Jefferson City, MO 65102-0360

To Chairman Hall and Commissioners,

I write to express my strong support for the proposed acquisition of Westar Energy by Great Plains Energy and to ask the Missouri Public Service Commission to expedite the transaction process to better ensure a smooth integration of the two companies.

KCP&L has been a strong and committed partner in growing Missouri's economy and improving the quality of life of consumers. KCP&L's support for legislative efforts to improve Missouri's energy policies has been steadfast and invaluable, benefiting both business and residential customers.

Westar Energy and KCP&L have electric rates below the national average, both have diversified generation and both have strong reputations in the community. Combined, they will be able to further diversify their portfolio and deliver savings and cost efficiencies. This will preserve Missouri's low cost of energy and its competitive advantage, making it even more attractive for businesses to invest and grow.

As a major employer headquartered in Missouri, this acquisition will allow KCP&L to grow and be an even stronger company. Despite present and future uncertainties in the utility industry, KCP&L's leadership believes this transaction will better ensure they stay local in both the short and long term.

SERVING THE COUNTIES OF COLE, GASCONADE, MARIES, MILLER, MONITEAU, MORGAN AND OSAGE

I support this acquisition because it paves the way for future economic development, investment and continued prosperity for the State of Missouri.

Please feel free to contact me directly should you have any questions regarding this proposed acquisition.

Sincerely,

cc: Secretary Morris L. Woodruff
Commissioner Stephen M. Stoll
Commissioner William P. Kenney
Commissioner Scott T. Rupp
Commissioner Maida J. Coleman

Forward Looking Statements

Statements made on this communication that are not based on historical facts are forward-looking, involve risks and uncertainties, and speak only as of the date when made. Forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements relating to the proposed acquisition of Westar, the outcome of regulatory proceedings, cost estimates of capital projects and other matters affecting future operations. In connection with the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Great Plains Energy is providing a number of important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the provided forward-looking information. These important factors include: future economic conditions in regional, national and international markets and their effects on sales, prices and costs; prices and availability of electricity in regional and national wholesale markets; market perception of the energy industry, Great Plains Energy and KCP&L; changes in business strategy, operations or development plans; the outcome of contract negotiations for goods and services; effects of current or proposed state and federal legislative and regulatory actions or developments, including, but not limited to, deregulation, re-regulation and restructuring of the electric utility industry; decisions of regulators regarding rates the Companies can charge for electricity; adverse changes in applicable laws, regulations, rules, principles or practices governing tax, accounting and environmental matters including, but not limited to, air and water quality; financial market conditions and performance including, but not limited to, changes in interest rates and credit spreads and in availability and cost of capital and the effects on derivatives and hedges, nuclear decommissioning trust and pension plan assets and costs; impairments of long-lived assets or goodwill; credit ratings; inflation rates; effectiveness of risk management policies and procedures and the ability of counterparties to satisfy their contractual commitments; impact of terrorist acts, including, but not limited to, cyber terrorism; ability to carry out marketing and sales plans; weather conditions including, but not limited to, weather-related damage and their effects on sales, prices and costs; cost, availability, quality and deliverability of fuel; the inherent uncertainties in estimating the effects of weather, economic conditions and other factors on customer consumption and financial results; ability to achieve generation goals and the occurrence and duration of planned and unplanned generation outages; delays in the anticipated in-service dates and cost increases of generation, transmission, distribution or other projects; Great Plains Energy's ability to successfully manage transmission joint venture or to integrate the transmission joint ventures of Westar; the inherent risks associated with the ownership and operation of a nuclear facility including, but not limited to, environmental, health, safety, regulatory and financial risks; workforce risks, including, but not limited to, increased costs of retirement, health care and other benefits; the ability of Great Plains Energy to obtain the regulatory and shareholder approvals necessary to complete the anticipated acquisition of Westar; the risk that a condition to the closing of the anticipated acquisition of Westar or the committed debt or equity financing may not be satisfied or that the anticipated acquisition may fail to close; the failure to obtain, or to obtain on favorable terms, any equity, debt or equity-linked financing necessary to complete or permanently finance the anticipated acquisition of Westar and the costs of such financing; the outcome of any legal proceedings, regulatory proceedings or enforcement matters that may be instituted relating to the anticipated acquisition of Westar; the costs incurred to consummate the anticipated acquisition of Westar; the possibility that the expected value creation from the anticipated acquisition of Westar will not be realized, or will not be realized within the expected time period; the credit ratings of Great Plains Energy following the anticipated acquisition of Westar; disruption from the anticipated acquisition of Westar making it more difficult to maintain relationships with customers, employees, regulators or suppliers; the diversion of management time and attention on the proposed transactions; and other risks and uncertainties.

The foregoing list of factors is not all-inclusive because it is not possible to predict all factors. Additional risks and uncertainties are discussed in the joint proxy statement/prospectus and other materials that Great Plains Energy has filed and will file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) in connection with the proposed transaction. Other risk factors are detailed from time to time in Great Plains Energy's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and annual report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC. Each forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date it was made. Great Plains Energy undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Additional Information and Where to Find It
