Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Resignation of Dr. Mahendra S. Rao as Director

Dr. Mahendra S. Rao resigned as director of the Company effective as of July 29, 2011. Dr. Rao's resignation was due to his appointment to a position with the National Institute of Health ("NIH") which required him to resign as director of the Company pursuant to NIH and federal government rules and regulations related to conflicts of interests. To the knowledge of the Company, Dr. Rao had no disagreements with the Company on any matter relating to the Company's operations, policies or practices.

Appointment of Robin C. Stracey as Director

On July 29, 2011, the Board of Directors of ThermoGenesis Corp. (the "Company") appointed Mr. Robin C. Stracey as a new member of the Board of Directors of the Company. Mr. Stracey is expected to be appointed to one or more committees of the Board at future meetings, but currently serves on no committee.

Mr. Stracey has more than 30 years of management experience in biotech, life science research and medical device businesses ranging in size from startup to over $9 billion. Since December, 2007, Mr. Stracey has been the President and Chief Executive Officer of Cantimer Incorporated, a privately-held company that develops applications for a patented sensor technology platform that is based upon a unique convergence of micro-electromechanical systems and advanced polymer chemistry. Prior to joining Cantimer Incorporated, Mr. Stracey was Director, President and Chief Executive Officer of Applied Imaging Corporation, a publicly-traded, computer-aided diagnostics company. Mr. Stracey was also the Vice President and General Manager of a Chromatography and Mass Spectrometry business unit of Thermo Electron Corporation from April 2002 to October 2003, where he was responsible for all aspects of a business unit providing sophisticated capital equipment and consumables to drug discovery, clinical and life sciences customers worldwide. From November 1999 to September 2001, Mr. Stracey was a Corporate Vice President of Dade Behring and the General Manager of Syva Inc., a subsidiary of Dade Behring and a leading supplier of specialized diagnostic reagents. Mr. Stracey has a Bachelor of Science degree with honors in life sciences from the University of Nottingham in the United Kingdom. He is a graduate of the Executive Program at the Stanford University Graduate School of Business.

Mr. Stracey will receive an annual board retainer of $24,000 paid quarterly. Mr. Stracey will also be awarded an option to purchase 25,000 shares of the Company's common stock, which will vest in three equal installments on July 29, 2012, 2013 and 2014, and will receive $1,500 per board meeting attended.

Mr. Stracey has not previously held any positions with the Company and there have been no related party transactions between Mr. Stracey and the Company. Mr. Stracey has no family relationships with any director or executive officer of the Company, or persons nominated or chosen by the Company to become directors or executive officers. There are no other arrangements or understandings with Mr. Stracey with respect to his appointment as a director.
