Item 1.01, Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On December 18, 2017, the Board of Directors of Moody's Corporation ( "Moody's" ) approved a form of indemnification agreement (the "Indemnification Agreement" ) between Moody's and individuals who may serve from time to time as directors or executive officers of Moody's. The Indemnification Agreement supplements indemnification provisions already contained in the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation. Under the Indemnification Agreement, Moody's agrees to indemnify directors and executive officers against liability arising out of the performance of their duties to Moody's and to other entities where they provide services at the request of Moody's. The Indemnification Agreement requires indemnification to the fullest extent permitted by law, including the Delaware General Corporation Law, for amounts that directors and executive officers become legally obligated to pay in connection with a range of legal proceedings, including reasonable attorneys' fees, on the terms and conditions set forth in the Indemnification Agreement. The Indemnification Agreement also requires the advancement of defense expenses, on the terms and conditions set forth therein. Further, the Indemnification Agreement provides customary procedures for requesting and obtaining indemnification and advancement of expenses.

The foregoing description of the Indemnification Agreement is a general description only and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Form of Indemnification Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
