EXCERPT FROM TRANSCRIPT OF RICHARD SMITH, CEO OF REALOGY HOLDINGS CORP.
NOVEMBER 5, 2014 APPEARANCE ON CNBC

David Faber, Squawk On The Street:

Uh, sort of curious about your response to the Zillow / Trulia merger. Is that going to have an effect on your business?

Richard Smith, CEO, Realogy Holdings:

Zillow and Trulia, amongst many others, are very good suppliers to us. They're good alternatives to traditional print media. I think on a combined basis, to the extent they continue to represent the same value that we see today, we're fine with that. And we've clearly indicated that to the market.

David Faber, Squawk On The Street:

What about the information that seems to be migrating online at this point, is that causing any decline in the fee that brokers charge?

Richard Smith, CEO, Realogy Holdings:

No, actually, if you think about it, put it in that context, you're taking offline information and concentrating it into an online application. So it's more convenient, it makes for a better, and more informed consumer. So we have not seen that, nor do we expect that to happen. We think a better and more informed consumer is good for our industry and good for housing.
