AUDIT COMMITTEE INVESTIGATION UPDATE

GRAVITY Co., Ltd. (Nasdaq: GRVY), Seoul, Korea, January 24, 2006. The Company's audit committee, with the assistance of its special Korean counsel, Woo Yun Kang Jeong & Han ( Woo Yun ), its special United States counsel, Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP and Deloitte Anjin LLC ( Deloitte ), which was hired by Woo Yun to assist it on accounting matters, has completed its investigation (the Investigation ). The Investigation related to the diversion by the Company's former Chairman and controlling shareholder, Mr. Jung-Ryool Kim, of certain royalty payments payable to the Company from certain licensees, which as a result were not accounted for in the Company's audited financial statements as of and for each of the years ended December 31, 2002, 2003 and 2004 and unaudited quarterly financial statements as of and for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and June 30, 2005 (the Financial Statements ). As more fully described in the Company's reports on Form 6-K for October 2005 and November 2005, the Company's audit committee, which is comprised of three independent members of the Company's board of directors, initiated the Investigation in October of 2005. As previously disclosed, the Company and its audit committee concluded, based on the available information at such time, that the Company would need to restate its previously issued Financial Statements and that the Financial Statements should not be relied upon.

On January 23, 2006, the audit committee presented to the Company's board of directors and senior management, the final investigation reports of Woo Yun and Deloitte. The facts and conclusions set forth in the reports address the following principal areas: (i) the diversion by Mr. Jung-Ryool Kim of certain license fees and running royalties and technical support services revenues from the Company and the resultant omission from the Company's Financial Statements of the revenues and assets otherwise attributable to the diverted funds, (ii) expenses incurred by the Company for Mr. Jung-Ryool Kim, which were not substantially connected with the Company's activities or business, (iii) possibility of misapplication of certain revenue recognition policies in certain of its revenue categories and (iv) potential tax consequences to the Company as a result of such findings.

The Company currently believes that approximately KRW8.5 billion of revenues from license fees, running royalties and technical support services otherwise due to the Company were diverted. In addition, the Company believes that approximately KRW450 million of the Company's expenses may not have been related to the Company's business or operations. As previously disclosed, Mr. Jung-Ryool Kim admitted to the diversion of certain funds and paid to the Company on October 17, 2005, KRW7.8 billion, which included the KRW6.0 billion that Mr. Jung-Ryool Kim claimed he diverted plus KRW1.8 billion in interest. The impact of these findings on the Financials Statements, however, has not been determined at this time. Also, tax effects, as well as any potential civil penalties imposed by various authorities, may have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

Based on the results of the Investigation, the audit committee recommended to the Company's board of directors, and the board of the directors resolved, that (i) the Company will restate its Financial Statements, reflecting the findings in the reports, as soon as practicable, with the assistance of KPMG Samjong Accounting Corp., which was hired by the Company as a consultant to assist it in preparing such Financial Statements in restated form under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, (ii) that the Company undertake certain remedial measures to improve the Company's internal controls over financial reporting, including the purchase and implementation of new enterprise resource planning software, hiring of additional resources in the accounting and finance functions, initiation of procedures to comply with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, among others, and (iii) that criminal and civil actions be brought against Mr. Jung-Ryool Kim. On January 23, 2006, the Company filed criminal charges against Mr. Jung-Ryool Kim with the Seoul Central District Prosecutor's Office. The Company's senior management expects to work closely with the audit committee and the board of directors to implement the above resolutions expeditiously.

No current director or officer of the Company was implicated in the reports. The Company has been committed to a thorough and independent investigation and the Company believes that the completion of the Investigation is, and the issuance of its restated Financial Statements will be, an important step in moving forward towards a new future led by a new management team that will continue to build the Company's brand and image as a premium online game developer and publisher. The Company is fully committed to continuing to implement all steps necessary to ensure that such events do not occur again in the future. In addition, the Company expects to cooperate fully with any inquiries from any regulatory or investigative agencies in Korea and the United States, including the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.
