- (f) Hariden is a New Jersey limited liability company. Mr. Grossman is a United States citizen.

Item 3. Source or Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

The securities to which this Schedule 13D relates were received by the Reporting Persons in connection with the Merger (as defined below).

On February 13, 2012, the Company entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) by and among the Company, ADMA Biologics, Inc., a privately-held Delaware corporation (“Former ADMA”), and ADMA Acquisition Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (“Acquisition Sub”). Upon the closing of the merger transaction contemplated under the Merger Agreement (the “Merger”) on February 13, 2012, Acquisition Sub was merged with and into Former ADMA, and Former ADMA, as the surviving corporation in the Merger, became a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. The Company’s corporate name was changed from R&R Acquisition VI, Inc. to ADMA Biologics, Inc. and the name of Former ADMA was changed to ADMA Plasma Biologics, Inc.

In connection with, and immediately prior to the closing of the Merger, Former ADMA completed a private placement (the "Private Placement") of 1,828,128 shares of Former ADMA's common stock (the "Former ADMA Common Stock") at a price per share of $9.60 to accredited investors, for gross proceeds of $17,550,029 pursuant to a securities purchase agreement, dated February 13, 2012, by and between Former ADMA and each purchaser identified on the signature pages thereto, including Hariden (the "Securities Purchase Agreement"). In lieu of repayment of senior secured promissory notes of Former ADMA (the "Promissory Notes") in the aggregate principal amount of $250,000 (plus $12,740 in accrued interest), the aggregate amount of unpaid principal and interest on the Promissory Notes was invested by the holders of such notes in the Private Placement in exchange for shares of Former ADMA Common Stock. Hariden, one the holders of such notes, invested Promissory Notes in the aggregate principal amount of $25,000 plus $1,274 in accrued interest in the Private Placement in exchange for 2,736 shares of Former ADMA Common Stock. The remaining 54,556 shares of Former ADMA Common Stock received by Hariden in the Private Placement were purchased for $523,729 in cash.

As of the date hereof, Hariden may be deemed to beneficially own 438,919 shares of Common Stock, which were exchanged in the Merger for the same number of shares of Former ADMA Common Stock deemed to have been beneficially owned by Hariden immediately prior to the completion of the Merger, after giving effect to the reverse split of shares of Former ADMA Common Stock at a ratio of 1-for-6.8 (the "Reverse Split"), the issuance to Hariden of 57,292 shares of Former ADMA Common Stock in the Private Placement and the conversion of shares of Series A Preferred Stock of Former ADMA into shares of Former ADMA Common Stock (the "Preferred Stock Conversion").

Prior to the Reverse Split, the Private Placement and the Preferred Stock Conversion, Hariden beneficially owned (i) 1,208,745 shares of Former ADMA Common Stock acquired in prior transactions, (ii) shares of Series A Preferred Stock of Former ADMA convertible into 992,096 shares of Former ADMA Common Stock, after giving effect to cumulative anti-dilution adjustments and accrued dividends and (iii) shares of Series A Preferred Stock of Former ADMA issued in December 2011 upon the conversion of convertible notes, which shares were convertible into 394,227 shares of Former ADMA Common Stock.

As of the date hereof, Mr. Grossman, as the managing member of Hariden, may be deemed to beneficially own the 438,919 shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by Hariden. In addition, as of the date hereof, Mr. Grossman beneficially owns (i) fully-vested options to purchase 33,088 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $3.40 per share exchanged in the Merger for an equal number of options to purchase Former ADMA Common Stock and (ii) options to purchase 212,134 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $9.60 per share exchanged in the Merger for an equal number of options to purchase Former ADMA Common Stock granted to Mr. Grossman on February 13, 2012 pursuant to Mr. Grossman's employment agreement with the Company, which options vested 25% on February 13, 2012, with the remaining 75% vesting in equal monthly installments over the following 48 months of continued employment. The options to purchase Common Stock were exchanged in the Merger for options to purchase Former ADMA Common Stock at the same exercise prices.

