contango and Crimson has agreed, among other things: (i) subject to certain exceptions, to conduct its respective business in the ordinary course during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time; (ii) not to solicit alternative business combination transactions during such period; and (iii) subject to certain exceptions, not to engage in discussions or negotiations regarding any alternative business combination transactions during such period.

The closing of the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain customary conditions, including, among others, (i) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Crimson's stockholders; (ii) the approval by Contango's stockholders of the issuance of Contango Common Stock in the Merger to Crimson's stockholders (the Share Issuance ); (iii) the registration statement on Form S-4 used to register the Contango Common Stock to be issued in the Merger being declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"); (iv) the approval for listing on the New York Stock Exchange of the Contango Common Stock to be issued in the Merger; (v) subject to specified materiality standards, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of, and the performance of all covenants by, the parties; (vi) the absence of a material adverse effect with respect to each of Crimson and Contango; and (vii) the delivery of tax opinions that the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Crimson and Contango, including, among others, if (i) the Merger is not consummated on or before October 31, 2013; (ii) the requisite approval of the stockholders of either Crimson or Contango is not obtained; and (iii) the other party breaches a representation, warranty or covenant, and such breach results in the failure of closing conditions to be satisfied. The Merger Agreement further provides that for the payment of a termination fee upon the termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, including termination by Contango or Crimson as a result of (1) an adverse change in the recommendation of the other party's board of directors or (2) a third-party's superior proposal. The termination fee is $7.0 million (if payable by Crimson) and $28.0 million (if payable by Contango). The Merger Agreement also provides that Crimson or Contango may be required to pay the other party $4.5 million for expense reimbursement if such party's stockholder approval is not obtained.

The Merger Agreement provides that the board of directors of Contango will consist of eight directors following the Effective Time, comprised of five directors selected by the current Contango directors and three directors selected by the current Crimson directors. Additionally, Joseph J. Romano (the current President and Chief Executive Officer of Contango) will serve as Chairman of Contango, Allan D. Keel (the current President and Chief Executive Officer of Crimson) will serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of Contango, and E. Joseph Grady (the current Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Crimson) will serve as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the combined company. Messrs. Keel and Grady entered into employment agreements with Contango that become effective upon consummation of the Merger. The combined company will have its headquarters and principal corporate office in Houston, Texas.

Contango will amend and restate its bylaws to, among other things, until the first anniversary of the Effective Time, require the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the directors then in office, including at least one Crimson director, to (i) increase or decrease the number of directors on the Contango board of directors; (ii) remove the Chairman and select any replacement of the Chairman; (iii) terminate the President and Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer and select any replacement of such officer; (iv) designate or replace any member of, or modify the authority of, the investment committee of the board of directors of Contango; or (v) amend any provision of the bylaws affecting items (i) through (iv) above.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement and the Merger is only a summary, does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

Simultaneously with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Crimson entered into a support agreement with (a) each of Joseph J. Romano, Sergio Castro, Yaroslava Makalskaya and Brad Juneau (each, a Contango Stockholder ) and (b) Mr. Romano in his capacity as Temporary Administrator of the Estate of Kenneth R. Peak (each such support agreement, a Contango Support Agreement ). The Contango Support Agreements provide that, upon the terms and conditions set forth therein, each Contango Stockholder will vote all shares of Contango Common Stock beneficially owned by such Contango Stockholder (i) in favor of the Share Issuance; and (ii) against certain other specified alternative transactions or actions. Each Contango Support Agreement terminates upon the earliest to occur of (1) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms and (2) the Effective Time.

Additionally, simultaneously with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Contango entered into a support agreement (each, a Crimson Support Agreement, and, together with the Contango Support Agreements, the Support Agreements ) with each of Allan D. Keel, E. Joseph Grady, Thomas H. Atkins, A. Carl Isaac, Jay S. Mengle, John A. Thomas, OCM GW Holdings, LLC, and OCM Crimson Holdings, LLC (each, a Crimson Stockholder ). The Crimson Support Agreements provide that, upon the terms and conditions set forth therein, each Crimson Stockholder will vote all shares of Crimson Common Stock beneficially owned by such Crimson Stockholder (i) in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement, the Merger and any other matter that is required to be approved by the stockholders of Crimson in order to effect the Merger; and (ii) against certain other specified alternative transactions or actions. Each Crimson Support Agreement terminates upon the earliest to occur of (1) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms; (2) the Effective Time; and (3) any reduction of the Merger Consideration or change in the form of the Merger Consideration.

The foregoing description of the Support Agreements is only a summary, does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Support Agreements, which are filed as Exhibits 10.1 through 10.13 hereto and are incorporated herein by reference.
