Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On May 6, 2014, the Board of Directors of Esterline Technologies Corporation (Esterline) approved compensation arrangements for Mr. Alain M. Durand, Esterline s Segment President, Sensors & Systems, relating to Mr. Durand s relocation from France to Esterline s corporate headquarters in Bellevue, Washington. Consistent with Esterline s executive compensation programs and with its general employment practices, Mr. Durand will receive a payment of $7,200 per month until the earlier of May 2015 or the date of the sale of his home in France. Mr. Durand will also receive reimbursement of the following reasonable and customary expenses: temporary housing for up to 60 days, up to two house-hunting trips for him and his spouse, home purchase closing costs, shipment of his personal vehicles, moving of household goods from France to the US and from temporary housing to his permanent home, and an allowance of up to $35,000 for miscellaneous expenses. Mr. Durand will be eligible to receive moving coordination and concierge services provided by a third party vendor. Esterline will also provide Mr. Durand certain immigration-related services and tax assistance, including tax preparation services, and reimbursement of certain tax expenses. All of the relocation payments made to Mr. Durand are subject to repayment by Mr. Durand if he resigns from Esterline within 24 months.
