“(a) Dismissal of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

On October 28, 2013, our board of directors dismissed DNTW Chartered Accountants, LLP (“DNTW”), as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm.

DNTW’s report on the financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principle, other than for a going concern.

During the fiscal the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, and in the subsequent interim period through October 28, 2013, the date of dismissal of DNTW, there were no disagreements with DNTW on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of DNTW, would have caused them to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in its reports on the financial statements for such year. During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, and in the subsequent interim period through October 28, 2013, the date of dismissal of DNTW, there were no reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

We have provided a copy of the above disclosures to DNTW and requested DNTW to provide it with a letter addressed to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not Moore Stephens agrees with the above disclosures. A copy of DNTW’s response letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 16.1.