Prior to the Reverse Split, the Private Placement and the Preferred Stock Conversion, Mr. Grossman was deemed to beneficially own the shares of Former ADMA Common Stock and Series A Preferred Stock of Former ADMA that were deemed to have been beneficially owned by Hariden. In addition, at such time, Mr. Grossman was deemed to beneficially own options to purchase 225,000 shares of Former ADMA Common Stock.

Item 4. Purpose of the Transaction.

The Reporting Persons acquired the Company's shares in connection with the Merger. Except in connection with the possible future exercise of options to purchase Common Stock beneficially owned by Mr. Grossman, and except as may result directly or indirectly from the Merger (including the sale of securities to satisfy tax obligations), neither of the Reporting Persons has present plans which relate to or would result in:

- (a) The acquisition by any person of additional securities of the Company, or the disposition of securities of the Company;
- (b) An extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries;
- (c) A sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries;
- (d) Any change in the present board of directors or management of the Company, including any plans or proposals to change the number or term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the board;
- (e) Any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Company;
- (f) Any other material change in the Company's business or corporate structure;
- (g) Changes in the Company's charter, bylaws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Company by any person;
- (h) Causing a class of securities of the Company to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association;
- (i) A class of equity securities of the Company becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; or
- (j) Any action similar to any of those enumerated above.

The Reporting Persons may, at any time, review or reconsider their position with respect to the Company and formulate plans or proposals with respect to any of the above matters.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

(a) Hariden may be deemed to beneficially own 438,919 shares of Common Stock, amounting to approximately 9.43% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as of the date hereof (calculated in the manner prescribed by Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")). Mr. Grossman may be deemed to beneficially own the shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by Hariden and, in addition, 245,222 shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of options to purchase Common Stock. The number of shares beneficially owned by Mr. Grossman amounts to approximately 13.96% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as of the date hereof (calculated in the manner prescribed by Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act).

(c) Except as described in this Schedule 13D, the Reporting Person did not engage in any transactions in shares of Common Stock during the past 60 days.

(d) Not Applicable.

(e) Not Applicable.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

Except as set forth below, there are no contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise), between any of the persons named in Item 2 and any person with respect to any securities of the Company, including, without limitation, the transfer or voting of any of the securities, finder's fees, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees of profits, division of profits or loss, or the giving or withholding of proxies or any pledge or contingency, the occurrence of which would give another person voting or investment power over the securities of the Company.

On February 13, 2012, in connection with, and immediately prior to the closing of the Merger, Former ADMA completed the Private Placement of 1,828,128 shares of Former ADMA Common Stock at a price per share of $9.60 to accredited investors, including Hariden, for gross proceeds to Former ADMA of $17,550,029 pursuant to the Securities Purchase Agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the Securities Purchase Agreement, for a period ending on the earlier to occur of (a) 18 months following February 13, 2012 or (b) such date that the Company has sold in one or more transactions (other than exempt issuances as defined in the agreement) securities having an aggregate purchase price of at least $5 million, if the Company sells any Common Stock or Common Stock equivalents for a price less than $9.60 (a "Dilutive Issuance"), each Private Placement investor, including Hariden, will be given the right to subscribe, for $0.01 per share, for such number of additional shares of Common Stock equal to (x) the total subscription amount paid by the investor in the Private Placement divided by the price per share of Common Stock paid (or payable per share of Common Stock in the case of Common Stock equivalents) by investors in connection with the Dilutive Issuance, less (y) the total number of shares of Common Stock purchased by such investor at the closing of the Private Placement and any such additional shares of Common Stock acquired under this right. The Issuer must use commercially reasonable efforts to complete a financing transaction pursuant to which it would sell Common Stock or Common Stock equivalents resulting in gross proceeds of at least $5 million within 18 months of the closing of the Private Placement (the "First Follow-On Financing"). In the event the Company is unable to raise at least $5 million in the First Follow-On Financing, then Hariden and Maggro, LLC (an entity the managing member of which is the Company's Vice-Chairman, Jerrold B. Grossman)("Maggro"), will subscribe to purchase $0.5 million, which amount will decline proportionately if the Company raises more than $1 million in addition to the amounts contributed by the Lead Investors (as defined in the Company's current report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on February 13, 2012) in the Private Placement.

