Item 8.01 Other Events.

On October 4, 2018, Omeros Corporation (the Company) received an order from the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) extending a prior grant of confidential treatment. The order resulted from a routine request to extend a previous grant of confidential treatment that was soon to expire for certain information contained in two exhibits that were originally filed in connection with the Company's 2009 initial public offering. The SEC originally granted confidential treatment for this information on October 7, 2009 and subsequently extended the period of confidential treatment approximately every three years in orders dated September 16, 2012 and September 3, 2015. The applicable exhibits are incorporated by reference to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