Furthermore, pursuant to the terms of the Securities Purchase Agreement, with respect to any Lead Investor, including Hariden and Maggro, until such time that such Lead Investor owns less than 50% of the shares of Common Stock that it received in the Merger in exchange for the shares of Former ADMA Common Stock that it owned immediately following the closing of the Private Placement, if the Company proposes to offer any shares of its equity securities, or securities or debentures exchangeable for or convertible into additional shares of its equity securities for the purpose of financing its business (other than shares issued to employees, directors and consultants in the form of stock or options, shares issued upon exercise, exchange or conversion of any securities issued in the Private Placement or outstanding as of February 13, 2012, shares issued pursuant to strategic agreements, shares offered to the public pursuant to an underwritten public offering, or other customary exclusions), the Company will offer such Lead Investor the right to participate in any such offering on the same terms and conditions otherwise available to investors therein, to the extent of an amount at least equal to their beneficial ownership percentage at the time of such offer. Also, each of the Lead Investors, including Maggro and Hariden, is entitled to designate one nominee to the Company's board of directors for as long as such Lead Investor owns 50% of the shares of Common Stock that it received in the Merger in exchange for the shares of Former ADMA Common Stock that it owned immediately following the closing of the Private Placement. Under the terms of the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Company is obligated to cause securities to be delivered to non-affiliates without any restrictive legends if the resale of such securities has been registered, such securities have been sold pursuant to Rule 144 or, in certain circumstances, if such securities are eligible for sale under Rule 144. If the Company fails to do so, it is obligated to pay to the investor, for each $1,000 of shares, $1 per trading day, increasing to $2 per trading day five trading days after such damages have begun to accrue, until unrestricted certificates are delivered. In addition, if the Company fails to satisfy the current public information requirement under Rule 144(c), then the Company is obligated to pay to an investor, for any delay in or reduction of its ability to sell the securities, an amount equal to 1% of the aggregate subscription amount of such investor's securities on the date of such current public information failure and on every 30th day thereafter (prorated for shorter periods) until the failure is cured or public information is no longer required for a Rule 144 sale.

In connection with the Private Placement and the Merger, the Company entered into a registration rights agreement (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), dated February 13, 2012, by and among the Company and each purchaser signatory thereto, including Hariden, and agreed to register on a registration statement (the "Investor Registration Statement") the resale of the shares of Common Stock issued prior to the filing of the Investor Registration Statement, including 438,919 shares of Common Stock issued in the Merger to Hariden. The securities the resale of which is required to be registered on the Investor Registration Statement are referred to as the "Registrable Securities." To effect this registration, the Company is obligated to file the Investor Registration Statement with the SEC no later than March 29, 2012 and the Investor Registration Statement shall be declared effective by the SEC by August 11, 2012 (October 10, 2012 in case of a full review by the SEC). If, among other events, the Investor Registration Statement is not filed by March 29, 2012, is not declared effective by August 11, 2012 (October 10, 2012 in the case of a full review by the SEC), or ceases to remain effective for more than 10 consecutive trading days or any 15 trading days during any 12-month period, the Company is required to pay in cash to the investors in the Private Placement an amount per month equal to one percent of the investors' subscription amount for Registrable Securities still held by the investors, until the Investor Registration Statement is filed, declared effective or continues to be effective (as the case may be). This payment is subject to a maximum of (i) one percent of the investors' subscription amount for Registrable Securities still held by the investors if the Company is diligently using its best efforts to have the Investor Registration Statement declared effective and the delays associated with the effectiveness of the Investor Registration Statement are the result of either continuing comments from or delays in reviewing by the SEC and (ii) ten percent of the investors' subscription amount for Registrable Securities still held by the investors in all other cases. If the SEC informs the Company that all of the securities required to be registered on the Investor Registration Statement cannot, as a result of the application of Rule 415 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), be registered for resale as a secondary offering on a single registration statement, the Company will use its commercially reasonable efforts to file amendments to the Initial Registration Statement as required by the SEC, covering the maximum number of such securities permitted to be registered by the SEC. In such case, the Company will not be required to make payments in cash to the investors in the Private Placement, including Hariden, with respect to securities exceeding such maximum number if the registration statement is not declared effective within the time periods listed above. The Issuer agreed to make such filings as are necessary to keep the Investor Registration Statement effective until the date on which all of the Registrable Securities have been sold or are saleable pursuant to Rule 144 (or any successor thereto) under the Securities Act. The Issuer is obligated to bear registration expenses (exclusive of transfer taxes, underwriters' discounts and commission) of all such registrations required.

On February 13, 2012, each of the Reporting Persons entered into a lock-up agreement with Rodman & Renshaw LLC in connection with the Private Placement in reference to a Placement Agency Agreement, dated February 12, 2012 by and between the Company and Rodman & Renshaw LLC, and agreed that until August 11, 2012, it will not offer, pledge, sell, contract to sell, grant any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, or otherwise dispose of, directly or indirectly, any shares of Common Stock or securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for any shares of Common Stock, or enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of Common Stock, whether any such transaction is to be settled by delivery of Common Stock or such other securities, in cash or otherwise. Such restrictions do not apply, subject to certain conditions, to transactions relating to (i) bona fide gifts, (ii) shares of Common Stock acquired in the open market on or after the completion of the Merger, (iii) the transfer of shares of Common Stock to a family member or a trust for the benefit of the restricted party or a family member (including by will or intestacy) or (iv) a distribution to the partners, members or shareholders of the restricted party, provided that the recipient agrees in writing prior to such transfer to be bound by the foregoing restrictions. The form of lock-up agreement is attached as an exhibit hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

On February 13, 2012, the Company entered into a new employment agreement with Mr. Grossman as its President and Chief Executive Officer, which agreement has an initial term of three (3) years, with automatic three (3) year renewal periods unless notice is provided 90 days in advance. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Grossman was granted options to purchase 212,134 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $9.60 on the closing date of the Merger. All options granted to Mr. Grossman were issued under the Company's stock option plan and vest over a four year period, with 25% of the options vesting on the closing date of the Merger, and the remaining 75% vesting in equal monthly installments over the following 48 months of continued employment, subject to accelerated vesting (i) upon a "change of control" (as defined in the agreement) of the Company of all options if Mr. Grossman is terminated by the Company or its successor for any reason other than cause or by Mr. Grossman for "good reason" (as defined in the agreement) immediately preceding or within two years thereafter and (ii) of that portion of the options that would have vested over the one year period following the date of termination upon a termination of employment by the Company without cause or by Mr. Grossman for good reason or as a result of death or disability. The employment agreement furthermore provides that, in the event (i) that Mr. Grossman is terminated by the Company “without cause” (as such term is defined under the employment agreement), (ii) that Mr. Grossman resigns for “good reason” (as such term is defined under the employment agreement), or (iii) of any termination resulting from a “change of control” (as defined in the agreement) in which the existing employment agreement is not assumed by the successor to the Company, he would be entitled to (A) a severance payment equal to one year base salary payable in 12 monthly, equal installments after termination (lump sum if immediately preceding or within 24 months of a change of control), (B) prior year bonus (if unpaid) and a pro rata bonus for year of termination (calculated as if 50% of the target had been met for the year of termination) and (C) one year of additional vestings on equity incentives then granted to Mr. Grossman or all remaining vestings if such termination is immediately preceding or within 2 years following a change of control.

On February 23, 2012, each of the Reporting Persons entered into an agreement (the “Joint Filing Agreement”) in which the parties agreed to the joint filing on behalf of each of them of statements on Schedule 13D with respect to the securities of the Company to the extent required by applicable law. The Joint Filing Agreement is attached as an exhibit hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 7. Material to be filed as Exhibits.
